Abdi, 2023-01-03 This engaging edited collection highlights key discussions around educational inequity and related structures and sub structures Featuring a diverse array of contributors Social Justice Education in Canada balances important knowledge learning practices and possibilities emanating from and embedded in anti racist and anti oppressive education with instructive grounding examples The text confronts the idea of social justice as an abstract concept discussing suggestions for rethinking educational systems and making changes that will benefit the learning lives of all students With the aim to critically expand the emerging and increasingly active debates in this important area of educational and social development this volume strives to collectively deepen our understanding and appreciation for critical social justice education Organized into 14 chapters and featuring an epilogue written by Dr Edward Shizha the book critically deals with contemporary topical issues in education including readings on cultural racial religious Indigenous language socio economic citizenship disability ableism and immigrant refugee status realities and their interwoven learning and teaching intersections This text is an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students of education across Canada FEATURES Designed to spark discussions and debates each chapter closes with discussion questions to encourage critical reflection Contributors move beyond the theoretical with actionable practical applications for critical social justice that can be utilized by educators and teacher educators Intersecting topical diversity is at the forefront of this volume which features contributors from different backgrounds and communities critically engaging with issues pertinent to social justice and equity in education

Social Change and Education in Canada Ratna Ghosh, Douglas Ray, 1987 Culture, Education, and Development in South Africa Ali A. Abdi, 2001-10-30 With the fall of apartheid in South Africa expectations were high for the enfranchisement of the acutely underdeveloped majority in South Africa But problems abound and this educational study looks critically at the educational situation and puts forth a number of proposals that could produce better results in contemporary South Africa Abdi urges that beyond the celebratory platforms of the political triumph over apartheid there must be effective and culturally inclusive programs of education for the development of the highly disenfranchised majority in South Africa Deliberate programs of colonialism and apartheid in South Africa resulted in inferior education cultural marginalization political oppression economic exploitation and resulting underdevelopment in the lives of the disenfranchised majority In addition to historical and contemporary analysis this study looks at the possibilities of formulating and implementing new programs of education and development that could effectively deal with such current problems as chronic unemployment skyrocketing crime rates stagnating learning systems and the continuing formations of a huge underclass that may be losing its stake in the promised post apartheid project Indian Education in Canada, Volume 2 Jean Barman, Yvonne Hébert, Don McCaskill, 2014-05-14 The two volumes comprising Indian Education in Canada present the first full length discussion of this important subject since the adoption in 1972 of a new federal policy moving toward Indian control of Indian education Volume 1 analyzes the education of Indian children by whites since the arrival of the first Europeans in Canada Volume 2 is concerned with the wide ranging changes that have taken place since 1972 Higher Education in Canada Glen A. Jones, 2012-06-25 Published in 1997 People wishing to learn the major phases in the development of Canada's twelve postsecondary higher education systems over the 1945-95 period will find this an essential starting point Canada's Social Economy Jack Quarter, 1992-01-01 Acknowledgements Introduction Part 1 Conceptualizing the Social Economy 1 Defining the Social Economy Part 2 An Overview to the Social Economy 2 An Overview to Co-operatives 3 Non profits in Public Service 4 Mutual Non profits Part 3 Case Studies 5 Community Economic Development 6 Social Housing 7 Social Service 8 Social Capital Part 4 Overcoming the Obstacles 9 Building a Social Economy Notes Selected Bibliography Index Indian Education in Canada Jean Barman, Yvonne M. Hébert, Don N. McCaskill, 1986 Analyzes the history of the education of Indians by whites since the arrival of the first Europeans in Canada Comprised of eight essays written by native and white scholars Volume 2 will focus on recent developments Includes a chapter on Indian school days in Yukon Volume two focuses on recent developments in the Indian community to assume control over the education of its children Includes chapters on the Blue Quills Native Education Centre and the Sacred Circle Project in Alberta Indigenous Knowledges and Higher Education in Canada Merli Tamtik, 2025-04-30 Indigenous Knowledges and Higher Education in Canada explores the intricate relationship between Indigenous knowledges and the evolving landscape of higher education in Canada revealing their profound influence in shaping institutional policies practices and cultures Grounded in decolonial perspectives the book addresses the persistent struggle within universities to confront ongoing colonialism and achieve systemic change Focused on shifts in institutional governance policy teaching research innovation and culture the book draws on extensive document analysis and personal narratives of Indigenous individuals across various Canadian universities Embracing a decolonial perspective it underscores the resilience of Indigenous communities in challenging traditional paradigms of higher education The book reveals how through critical grassroots efforts Indigenous peoples are reclaiming their rightful place in academia reshaping institutional dynamics from the ground up It argues that the emergence of Indigenous knowledges within academia is the result of proactive and ongoing efforts by Indigenous individuals asserting their presence in Canadian higher education Ultimately Indigenous Knowledges and Higher Education in Canada advocates for a path of decolonization through intentional learning and unlearning envisioning a future where Indigenous voices and perspectives are authentically centred in the fabric of academic discourse and practice Early Years Education and Care in Canada, Second Edition Susan Jagger, 2025-05-26 Timely and thoroughly updated the second edition of Early Years Education and Care in Canada explores the histories philosophies theories and approaches that have shaped the ways that we teach and care for children in Canada Featuring multiple voices and first hand experiences in the field contributions from Canadian academics and practitioners engage in theoretical and practical discussions on early childhood education and care The new edition of this volume continues to provide readers with a map of the theoretical landscape of early years practice and research and explores newly added topics including common worlds pedagogies reclaiming Indigenous family systems supporting Black flourishing in early childhood education and care critical feminist examination of play and lived experiences of registered early childhood educators and the Early Childhood Education and Care system Readers will explore where we have been where we are and where we might go in practice and research related to children and families making this a fundamental resource for all students practitioners and policymakers in early childhood education and care
