El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006 Survivor-Centred Justice Ingrid Roestenburg-Morgan,Tim

Murithi,2025-02-04 This volume interrogates global perspectives and issues that constitute and characterize survivor centred justice exploring both conceptual and theoretical issues surrounding the definition of a survivor practical considerations of what constitutes a survivor centred approach to justice and available avenues of justice for survivors of mass atrocities In the first part of the book survivor centred justice is explored at the level of the International Criminal Court ICC The second part evaluates developments taking place at the local and domestic levels where traditional customary or local justice mechanisms find affinity with survivors in their quest for justice The third part focuses on advocacy based approaches being utilized specifically by non governmental organizations NGOs multilateral and regional institutions such as the United Nations and African Union in support of survivors In the final part of the book future prospects for survivors in the promotion of peacebuilding and atrocity prevention are discussed The discussions in this volume will be of particular value and importance to international and transitional justice scholars including legal and development practitioners interested in survivor centred approaches to mass atrocity crimes Most importantly it aims to be of value to survivors survivor communities and survivor centred networks

Third Place Learning Glyn M. Rimmington,Mara Alagic,2008-06-01 The hybridity and dynamism of today s interconnected interdependent and culturally diverse world poses challenges and opportunities for learning and communication This book introduces an approach to facilitate global learning opportunities while facing these challenges The approach is based on the cage painting metaphor for dialogic co construction of meaning and understanding of multiple perspectives Resolving disorienting dilemmas or preconceptions requires a dialectic flow of thinking since the root of the problem may lay deep in person s beliefs and values Such experiences might be transformative in their nature causing change in person s perspective better understanding the culture of themselves and other people reflective and mindful inquiry into one s worldview the third place processes Misunderstandings are more prevalent when using technology global reach between people from distant locations different cultures To prepare people for these challenges we offer a Web 2 0 based instructional design blueprint Dependent on the context and content of the planned activities the cage painting and global learning processes may be facilitated simultaneously or sequentially The approach presented in this book has attracted interest of educators in different disciplines as well as human resources leaders concerned with key characteristics of today s global business workers intercultural global communication and collaboration The ideas emerged from six years of studying ways in which we and our colleagues from 25 other countries integrated global learning into classrooms in a range of discipline areas In this book we explore the competences needed to communicate interculturallly and avoid the effects of preconceptions on our communication and collaboration We review metaphors commonly used in intercultural communication and then introduce a new metaphor called Cage Painting The process of Cage Painting requires certain conditions during intercultural communication whether it is face to face or via global reach using technology The transformative processes that we undergo as we confront cultural disorienting dilemmas smiling being a simple example of one are named the Third Place

Victims' Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court T. Markus Funk, 2015-03-16 Since World War II there have been some 250 conflicts throughout the world leaving between 70 170 million atrocity crime victims Unlike diseases or natural disasters the injuries and tragedies of war are largely self inflicted Created in response to such outrages the International Criminal Court ICC stands as the first and only permanent juridical body prosecuting genocide war crimes and crimes against humanity Victims Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court introduces readers to the most significant restorative feature of the ICC's procedure direct victim participation in war crime trials Under this new model the ICC has given victims

a voice to speak out against their abusers T Markus Funk presents the first comprehensive guidance on this innovative dynamic analyzing not just the procedural rules that apply but also the practical problems in advocating for victims before the ICC In the process Funk provides an overview of ICC trial procedure a candid assessment of the performance of the ICC and its predecessor tribunals and a guide to the development of victims rights under international law Not only does he identify areas needing reform and reconsideration but he also provides readers with concrete solutions Funk an experienced federal prosecutor and law professor who has advised prosecutors and judges at criminal tribunals as the U S Justice Department s Resident Legal Advisor for Kosovo draws on that experience to suggest ways in which the ICC can improve the lot of victims of the world s worst crimes This second edition provides a detailed analysis of the newly recognized right of victims to participate in the trials of their accused abusers The author guides the reader through this unique controversial body of procedural and substantive rights for victims of atrocity crimes and discusses how to qualify as Legal Counsel for Victims and how to seek Reparations In addition the author provides updated caselaw and other information to reflect the ICC s current position on victim involvement and related procedure as well as text to show how these changes in the law affect ICC procedure and advocacy

Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education Guangyan Chen,2020-06-22
Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education A Culture Based Approach for U S Collegiate Contexts elaborates on a cultural awareness oriented cultural performance based and cross cultural communication focused foreign language pedagogical paradigm Performed Culture Approach in the context of U S collegiate Chinese language education Guangyan Chen draws on the data collected through questionnaires comparisons between this pedagogy and mainstream pedagogical frameworks and analyses of curricular development lesson plans and classroom discourses Chen promotes the performed culture approach by delineating the theoretical framework of this pedagogy reporting studies that empirically support cultural primacy in Chinese language education and illustrating this pedagogy through analyses of a curricular structure a lesson plan and classroom discourses Chen shows how this pedagogy addresses the gaps between the social need for global citizens and the insufficient integration of culture into foreign language education The performed culture approach also addresses the overall drop in U S collegiate foreign language enrollment as this pedagogy connects foreign language programs to university missions and social needs

The Participation of Victims in International Criminal Proceedings Alessandra Cuppini,2022-09-30 This book argues that the expressivist justice model provides a meaningful foundation for the participation of victims in international criminal proceedings Traditional criminal justice theories have tended to marginalise the role afforded to victims while informing the criminal procedures utilised by international criminal courts As a result giving content to shaping and enhancing victims participatory rights have been some of the most debated issues in international criminal justice This book contributes to this debate by advancing expressivism which has the capacity to create a historical narrative of gross human rights violations as a core of international criminal justice able to provide a worthwhile basis for the participation of victims in proceedings and clarifying the scope and content of their participatory rights The work provides an in depth discussion on issues related to victims participatory rights from the perspective of international human rights law victimology and the philosophical foundation of international criminal justice The book will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of international criminal justice international human rights law transitional justice and conflict studies
