the present in personal and social history The poems are memorials like the yahrtzeit candle in a glass We lose and we go on losing but the poems are never far from harsh joy the joy that is the wine of life Growing up haunted by Holocaust ghosts is an echo throughout the book and some of the strongest poems are about the Holocaust poems that become the voices of those who had no voice What you carry in your blood is us the books we did not write music we could not make a world gone from gristle to smoke only as real now as words can make it Marge Piercy's words make such a moving variety of experiences beautifully and forcefully real Made in Detroit Marge Piercy, 2017-11-07 Now in paperback a collection to treasure from one of our most popular poets poems that range from the Detroit of her childhood to her current life on Cape Cod from deep appreciations of the natural world to elegies for lost friends and fellow poets In her trademark style combining the sublime with gritty reality Marge Piercy describes the night she was born the sky burned red over Detroit and sirens sharpened their knives The elms made tents of solace over grimy streets and alley cats purred me to sleep She writes in graphic unflinching language about the poor banished now by politicians no longer real people like corporations There are elegies for her peer group of poets gone now whose work she cherishes but from whom she cannot help but want more There are laments for the suicide of dolphins and for her beloved cats as she remembers exactly how I loved each She continues to celebrate Jewish holidays in compellingly original ways and sings the praises of her marriage and the small pleasures of life A stunning collection in the best Piercy tradition
