So Many Crossroads:

The Evangelical Church at the Crossroads of Secular Culture and Change Dr. Arnold O. Thompson, 2025-03-28

This book lays out in clear biblical and specific ways how the kingdom of God can effectively intersect with the kingdom of this world. The author first laid out the dark forces in the church's engagement in the so-called cultural wars like storm force winds blowing at the doors of the church to influence its message, change its historical methods, corrupt its mission. It identifies the crises in all three areas. The author contends that by and large the so-called cultural wars waged by sections of the evangelical church have been lost in the real mission of the Christian church. The book does not linger long here but rigorously lays out the biblical mandate and methods for the church to regain its purpose and mission of Christ in the world. This is the goal of this book. From the start the author understood this was an extensive undertaking to stand like John on the island of Patmos looking at visions of the modern church and to write a manifesto as if to say for God I see you I see what a large and influential segment of the church is doing which I contend is hurting the cause of Christ and His Gospel today. But also to say that I see what is needed to again influence the culture to turn to Christ. To give as did John a clear voice to defy the confusions and uncertainties and communicate effectively the Gospel of Christ to a lost world. This goal would seem impossible to see a revival of the Gospel in secular culture like the great revivals of the past. Except the ancient prophets said as did Peter in the revival of Pentecost. In the last days God says I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Acts 2:17. This book is a dream path to the reality of a revival of the Gospel in our times. Farm Communities at the Crossroads University of Regina.

Canadian Plains Research Center, 2003. This book is an outgrowth of a conference that analyzed transformations in farming, farm communities and discussed what might be done to achieve a more socially responsible development. As Bučar applied his system theory to a variety of issues, so too the conglomerate of scholars and issues critically assessed is interdisciplinary, ranging from political science and economics to law and philosophy as well as to natural sciences. The contributors and the questions of their essays in the edited volume are

Campaign Crossroads Andrew E. Stoner,2017 Campaign Crossroads looks back over the varied sometimes important sometimes irrelevant but always interesting presidential campaign cycles in Indiana s history By taking in the influences of technology transportation and communication itself we see an evolution in the political process that is not only altogether Hoosier but also altogether American in its quality and importance Using a narrative approach with a mix of primary and secondary sources the work examines not only the rhetoric of presidents and presidential hopefuls but also the nature of campaigns and their impact on Indiana communities While Indiana enjoyed the position of being a battleground state for the better part of a century from the 1870s until the 1960s it has also been ignored dismissed and has on occasion created unexpected political drama

X—The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought Nahum Dimitri Chandler,2013-12-15 X The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought offers an original account of matters African American and by implication the African diaspora in general as an object of discourse and knowledge It likewise challenges the conception of analogous objects of study across dominant ethnological disciplines e g anthropology history and sociology and the various forms of cultural ethnic and postcolonial studies With special reference to the work of W E B Du Bois Chandler shows how a concern with the Negro is central to the social and historical problematization that underwrote twentieth century explorations of what it means to exist as an historical entity referring to their antecedents in eighteenth century thought and forward into their ongoing itinerary in the twenty first century For Du Bois the problem of the color line coincided with the inception of a supposedly modern horizon The very idea of the human and its avatars the idea of race and the idea of culture emerged together with the violent hierarchical inscription of the so called African or Negro into a horizon of commonness beyond all natal premises a horizon that we can still situate with the term global In ongoing struggles with the idea of historical sovereignty we can see the working out of then new concatenations of social and historical forms of difference as both projects of categorical differentiation and the irruption of originary revisions of ways of being In a word the world is no longer and has never been one The world if there is such from the inception of something like the Negro as a problem for thought could never be only one The problem of the Negro in America is thus an exemplary instance of modern historicity in its most fundamental sense It renders legible for critical practice the radical order of an ineluctable and irreversible complication at the heart of being its appearance as both life and history as the very mark of our epoch
