Priscilla Layne,Michelle Stott James,Lisabeth Hock,2025-07-15 Afrika and Alemania explores the representation of Blackness in German speaking literary autobiographical and cinematic texts across two centuries By examining how different groups of women with access to German culture have depicted Africa Africans and the African diaspora the book challenges the assumption that all women will tell the same story Focusing on Black women non Black women of colour and white women it investigates how these diverse voices engage with and represent Blackness within a society shaped by racial hierarchies Part

I analyses how Black German speaking women actively reshape and redefine Blackness in response to stereotypes upheld by white German society Part II explores how non Black women of colour navigate the complexities of othering while sometimes reproducing anti Black stereotypes while Part III discusses how white women s projections of fantasies about Africa often erase Black voices and render them invisible Offering a nuanced analysis of the intersections of race gender ethnicity and nationality Afrika and Alemania provides a vital framework for understanding Blackness within contemporary scholarship and its broader social and cultural implications
