Poems of Tennyson, Browning, and Arnold Matthew Arnold, Robert Browning, Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1953      Nature Knowledge in Modern Poetry Alexander MacKie, 2017-10-12 Excerpt from Nature Knowledge in Modern Poetry Being Chapters on Tennyson Wordsworth Matthew Arnold and Lowell as Exponents of Nature Study While lovers of Poetry are pleased to see Nature study finding a place in every school they hail the innovation all the more that it is likely to add fresh interest to the study of Poetry in Which accurate Nature references are part of the charm The study of owners of insects and birds will throw a new zest into the study of poets Who are rich in natural history allusions It is because I think such knowledge is doubly charming and humanising When clothed in poetic language and judiciously used for poetic embellishment that I have striven to garner the best material of this kind from four poets Who While they are all devotees of Nature show considerable difference in their presentation of scientific facts About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic

Camelot in the Nineteenth Century Robert Thomas Lambdin, Laura Lambdin, 2000-07-30 For centuries accounts of King Arthur and his court have fascinated historians scholars poets and readers Each age has added material to reflect its own cultural attitudes but no era has supplemented the earlier versions more than the poets of the Medieval Revival of nineteenth century England This book examines how Arthurian legend was read and rewritten during that period by four enduring writers Alfred Lord Tennyson Matthew Arnold William Morris and Algernon Charles Swinburne While other works have looked at Arthurian legend in light of nineteenth century social conditions this volume focuses on how these poets approached love and death in their works and how the legend of Arthur shaped their vision An introductory chapter traces Arthurian legend from its inception The chapters that follow are each devoted to a particular author s use of Arthurian material in an exploration of love and death For Tennyson love leads to trust and when trust is shattered death soon follows Arnold on the other hand advocates moderation so that the loss of a loved one produces neither debilitating agony nor only a mild melancholy Morris concentrates on the differences between physical and spiritual love while Swinburne presents a world tormented by love and in which death is the only release
