Long,2006-04-01 This book started as a result of four ordinary people seeing something wrong in their small tourist community and tried to right it Who would have thought that our government would subject its own people to the damaging emissions of the oil and gas industry This book is about the fight of four people fighting the oil companies and the Local State and Federal governmental agencies charged with protecting its citizens It is seen through the eyes of one of the group who has had a stroke and contributed to the fight by sending out hundreds of email newsletters almost weekly The fight to save a community's way of life was marred with disillusionment and frustration but they continued to fight In Lewiston and surrounding area there are roughly 5000 gas and oil wells along with their associated facilities The particular offloading facility the group focused on was emitting illegal amounts of Hydrogen Sulfide and Sulfur Dioxide and no one was stopping them Lewiston was downwind from this facility most days The local state and federal governments were fighting us They threw up road blocks every way we turned as if they didn't want us to know what was really going on Why Because of the many lies that the group uncovered as to what was really happening at the facility Local citizens were looking the other way Others were calling us crazy or to just leave the problem alone Did they have oil gas wells on their property possibly collecting royalties The group has hundreds of pages of transcripts videotapes and photographs to prove otherwise The Citizens Against Environmental Destruction as we came to call ourselves were fighting an uphill battle but battle we did and are continuing to do to save our lives and our community Too many health problems Too many deaths Why Read and hope this never happens to your community The knowledge of how our government works to protect us they don't was so disappointing Letters to Ms. Em, 2011 Letters to Ms Em are the reflections of Rainn a young man who is presently doing life in prison In 2006 he wrote a letter to Ms Em which created a family ship and changed both of their lives In Rainn's letters and poems he shares his desire to be a part of a loving family his attempts beginning at ten years old to fight off an abusive step father in order to protect his mother the calling of the streets and the anger and pain that followed him into adulthood resulting in a conviction of life without parole Back cover
