 to see Angus Dingo and Flatnose Nelson hanged everyone including John Slocum Their brutal crimes warrant their deaths but when their hour is up they are nowhere to be found Slocum aims to track down the convicts and finish the job himself As their own history with Dingo and Flatnose and Slocum never could refuse a lady let alone three Slocum 419 Jake Logan,2013-12-31 Two dangerous dames are about to go down Slocum is on his way to Durango to see a man about a horse four horses in fact when he watches a mining blast send a man to his death In the distance he spies the distinctive shape of a woman in man s clothing making her getaway and hears a second woman aiding her retreat Slocum is no fool when it comes to the dangers of the fairer sex but now he s on the hunt for a pair of ladies who know their way around dynamite And when he finally finds them sparks and bullets are going to fly In Defense of Justice Eileen Tamura,2013-09-30 As a leading dissident in the World War II concentration camps for Japanese Americans the controversial figure Joseph Yoshisuke Kurihara stands out as an icon of Japanese American resistance In emotional often inflammatory speeches Kurihara attacked the U S government for its treatment of innocent citizens and immigrants Because he articulated what other inmates dared not voice openly he became a spokesperson for camp inmates In this astute biography Kurihara s life provides a window into the history of Japanese Americans during the first half of the twentieth century Born in Hawai i to Japanese parents who immigrated to work on the sugar plantations Kurihara worked throughout his youth and early adult life to make a place for himself as an American seeking quality education embracing Christianity and serving as a soldier in the U S Army during World War I Though he bore the brunt of anti Japanese hostility in the decades before World War II he remained adamantly positive about the prospects of his own life in America The U S entry into World War II and the forced removal and incarceration of ethnic Japanese destroyed that perspective and transformed Kurihara As an inmate at Manzanar in California Kurihara became one of the leaders of a dissident group within the camp and was implicated in the Manzanar incident a serious civil disturbance that erupted on December 6 1942 In 1945 after three years and seven months of incarceration he renounced his U S citizenship and boarded a ship for Japan where he had never been before He never returned to the United States Kurihara s personal story illuminates the tragedy of the forced removal and incarceration of U S citizens among the West Coast Nikkei even as it dramatizes the heroic resistance to that injustice Shedding light on the turmoil within the camps as well as the sensitive and formerly unspoken issue of citizenship renunciation among Japanese Americans In Defense of Justice explores one man s struggles with the complexities of loyalty and resistance Slocum and the Darling Damsels of Durango Jake Logan,2013 Slocum is fast on the trail of two women who having a penchant for death and dynamite are responsible for blowing up a mine and sending a man to his death Food Justice Undone Hanna

Garth, 2026-02-03 Breaks open the privilege and promise of food justice to envision a radical liberatory future Food justice activists have worked to increase access to healthy food in low income communities of color across the United States Yet despite their best intentions they often perpetuate food access inequalities and racial stereotypes Hanna Garth shows how the movement has been affected by misconceptions and assumptions about residents as well as by unclear definitions of justice and what it means to be healthy Focusing on broad structures and microlevel processes Garth reveals how power dynamics shape social justice movements in particular ways Drawing on twelve years of ethnographic research Garth examines what motivates people from more affluent majority white areas of the city to intervene in South Central Los Angeles She argues that the concepts of food justice and healthy food operate as racially coded language reinforcing the idea that health problems in low income Black and Brown communities can be solved through individual behavior rather than structural change Food Justice Undone explores the stakes of social justice and the possibility of multiracial coalitions working toward a better future

Cultivating Food Justice Alison Hope Alkon, Julian Agyeman, 2011-10-21 Documents how racial and social inequalities are built into our food system and how communities are creating environmentally sustainable and socially just alternatives Popularized by such best selling authors as Michael Pollan Barbara Kingsolver and Eric Schlosser a growing food movement urges us to support sustainable agriculture by eating fresh food produced on local family farms But many low income neighborhoods and communities of color have been systematically deprived of access to healthy and sustainable food These communities have been actively prevented from producing their own food and often live in food deserts where fast food is more common than fresh food Cultivating Food Justice describes their efforts to envision and create environmentally sustainable and socially just alternatives to the food system Bringing together insights from studies of environmental justice sustainable agriculture critical race theory and food studies Cultivating Food Justice highlights the ways race and class inequalities permeate the food system from production to distribution to consumption The studies offered in the book explore a range of important issues including agricultural and land use policies that systematically disadvantage Native American African American Latino and Asian American farmers and farmworkers access problems in both urban and rural areas efforts to create sustainable local food systems in low income communities of color and future directions for the food justice movement These diverse accounts of the relationships among food environmentalism justice race and identity will help guide efforts to achieve a just and sustainable agriculture
