Social Work Steve Rogowski, 2020-09-02 Rogowski's second edition of this bestselling textbook responds to the major changes to social work practice since the first edition was published. It is fully revised and updated to include new material that is essential for students and practising social workers today. Taking a critical perspective, Rogowski evaluates social work's development, nature and rationale over approximately 150 years. He explores how neoliberalism is at the core of the profession's crisis and calls for progressive critical and radical changes to social work policy and practices based on social justice and social change. This new edition is substantially updated to explore the impact of austerity policies since 2010, failures to realise the progressive possibilities which followed the death of Baby P, contemporary examples of critical and radical practice. It also includes a range of student-friendly features including chapter summaries, key learning and discussion points and further reading.

Human Behavior Theory and Social Work Practice with Marginalized Oppressed Populations Roberta R. Greene, Michael Wright, Melvin Herring, Nicole Dubus, Taunya Wright, 2019-04-29 Human Behavior Theory and Social Work Practice with Marginalized Oppressed Populations addresses what social workers can do to combat the increasingly complex social concerns that face the profession and explores how to incorporate the celebration of diversity and the protection of human rights into social work curricula and the helping process. The authors combine human behavior theories with a narrative postmodern practice methodology that deals with both the clients or constituencies presenting problem and equity issues and as a result the book is both theoretical and applied. Two major integrating themes throughout are at the forefront of the book: the celebration of diversity and the equality of human rights. The goal is to strengthen diversity and human rights components of the social work curriculum and to provide more practice guidelines for cross-cultural practice.
