And Justice for All Mary Frances Berry, 2009-01-20 This is the story of the U S Commission on Civil Rights through its extraordinary fifty years at the heart of the civil rights movement and the struggle for justice in America Mary Frances Berry the commission s chairperson for more than a decade author of My Face Is Black Is True An essential chapter in American history from a distinguished historian Nell Painter tells of the commission s founding in 1957 by President Eisenhower in response to burgeoning civil rights protests how it was designed to be an independent bipartisan Federal agency made up of six members with no more than three from one political party free of interference from Congress and presidents beholden to no government body with full subpoena power and free to decide what it would investigate and report on Berry writes that the commission rather than producing reports that would gather dust on the shelves began to hold hearings even as it was under attack from Southern segregationists She writes how the commission s hearings and reports helped the nonviolent protest movement prick the conscience of the nation then on the road to dismantling segregation beginning with the battles in Montgomery and Little Rock the sit ins and freedom rides the March on Washington We see how reluctant government witnesses and local citizens overcame their fear of reprisal and courageously came forward to testify before the commission how the commission was instrumental in passing the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 how Congress soon added to the commission s jurisdiction the overseeing of discriminating practices with regard to sex age and disability which helped in the enactment of the Age Discrimination Act of 1978 and the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 Berry writes about how the commission s monitoring of police community relations and affirmative action was fought by various U S presidents chief among them Ronald Reagan and George W Bush each of whom fired commissioners who disagreed with their policies among them Dr Berry replacing them with commissioners who supported their ideological objectives and how these commissioners began to downplay the need to remedy discrimination ignoring reports of unequal access to health care and employment opportunities Finally Dr Berry s book makes clear what is needed for the future a reconfigured commission fully independent with an expanded mandate to help oversee all human rights and to make good the promise of democracy equal protection under the law regardless of race color sexual orientation religion disability or national origin National Disability Policy National Council on Disability (U.S.),2001 Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,2003 Because of Race Mica Pollock,2010-11-14 In Because of Race Mica Pollock tackles a long standing and fraught debate over racial inequalities in America s schools Which denials of opportunity experienced by students of color should be remedied Pollock exposes raw real time arguments over what inequalities of opportunity based on race in our schools look like today and what if anything various Americans should do about it Pollock encountered these debates while working at the U S Department of Education s Office for Civil Rights in 1999 2001 For more than two years she listened to hundreds of parents advocates educators and federal employees talk about the educational treatment of children and youth in specific schools and districts People debated how children were spoken to disciplined and ignored in both segregated and desegregated districts and how children were afforded or denied basic resources and opportunities to learn Pollock discusses four rebuttals that greeted demands for everyday justice for students of color inside schools and districts She explores how debates over daily opportunity provision exposed conflicting analyses of opportunity denial and harm worth remedying Because of Race lays bare our habits of argument and offers concrete suggestions for arguing more successfully toward equal opportunity Enforcing Religious Freedom in Prison United States Commission on Civil Rights,2008 From Executive summary This report focuses on the government s efforts to enforce federal civil rights laws prohibiting religious discrimination in the administration and management of federal and state prisons Prisoners in federal and state institutions retain certain religious exercise rights under the Constitution and statutes including the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act RLUIPA the Religious Freedom Restoration Act RFRA and the Civil rights of Institutionalized Persons Act CRIPA Many states have similar provisions in their state constitutions and in state law modeled on RFRA These rights must be balanced with the legitimate concerns of prisons officials including cost staffing and most importantly prison safety and security Reconciling these rights and concerns can be a significant challenge for penal institutions as well as courts Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States. Congress. House,2009 Some vols include supplemental journals of such proceedings of the sessions as during the time they were depending were ordered to be kept secret and respecting which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards taken off by the order of the House Becoming Less Separate? United States Commission on Civil Rights,2007 Not in My Backyard United States Commission on Civil Rights,2003 U.S. Commission on Civil Rights more operational and financial oversight needed. ,2003 Congressional Record United States.
