Steel Roads of New Zealand Gordon Troup, Bill Pierre, 1973      Dancing with the King Michael Belgrave, 2017-10-24

After the battle of Orakau in 1864 and the end of the war in the Waikato Tawhiao the second Maori King and his supporters were forced into an armed isolation in the Rohe Potae the King Country For the next twenty years the King Country operated as an independent state a land governed by the Maori King where settlers and the Crown entered at risk of their lives

Dancing with the King is the story of the King Country when it was the King's country and of the negotiations between the King and the Queen that finally opened the area to European settlement For twenty years the King and the Queen's representatives engaged in a dance of diplomacy involving gamesmanship conspiracy pageantry and hard headed politics with the occasional act of violence or threat of it While the Crown refused to acknowledge the King's legitimacy the colonial government and the settlers were forced to treat Tawhiao as a King to negotiate with him as the ruler and representative of a sovereign state and to accord him the respect and formality that this involved Colonial negotiators even made Tawhiao offers of settlement that came very close to recognising his sovereign authority Dancing with the King is a riveting account of a key moment in New Zealand history as an extraordinary cast of characters Tawhiao and Rewi Maniapoto Donald McLean and George Grey negotiated the role of the King and the Queen of Maori and Pakeha in New Zealand
