Snow Speaks:

The Snow Speaks Nancy White Carlstrom, 1995-09 Captures the sights and sounds of the season's first snowfall leading up to the coming of Christmas Michael Snow James King, 2019-10-12 Michael Snow is rightly recognized as the greatest living Canadian artist and one of the most significant figures in Canadian art history In a productive lengthy career he has in a wide variety of genres asked and often answered some of the most vexing and important issues in the history of art

Building Fires in the Snow Martha Amore, Lucian Childs, 2016-09-15 Diversity has always been central to Alaska identity as the state's population consists of people with many different backgrounds viewpoints and life experiences This book opens a window into these diverse lives gathering stories and poems about lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer life into a brilliant path breaking anthology In these pages we see the panoply of LGBTQ life in Alaska today from the quotidian urban adventures of a family shopping going out working to intimate encounters with Alaska's breathtaking natural beauty At a time of great change and major strides in LGBTQ civil rights Building Fires in the Snow shows us an Alaska that shatters stereotypes and reveals a side of Alaska that's been little seen until now Make Waves Paula Anca Farca, 2019-10-16 Water is a symbol of life wisdom fertility purity and death Water also sustains and nourishes irrigates our crops keeps us clean and healthy and contributes to our energy needs But a strain has been put on our water resources as increased energy demands combine with the effects of climate change to create a treacherous environment Individuals and communities around the globe increasingly face droughts floods water pollution water scarcity and even water wars We tend to address and solve these concerns through scientific and technological innovations but social and cultural analyses and solutions are needed as well In this edited collection contributors tackle current water issues in the era of climate change using a wide variety of recent literature and film At its core this collection demonstrates that water is an immense reservoir of artistic potential and an agent of historical and cultural exchange Creating familiar and relatable contexts for water dilemmas authors and directors of contemporary literary texts and films present compelling stories of our relationships to water water health ecosystems and conservation They also explore how global water problems affect local communities around the world and intersect with social and cultural aspects such as health citizenship class gender race and ethnicity This transformative work highlights the cultural significance of water the source of life and a powerful symbol in numerous cultures It also raises awareness about global water debates and crises Snow Kirk Ruth, 2013-08-13 Snow has had an astonishing influence on the shape of the land and human history Ruth Kirk writes perceptively of how animals and people survive in the snow of glaciers continental ice sheets blizzards and avalanches and of the awesome hazards of Arctic and Antarctic exploration She discusses both our battles against snow and our uses of it showing its importance to agriculture climate and the future Through scientific reports and interviews with experts in various fields from Antarctic explorers to atmospheric physicists Kirk surveys the scope of snow's influence Placing Movies Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2023-09-01 Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly, Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today. Placing Movies, the first collection of his work, gathers together thirty of his most distinctive and illuminating pieces. Written over a span of twenty-one years, these essays cover an extraordinarily broad range of films, from Hollywood blockbusters to foreign art movies to experimental cinema. They include not just reviews but perceptive commentary on directors, actors, and trends, and thoughtful analysis of the practice of film criticism. It is this last element, Rosenbaum's reflections on the art of film criticism, that sets this collection apart from other volumes of film writing. Both in the essays themselves and in the section introductions, Rosenbaum provides a rare insider's view of his profession, the backstage politics, the formulation of critical judgments, the function of film commentary. Taken together, these pieces serve as a guided tour of the profession of film criticism. They also serve as representative samples of Rosenbaum's unique brand of film writing. Among the highlights are memoirs of director Jacques Tati and maverick critic Manny Farber; celebrations of classics such as Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The Manchurian Candidate; and considered reevaluations of Orson Welles and Woody Allen.

Julie Snow Architects Julie Snow, Julie Snow Architects, 2005-04-07 It's an unfortunate reality that architects practicing in the great expanse between the East and West coasts all too often find themselves beyond the radar of the profession's so-called tastemakers. And it's especially a shame in the case of Julie Snow, a Minneapolis-based architect who has over the past decade developed one of the most inventive practices anywhere in the United States. Snow's meticulously constructed work has the structural opacity and formal integrity that characterized Mies van der Rohe's architecture but with a sense of humanity and a sensitivity to the environment that seems borrowed from her Midwestern progenitor, Frank Lloyd Wright. This, the first monograph on Snow's work, provides in-depth documentation of 14 of her residential, institutional, corporate, and public projects, including the Koehler Residence in New Brunswick, Canada; a series of Minneapolis Light Rail Stations; the Minnesota Children's Museum; and the University of South Dakota School of Business. Julie Snow Architect is produced in collaboration with award-winning designer Andrew Blauvelt and features an introductory essay by Jan Abrams, director of the Minnesota Design Institute.

A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times, program and curriculum planning, readers advisory, or collection development, this updated edition of the well-known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze. Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services, and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017, it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic, and subject headings arranged alphabetically, this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive, as opposed to formal, catalog subject terms to children's picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles Dublin journal of medical science, 1873 Criminology and Crime Prevention

James Dickety, 2025-02-28 This book guides policing students through the areas of Criminology and crime prevention required for their course and help them apply this knowledge into their work It uses crime prevention theory alongside current practice and evidence based policing research that students can apply in their practice It explores what criminology is its helpfulness in policing and examines key topics such as offenders and offending victims and victimology and principles and theories of crime prevention A range of models of policing which can be applied to various crime prevention scenarios are discussed with details on specific initiatives already in place The content is specifically designed to meet the requirements of the PEQF Police Education Qualifications Framework and module six in the policing curriculum on criminology and crime prevention Case studies and evidence based examples are used to provide clear links between theory and practice while critical thinking and review activities embed understanding and promote critical thinking As part of the series care has been taken into this book to make sure that it reflects challenges faced by new students linking theory to real life operational practice Part of the Professional Policing Curriculum in Practice series Song of the Alpine Joyce Gellhorn, 2002 Celebrating her life long love for the land above the trees author Joyce Gellhorn takes readers on a season by season tour of the alpine tundra With clear readable prose and 140 beautiful color photographs from her collection that spans some twenty five years Gellhorn reveals the subtle wonders of this haunting landscape The plants and animals that populate this often harsh and unforgiving environment have evolved remarkable strategies for survival in their high mountain home Faced with bitter cold scouring winds and fierce storms they must somehow hold on and still find water and nourishment Gellhorn tells us how they do it and the intricacies and precariousness of these strategies are astonishing The high country of the Colorado Rocky Mountains has been a destination and a home for Joyce Gellhorn for more than fifty years including some twelve years spent living with her family at the University of Colorado's research station Science Lodge a log cabin at 9 500 feet Like the snow that would sift through the chinks in the cabin the alpine despite its harshness captured her heart She writes The clear mountain air the scenery the invigorating feeling of physical activity and the fascinating plants animals and insects captivated me Through the years these wind blown forlorn places continue to excite me It is their wildness untamed and unpredictable No matter how many times I visit the alpine even areas I know intimately it always shows a different face Myth, Language and Tradition Wit Piętrzak, 2011-05-25 How can poetry embrace morality through focusing on metaphors What is the relation between an allumette and the alpha rhythm How come that money has turned into a metonym of goodness And above all is it still possible to think of the human subject as a viable category in late modernity These are some of the questions that J H Prynne s poetry deals with Levity of Design voices a critique of the present day society very much from within and demonstrates how Prynne has contrived to single handedly overcome the impasse created by the legacy of poststructuralism In a milieu of avant garde linguistic experiment developed from modernist techniques of Pound and Olson but also the early Eliot as well as Velimir Khlebnikov and against the background of the writings of Heidegger and Adorno these poems are demonstrated to seek a language in which the notion of man can be restituted

On Frost Edwin Harrison Cady,Louis J. Budd,1991 From 1929 to the latest issue American Literature has been the foremost journal expressing the findings of those who study our national literature The journal has published the best work of literary historians critics and bibliographers ranging from the founders of the discipline to the best current critics and researchers The longevity of this excellence lends a special distinction to the articles in American Literature Presented in order of their first appearance the articles in each volume constitute a revealing record of developing insights and important shifts of critical emphasis Each article has opened a fresh line of inquiry established a fresh perspective on a familiar topic or settled a question that engaged the interest of experts

Reading Power, Revised & Expanded Edition Adrienne Gear,2015-10-06 Ten years ago Reading Power was launched in an elementary school in Vancouver It has since evolved into a recognized approach to comprehension instruction being implemented across Canada in the United States United Kingdom Sweden and China This ground breaking approach showed teachers how to help students think while they read connect question visualize infer and transform Since the publication of the first edition of Reading Power Adrienne Gear has continued to reflect on and refine her ideas about metacognition comprehension instruction and the Reading Power strategies This revised and expanded edition shares these new understandings and offers teachers new ideas new lessons and of course new anchor books to support the Reading Power principles An ideal resource for teachers familiar to this strategic approach to teaching reading or for those looking for new ways to connect thinking with reading

LOST CITIES & ANCIENT MYSTERIES OF THE SOUTHWEST David Hatcher Childress,2011-03-22 Popular Lost Cities author David Hatcher Childress takes to the road again in search of lost cities and ancient mysteries This time he is off to the American Southwest traversing the region s deserts mountains and forests investigating archeological mysteries and the unexplained Join David as he starts in northern Mexico and searches for the lost mines of the Aztecs He continues north to west Texas delving into the mysteries of Big Bend including mysterious Phoenician tablets discovered there and the strange lights of Marfa He continues northward into New Mexico where he stumbles upon a hollow mountain with a billion dollars of gold bars hidden deep inside it In Arizona he investigates tales of Egyptian catacombs in the Grand Canyon cruises along the Devil s Highway and tackles the century old mystery of the Superstition Mountains and the Lost Dutchman mine In Nevada and California Childress checks out the rumors of mummified giants and weird tunnels in Death Valley plus he searches the

Mohave Desert for the mysterious remains of ancient dwellers alongside lakes that supposedly dried up tens of thousands of years ago It s a full tilt blast down the back roads of the Southwest in search of the weird and wondrous mysteries of the past

Calico: Children of the Shawnee Allison Bruning,2013-06-05 American Avant-Garde Cinema's Philosophy of the In-Between Rebecca A. Sheehan,2020-03-09 Can films philosophize rather than simply represent philosophical ideas developed outside of the cinematic medium Taking up this crucial question for the emergent field of film philosophy American Avant Garde Cinema s Philosophy of the In Between argues that the films of the American avant garde do in fact do philosophy and illuminates the ethical stakes of their aesthetic interventions Author Rebecca A Sheehan contends that American avant garde cinema s characteristic self reflexivity is an interrogation of the modes and stakes of our engagement with the world on and beyond the screen The book demonstrates this with the theory of the in between a pervasive figure that helps clarify how avant garde cinema s reflections on the creation of images construct an ethics of perception itself a responsibility to perpetuate thought in an enduring re encounter with the world and with meaning s unfinished production The book is structured by a taxonomy of the multiple in betweens evident in American avant garde filmmaking Rather than systematically seeking reproductions of particular philosophers ideas in avant garde films Sheehan derives categories of analysis and the philosophical claims they disclose from close readings of the films themselves This methodology opposes mapping preconfigured philosophical concepts and values onto these films as too many philosophical approaches to cinema have done silencing the philosophies uniquely articulated by these films in the interest of making them ventriloquize philosophies advanced elsewhere The chapters of this book trace three modes of the in between that function philosophically in American avant garde cinema the material the dimensional and the conceptual Although the chapters are organized around discrete aesthetic and philosophical preoccupations that unify several filmmakers these three presentations of the in between cut through all the chapters allowing the subjects of each to converse over the course of the book The Raven's Gift Jon Turk,2025-10-16 Noted scientist and kayak adventurer undertakes a journey of spiritual healing Jon Turk has kayaked around Cape Horn and paddled across the Pacific Ocean to retrace the voyages of ancient people But the strangest trip he ever took was the journey he made as a man of science into the realm of the spiritual In a remote Siberian village Turk met an elderly Koryak shaman named Moolynaut who invoked the help of a Spirit Raven to mend his fractured pelvis When the healing was complete he was able to walk without pain Turk finding no rational explanation sought understanding by traversing the frozen tundra where Moolynaut was born camping with bands of reindeer herders and recording stories of their lives and spirituality Framed by high adventure across the vast and forbidding Siberian landscape The Raven s Gift creates a vision of natural and spiritual realms interwoven by one man s awakening The Wanting Way Adam Wolfond,2022-11-08 In The Wanting Way the second book in Multiverse a literary series written and curated by the neurodivergent Adam Wolfond proves more than willing to extend the choreography In fact his entire thrust is out and toward Each poem moves out along its own underutilized pathway awakening unseen dimensions for the reader like a wooded night walk suddenly lit by fireflies And as each path elaborates itself Wolfond s guiding hand seems always to stay held out to the reader inviting them further into a shared and unprecedented unfolding The Wanting Way is actually a confluence of diverse ways rallies paths waves jams streams desire lines that converge wherever the dry verbiage of the talking world requires hydration Each poem is an invitation to bathe in the play of languaging And each poem is an invitation to a dance that s already happening called into motion by the objects and atmospheres of a more than human world Wolfond makes space for new poetics new choreographies and new possibilities toward forging a consensual felt and feeling world where we might find free disassembly and assembly together There is a neurodivergent universe within this one and Wolfond s poems continuously pull back the unnecessary veil between human and nature

The Art of Discovery Margareth Hagen,Randi Koppen,Margery Vibe Skagen,2010-08-30 This anthology brings together scholars from literature the natural sciences and the philosophy of science to present new perspectives on the relations between literary and scientific communities Drawing on literature spanning the 19th and 20th centuries as well as Europe and the Americas the authors explore how science has been portrayed from the perspective of literature at different times and in different places as challenge or opportunity promise or scandal The disturbance of science emanates perhaps from its association with a frightening future or its ability to change the appearance of the past the scandal occurs as it recalls us to thresholds and hybrids human and non human animal and machine Science however also emerges as a source of metaphor and imaginative modelling of encodings and decodings representations and discoveries Less prominent in the collection though no less important is the view on how scientific cultures portray literature or the literary academic and how science reflects on itself
