Larke, Dr. Gwendolyn Webb-Hasan, Dr. Jemimah L. Young, 2016-12-01 chapters discuss issues impacting the education of African American girls and many of challenges that they encounter during their schooling experiences The chapters were written by 24 authors including a school superintendent university administrator and professors classroom teacher mother and a 10th grade African American student The 20 chapters of the book are organized into four sections Section one introduces the book and provides critical perspectives Section Two focuses on Curriculum and instruction Section Three shares information from significant stakeholders while the last section includes other schooling experiences and ends with a powerful poem by a tenth grade African American girl entitled Proud The forward of the book written by a Japanese American scholar Valerie Pang denotes the urgency of the book noting that the book warms the heart The book ends with an epilogue written by an African American scholar Tyrone Howard who has a vested interest in African American males He shares commanding interest in this scholarship because what happens to African American females impacts African American males and the entire African American community Ten Girls Who Made a Difference Irene Howat, 2002 These ten girls grew up to do just that Susanna's children changed their country Monica's son changed the church Ann's romance taught Burma about the love of Christ Edith was used by God to change a continent Katherine escaped from oppression and changed her world Susannah listened to a preacher and then published the gospel herself Bethan met a doctor and then helped to heal people's souls Maria lost her parents but found China Sabrina was imprisoned for her faith and then fought to set other Christians free Ruth began her life in China but eventually God took her in a mission round the world Book jacket Women's Health and Social

Change Ellen Annandale, 2008-07-14 Shortlisted for the BSA Sociology of Health and Illness Book Prize 2009 Traditional distinctions between the experiences of women and men are breaking down and being reconfigured in new more complex ways The long established life expectancy gap between men and women appears to be closing in many affluent societies Many men appear to be far more body and health conscious than they ever were in the past and there are perceptible changes in women's health behaviours such as increases in cigarette smoking and alcohol consumption Ellen Annandale provides a comprehensive and persuasive analysis of the contemporary social relations of gender and women's health arguing that the once all important sex gender distinction fosters an undue separation between the social and the biological whereas it is their interaction and flexibility that is important in the production of health and illness New theoretical tools are needed in a world where the meaning and lived experience of biological sex and of social gender as well as the connections between them are far more fluid This book takes a step forward outlining what an adequate feminist analysis of women's health might look like Women's Health and Social Change will be of interest to academics and students working in sociology women's studies gender studies social medicine social policy nursing and midwifery Peace Corps Program & Training Journal Peace Corps (U.S.), The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, 1927 International Woman Suffrage: November 1914-September 1916 Sybil Oldfield, 2003 As the monthly periodical of the early twentieth century women's movement International Woman Suffrage originally Ius Suffragii was read by the leading figures of the suffrage movement in more than thirty countries Featuring an in depth introduction to the material and its social and historical context this four volume set reprints eight years of the journal making this rare resource available to students and researchers in a variety of disciplines In addition to women's fight for the vote International Woman Suffrage 1913-1920 covered such highly controversial topics as the age of consent for girls alcohol control education of girls new employment openings for women divorce law reform health insurance for mothers maternity benefits minimum wages prostitution women medical workers women police women politicians and other subjects of debate Truly global for its time issues included articles by women from Argentina Australia Austria Belgium Bohemia British India Bulgaria Canada China Denmark Egypt Finland France Germany Great Britain Hungary Iceland Ireland Italy Japan Netherlands New Zealand Norway Philippines Rumania Russia South Africa Sweden Switzerland Turkey and the USA Collier's, 1911 Ius Suffragii, 1915 Change and Continuity Kathleen E. Barker, 2021-06-15 St Stephen's Girls College is one of the many schools run under the auspices of the Anglican Church in Hong Kong As one of the earliest schools for girls in the territory St Stephen's played a significant role in the opening up of educational opportunities for Chinese girls This book records the history and development of the school and is written for its 90th Anniversary using much original source material The author who was head of the school for over thirty years has set this history within the educational social and political context of the times Youth in a Changing World Estelle Fuchs, 2011-06-03 No detailed description available
