Zangwill,1998 First appearing in 1892 CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO gave an inside look into an immigrant community that was almost as mysterious to the more established middle class Jews of Britain as to the non Jewish population providing a compelling analysis of a generation caught between the ghetto and modern British life Best Jewish Books for Children and Teens Silver,2011-01-01 Linda Silver selected the titles that represent the best in writing illustration reader appeal and authentically Jewish content in picture books fiction and non fiction for readers ranging from early childhood through the high school years P 4 of cover Growing Up Global Homa Sabet Tavangar,2009-08-25 In today s increasingly interconnected world how do we prepare our children to succeed and to become happy informed global citizens A mother of three Homa Sabet Tavangar has spent her career helping governments develop globally oriented programs and advising businesses on how to thrive abroad In Growing Up Global Tavangar shares with all of us her parenting toolbox to help give our children a vital global perspective Whether you re mastering a greeting in ten different languages throwing an internationally themed birthday party or celebrating a newfound holiday Growing Up Global provides parents and children with a rich exciting background for exploring and connecting with far flung nations they may have only heard about on television Inside you ll discover fun activities games and suggestions for movies music books magazines service activities and websites for expanding your family s worldview simple explanations that will help your children grasp the diversity of world faiths creative ways to gain geography literacy handy lists of celebrations and customs that offer a fascinating look at how people from different cultures around the world live everyday life Growing Up Global is a book that parents grandparents and teachers can turn to again and again for inspiration and motivation as they strive to open the minds of children everywhere

The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 A Jew in the Public Arena Meri-Jane Rochelson,2010-02-19 After winning an international audience with his novel Children of the Ghetto Israel Zangwill went on to write numerous short stories four additional novels and several plays including The Melting Pot Author Meri Jane Rochelson a noted expert on Zangwill s work examines his career from its beginnings in the 1890s to the performance of his last play We Moderns in 1924 to trace how Zangwill became the best known Jewish writer in Britain and America and a leading spokesperson on Jewish affairs throughout the world In A Jew in the Public Arena Rochelson examines Zangwill s published writings alongside a wealth of primary materials including letters diaries manuscripts press cuttings and other items in the vast Zangwill files of the Central Zionist Archives to demonstrate why an understanding of Israel Zangwill s career is essential to understanding the era that so significantly shaped the modern Jewish experience Once he achieved fame as an author and playwright Israel Zangwill became a prominent public activist for the leading social causes of the twentieth century including women s suffrage peace Zionism and the Jewish territorialist movement and rescue efforts Rochelson shows how Zangwill s activism and much of his literary output were grounded in a universalist vision of Judaism and a commitment to educate the world about Jews as a way of combating antisemitism Still Zangwill s position in favor of creating a homeland for the Jews wherever one could be found in contrast to mainstream Zionism's focus on Palestine and his apparent advocacy of assimilation in his play The Melting Pot made him an increasingly controversial figure. By the middle of the twentieth century his reputation had fallen into decline and his work is unknown to many modern readers. A Jew in the Public Arena looks at Zangwill's literary and political activities in the context of their time to make clear why he held such a place of importance in turn of the century literary and political culture and why his life and work are significant today. Jewish studies scholars as well as students and teachers of late Victorian to Modernist British literature and culture will appreciate this insightful look at Israel Zangwill.

Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales Beth Bartleson Zarian, 2004 As more school districts undergo the painstaking task of curriculum integration resources that offer children an opportunity to live vicariously in times and places they cannot experience any other way become increasingly necessary. Whether two teachers are covering the same topic in separate classes e.g. English and history or designing a thematic unit with the school librarian this book will assist all parties in the selection of high quality literature. In this handy guide to nearly 800 award winning historical fiction for Kindergarten through 8th grade Beth Zarian literally spans the globe. Entries are first divided into three sections: American history, world history and myths and folklore, then chronologically from prehistoric times to present day and finally by grade level. Each entry is accompanied by a short annotation. For anyone wishing to teach historical facts in an entertaining way Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales is the only way to travel.

DiVERSE Linda Weste, 2024-12-12 Bringing together interviews with some of the most highly esteemed verse novelists writing for young adults and children today DiVERSE develops an understanding of the poetics of the verse novel genre. With poignant conversations with 28 verse novelists illuminating how writers combine elements of poetry and narrative to craft poetic stories this collection provides the means to appreciate the verse novel's diversity in its many variations and attests to recent shifts in the genre towards inclusive storytelling. Getting into the nuts and bolts of process, inspiration, technique and the verse novel as a form the writers discuss themes in their best loved works such as representation of diverse voices, identities and lived experiences, empowering stories of girls and women, stories of LGBTIQ, Black, First Nations, People of Colour, Asian, Minoritised, Ethnic and people self-identifying as having a disability, body positive messaging and resilience and characters between countries, cultures, identities and languages. A reference text and a writing resource the book also includes lists of must read verse novels and a broad introduction from editor Linda Weste. Featuring authors from the UK, Australia and the US the writers interviewed include Margarita Engle, Kirli Saunders, Carole Boston Weatherford, Rajani LaRocca, Safia Elhillo, Jasmine Warga, Melanie Crowder, Aida Salazar, Cordelia Jensen, Thanh Lai, Dean Atta, Lucy Cuthew, Rukhsanna Guidroz, Mariko Nagai, Ishle Yi, Park Jion, Sheibani Jasminne, Mendez Ann E, Burg Marilyn, Hilton Reem, Faruqi Sarah, Tregay Holly, Thompson Chris, Baron Stephanie.
