The Voice of the Masters Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-07-05 By one of the most original and learned critical voices in Hispanic studies a timely and ambitious study of authority as theme and authority as authorial strategy in modern Latin American literature An ideology is implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barnet Cabrera Infante Carpentier Cortázar Fuentes Gallegos García Márquez Roa Bastos and Rodríguez are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Cabrera Infante's Meta End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text

Perception, Sensibility, and Moral Motivation in Augustine Sarah Catherine Byers, 2012-11-12 This book argues that Augustine assimilated the Stoic theory of perception into his theories of motivation affectivity therapy for the passions and moral progress Using his sermons to elucidate his treatises Sarah Catherine Byers demonstrates how Augustine enriched Stoic cognitivism with Platonism to develop a fuller and coherent theory of action That theory underlies his account of moral development including his account of the mind s reception of grace By analyzing Augustine s engagement with Cicero Seneca Plotinus Ambrose Jerome Origen and Philo of Alexandria Byers sheds new light on a major thinker of the early Christian world whose work is of critical importance for understanding key and recurring themes in Western philosophy Latin American Literature Bernard

McGuirk,2013-12-19 Critical theory meets Latin American fiction in this bold and challenging analysis of literature and literary criticism through post structuralist analysis Focusing on Latin American literary and critical production from the 1890s to the 1990s Bernard McGuirk highlights the confrontation between theory politics and literature The range of literatures discussed is extensive including writings from Argentina Brazil Chile Guatemala Mexico Nicaragua and Peru The symptomatic differences between and within cultures are illuminated by analysis of texts by such authors as C sar Vallejo Jorge Luis Borges Rub n Dar o Pablo Neruda Julio Cort zar Jo o Guimar es Rosa Susana Th non Carlos Fuentes Bernard McGuirk holds the Chair of Romance Literatures and Literary Theory at the University of Nottingham He is currently President of the Association of Hispanists of Great Britain and Ireland Lifting the Obsidian Mask Lanin A. Taswell-Langmead,1890 Writing At Risk Jason Weiss,1991-10-01 Much has been made of the image of writers in Paris romanticized and idealized in fiction and on screen these migr artists in sidewalk caf s spark our imagination with unusual force But rarely do the real life figures speak to us directly to comment on their work their lives and their reasons for choosing to live and work in Paris In these striking interviews E M Cioran Julio Cort zar Brion Gysin Eug ne Ionesco Carlos Fuentes Jean Claude Carri re Milan Kundera Nathalie Sarraute and Edmund Jab s do just this as they speak out on the risks they ve taken on their struggles and discoveries on tradition challenge and their near unanimous status as migr s A consummate interviewer Jason Weiss spoke in depth with these pathbreaking artists regarding their lives their craft and their very special relationship to Paris Their writings were naturally the main focus of investigation but Weiss concern was always to build on previous interviews to deepen certain lines of inquiry and open new ones to contribute fresh material to the ongoing record The result is a series of invigorating detailed portraits that go beyond personality habits and pleasures to examine some of the causes and effects in the unique relationship of place and temperament Writing at Risk suggests that there is more than we suspect binding writers of such disparate cultures and genres perhaps their attitudes toward writing perhaps their common attraction to risk Readers will relish the immediacy of these interviews and will want to re discover the work of these exceptional artists Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr,1992 The recent fiction of Spanish America has been widely acclaimed for its experimental and revolutionary qualities In Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr studies the sources of power of this newly emergent literature in her detailed examination of the critical concept of the author Kerr considers how Spanish American narratives raise questions about authorial identity and activity through the different figures of the author they propose These author figures she maintains both complement and contradict notions of authority that exist outside of the world of fiction By focusing on works by well known Spanish American authors Cortazar Donoso Fuentes Poniatowska Puig and Vargas Llosa Kerr shows how the Spanish Americans have formed a radical poetics of the author Her readings demonstrate how exemplary Spanish American texts such as Rayuela Terra nostra and El hablador call into question the author as a unitary or uniform and therefore unproblematical figure Individually and together Kerr s readings reclaim the author as a complex critical concept encompassing diverse conflicting even competitive roles Ibbetson Street #39 Doug Holder,2016-05-26 Poetry from Jennifer Barber Ted Kooser Kathleen Spivack X J Kennedy Danielle Legros Georges Mary Buchinger Bodwell and more Interview with novelist Paul Harding Captured by Fire Chris Czajkowski,Fred Reid,2019-09-28 In the summer of 2017 wildfires dominated the headlines in British Columbia As a low pressure weather system continued to cause lightning strikes starting new fires strong winds fanned the existing ones Over two hundred fires burned in the province and nearly ten thousand people in or around the towns of 100 Mile House Ashcroft Cache Creek Princeton and Williams Lake received the instruction YOU MUST EVACUATE NOW But not everyone left Captured by Fire alternates between the dramatic first person accounts of wilderness dweller Chris Czajkowski and homesteader Fred Reid who both ignored the evacuation order and stayed to protect their properties animals and livelihoods Living in a remote area they knew that their homes would be of low priority to officials when fire fighting resources were deployed Over the course of the summer as alerts fluctuated and even the firefighters pulled out both had to decide when is it time to go Interviews with Contemporary Novelists Diana Cooper-Clark,1986-06-18 English constitutional history from the Teutonic conquest... Thomas Pitt Taswell-Langmead,1881 Early Palaeozoic Biogeography and Palaeogeography D.A.T.
