Parliament. House of Commons, 1907 World War II in Contemporary German and Dutch Fiction Jan Lensen, 2021-03-04 World War II in Contemporary German and Dutch Fiction The Generation of Meta Memory offers a comparative study of the construction of World War II memory in contemporary German Flemish and Dutch literature More specifically it investigates in what ways the large temporal distance to the historical events has impacted how literary writers from these three literatures have negotiated its meaning and form during the last decades To that end this book offers analyses of nine novels that demonstrate a pronounced reflexivity on the conditions of contemporary remembering Rather than a dig for historical truth or a struggle with historical trauma these novels reflect on the transmission the narrative shapes the formation processes and the functions of World War II memory today while asserting a self conscious and often irreverent approach toward established mnemonic routines practices and rules As the analyses show this approach is equally articulated through the novels poetics which are marked by a large formal diversity and a playfulness that highlights mnemonic agency a posttraumatic positioning and the ascendancy of the literary over the historiographical Based on these findings this book proposes the emergence of a new paradigm within the postwar cultural assessment of World War II the generation of meta memory The Pacific Reporter ,1921 Korea 2010 ,2010-08-18 Korea 2010 Politics Economy and Society contains concise overview articles covering domestic developments and the economy in both South and North Korea as well as inter Korean relations and foreign relations of the two Koreas in 2009 A detailed chronology complements these articles South Korea related refereed articles in the 2010 edition of the yearbook deal with the restoration of the Ch nggyech n River in Seoul the role of think tanks in the discourse on East Asia the economic policy response to the global financial crisis the green growth policy of the Lee Myung bak government economic relations with India and the Manchurian western genre in South Korean cinema Additional refereed articles provide a meta analysis of North Korean migration to China and South Korea and illuminate representations of the Korean War in North and South Korean children s literature Stars to Steer By Julia Jones,2025-05-08 The extraordinary stories of the fearless women who set their sights on the sea in an all male world paving the way for the female sailing superstars of today Gender issues are stark at sea Historically a ship s crew is all male and although vessels are referred to as she women s contributions to sailing have been largely ignored if not actively opposed Today s sailing legends such as Tracy Edwards and Ellen MacArthur compete with men on equal terms but they stand on the shoulders of many women before them who had to challenge preconceptions prejudice and even the law in their wish to sail Spanning the 19th century to today Julia Jones dives into the lives of an array of incredible and unconventional women we meet single handed sailors wealthy explorers long suffering wives and penniless chancers with a thirst for adventure Each had to face down barriers of official exclusion family imposed restriction social disapproval and often a resulting lack of self belief In the 21st century British women wear Admiral s uniforms and break global yachting records yet their journey to professional sailing remains challenging and the public face of sailing remains mostly male evident in the lack of female Commodores in prestigious yacht clubs Even as sailing becomes more accessible the remarkable contributions within these stories are a precious source of inspiration to all women facing their own challenges today The Assassin's Accomplice Kate Clifford Larson,2011-02-22 In The Assassin's Accomplice historian Kate Clifford Larson tells the gripping story of Mary Surratt a little known participant in the plot to kill Abraham Lincoln and the first woman ever to be executed by the federal government of the United States Surratt a Confederate sympathizer ran the boarding house in Washington where the conspirators including her rebel son John Surratt met to plan the assassination When a military tribunal convicted her for her crimes and sentenced her to death five of the nine commissioners petitioned President Andrew Johnson to show mercy on Surratt because of her sex and age Unmoved Johnson refused Surratt he said kept the nest that hatched the egg Set against the backdrop of the Civil War The Assassin's Accomplice tells the intricate story of the Lincoln conspiracy through the eyes of

story for historical fiction He counted dozens of epochal figures as friends or confidants including Mark Twain Jack London Henry Ford Thomas Mann H G Wells Theodore and Franklin Roosevelt Albert Einstein Charlie Chaplin Albert Camus and Carl Jung Starting with The Jungle in 1906 Sinclair's fiction and nonfiction helped to inform and mold American opinions about socialism labor and industry religion and philosophy the excesses of the media American political isolation and pacifism civil liberties and mental and physical health In his later years Sinclair twice reinvented himself first as the Democratic candidate for governor of California in 1934 and later in his sixties and seventies as a historical novelist In 1943 he won a Pulitzer Prize for Dragon's Teeth one of eleven novels featuring super spy Lanny Budd Outside the literary realm the ever restless Sinclair was seemingly everywhere forming Utopian artists colonies funding and producing Sergei Eisenstein's film documentaries and waging consciousness raising political campaigns Even when he wasn't involved in progressive causes or counterculture movements his name often was invoked by them an arrangement that frequently embroiled Sinclair in controversy Sinclair's passion and optimistic zeal inspired America but privately he could be a frustrated petty man who connected better with his readers than with members of his own family His life with his first wife Meta his son David and various friends and professional acquaintances was a web of conflict and strain Personally and professionally ambitious Sinclair engaged in financial speculation although his wealth generating schemes often benefited his pet causes and he lobbied as tirelessly for professional recognition and awards as he did for government reform As the tenor of his work would suggest Sinclair was supremely human In Radical Innocent Upton Sinclair Anthony Arthur offers an engrossing and enlightening account of Sinclair's life and the country he helped to transform Taking readers from the Reconstruction South to the rise of American power to the pinnacle of Hollywood culture to the Civil Rights era this is historical biography at its entertaining and thought provoking finest Presumed Innocent Scott Turow, 1986-12-31

Presumed Innocent launched Scott Turow's career as one of the pre eminent legal thriller writers in America and was later adapted to a major feature film starring Harrison Ford This one will keep you up at nights engrossed and charged with adrenaline People The novel tells the story of Rusty Sabich chief deputy prosecutor in a large Midwestern city With three weeks to go in his boss re election campaign a member of Rusty's staff is found murdered he is charged with finding the killer until his boss loses and incredibly Rusty finds himself accused of the murder An exposition [by P.
