Small Communities In Religious Life Making Them Work:

Small Communities in Religious Life Catherine Widdicombe, 2001 Like the author's previous book Meetings That Work this is a self help manual giving practical advice in an accessible way helping people to realise their full potential Aimed at those in small life giving communities practising collegiality subsidiarity and collaborative reflective ministry the book offers the benefit of Catherine Widdicombe's wide experience to leaders and members of communities who have no outside aid The importance of small communities in religious life is explored and the problems faced while living in them is examined from unfamiliar and unexpected relational demands to new spiritual challenges The author has spent over 20 years working in these areas primarily with women from widely different religious communities and has developed a highly accessible book to help leaders and members of communities who have little access to facilitators

Meetings That Work Catherine Widdicombe, 2013-03-28 How do I establish a group What is the best way to prepare a meeting How should we arrange the seating Help I need to chair a meeting What should I do What sort of minutes should we keep How can we deal with a difficult member Can we remotivate someone who has lost interest These are just some of the many questions dealt with in Catherine Widdicombe's Meetings that Work A plethora of meetings and committees is one of the inescapable features of modern life From small businesses to multinational corporations from large charities to small voluntary organisations from training courses to statutory services from professional societies to church groups from community organisations to political pressure groups meetings are endemic Meetings help society to move forward they provide a vital medium for disseminating information and for decision making But vital though they are they can be deadening rather than life giving Meetings that Work is a vital aid to helping make meetings of all sorts realise their full potential for development and enjoyment Meetings that Work is a how to guide a manual and helpmate arranged to enable the reader to focus on what is specifically needed for a particular group or situation Based on more than two decades of practical experience the book is an invaluable vade mecum for all who attend or chair meetings

Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Wade Clark Roof, 2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages Religious organizations must serve families that don't fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life

British Cinema and the Second World War Robert Murphy, 2005-08-15 The author provides a decade by decade analysis of every film ever made in Britain about World War II It provides a comprehensive account of how Britain has portrayed the war through films Community of the Transfiguration Paul R Dekar,2008-08-28

In the 1930s German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer anticipated the restoration of the Church after the coming Second World War through a new kind of monasticism a way of life of uncompromising adherence to the Sermon on the Mount in imitation of Christ Since then the renewal of Christian monasticism has become a great spiritual movement Imbued with a love for God and neighbour and with a healthy self love people are going to monasteries to deepen their relationship with God to pray and to find peace While some monastic institutions are suffering a decline in traditional vocations many Christians are exploring monastic lifestyles This book introduces The Community of the Transfiguration in Australia the story of a new monastic community and an inspiring source of hope for the world at another time of spiritual social and ecological crisis Mission, Ministry, Order David Noel Power,2008-06-01 What is the mission of the church What are the ministries that further its mission How should the traditional orders of bishop overseer priest presbyter and deacon be reconsidered in the light of 21st century challenges and ecumenical unity These big questions involve a constellation of neuralgic issues both within the Roman Catholic Church and between it and its sister churches both East and West women priests women bishops married priests lay ministries the unaccountability of bishops to their flocks The rapid decline of priests in the US has led to an enormous number of lay people in leadership positions but they can't preside at the Eucharist the heart and soul of Catholic identity and practice and their roles are nebulous undefined and severely constrained Catholic women are voting with their feet over the church's failure to ordain women Lay theologians men and women now outnumber priest theologians but have little standing in the church outside of academia Far reaching agreements on theological issues have been made between Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism and Lutheranism but the practical consequences e.g. shared Eucharists are nil It is against this background that David Power the doyen of sacramental theologians in North America has written a magisterial work on the mission ministry and order of the church that is historically comprehensive theologically progressive ecumenically and globally focused and practical in its prescriptions The Social Welfare Forum National Conference on Social Welfare,1919 The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye,2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Vatican City Business Law Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Basic Laws IBP, Inc.,2012-05-16 Vatican City Business Law Handbook Strategic Information and Basic Laws When the Sisters Said Farewell Michael P. Caruso,2012-03-11 When the Sisters Said Farewell tells an important story of the contributions of Catholic elementary schools to the United States by chronicling the experiences and insights of religious women nuns who were the last members of their communities to serve in parish elementary schools and of those lay men and women who were the first to serve in those roles traditionally filled by the sisters. The dramatic numerical transition from the preponderance of religious women to lay leadership from the 1960s to the 1980s has been documented; this book describes the how and why sisters left Catholic schools. This narrative also provides instructive insights about leadership transitions and current trends in religious life and Catholic education. As all educators in Catholic private and public schools grapple with questions of delivering an excellent education, this book offers a glimpse into the workings of one of the most amazing educational enterprises in the history of the United States. How Latin America Saved the Soul of the Catholic Church Edward L. Cleary, 2009 Tells the remarkable story of the transformation of the Latin American church on every level from professional theologians to the individual in the remotest Latin American village Preaching as Spiritual Leadership Michael E. Connors, CSC, 2021-05-15 In this unique resource Fr Michael E Connors CSC gathers and expertly guides the collective wisdom of experienced preachers and homilists to provide a unique resource that examines the preacher's unique role as shepherd and a spiritual leader. The chapters will investigate these dual roles according to the roots of the Catholic spiritual tradition and provide practical advice for priests, deacons, seminarians in homiletics classes or preaching classes, retreat leaders, RCIA catechists, all who preach. Preaching as Spiritual Leadership provides solutions to the following questions: How is preaching embedded in the Church's pastoral mission? What does it mean to be a shepherd and spiritual leader for others? How can a preacher flourish in the role of spiritual leader? How can we lead others into committed discipleship through preaching? To be a shepherd and spiritual leader, the preacher must be in some sense a mystic who is filled with the Lord's gracious presence, a presence to be shared with others. Homilists are sacramental people; they must also be mystagogues, ministers who can both lead the community's ritual celebrations and help the People of God to plunge into the liturgy with lively faith to touch the holy realities behind them The Christian Reformer, 1887

Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-06-20 This title tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion. It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move, leadership in communities of faith, leadership as taught in theological education and training, religious leadership impacting social change and social justice, and more. Topics are examined from multiple perspectives, traditions, and faiths.

Renewing Parish Culture John J. Piderit, Melanie M. Morey, 2008-01-28 In this volume Piderit and Morey discuss the problem of declining parishes and bring some solutions to light. The authors pinpoint four basic principles: narrative, norms, benefits, and practices, which have been used effectively by nuns to reach their parishioners for years.
