A Companion to the Works of Stefan George Jens Rieckmann, 2005 Stefan George 1868 1933 is along with Hugo von Hofmannsthal and Rainer Maria Rilke one of the pre eminent German poets of the twentieth century He also had an important albeit controversial and provocative role in German cultural history It is generally agreed that he played a significant part in the transition of German literature to Modernism particularly in poetry At the same time he was an outspoken critic of modernity He believed that only an all encompassing cultural renewal could save modern man Although George is often linked with the l art pour l art movement and although his artistic consciousness was formed by European aestheticism his poetry and the writings that emerged from the poets and intellectuals he gathered around him in the George Circle are above all a scathing commentary on the political social and cultural situation in Germany at the turn of the century George who was imbued with the idea of the poet as a prophet and priest saw himself as the Messiah of a New Hellenism and a New Reich led by an intellectual and aesthetic elite consisting of men who were bonded together through their allegiance to a charismatic leader Some of the values that George proclaimed among them a glorification of power of heroism and self sacrifice were seized upon by the National Socialists and subsequently his writings and those of his circle were considered by some to be proto fascist It did not help his reputation that after the Second World War much of the criticism of his works was practiced by uncritical hagiographic George worshippers In recent years however there has been a renewed and unbiased interest among scholars and critics in George and his circle The wide ranging and original essays in this volume explore anew George s poetry and his contribution to Modernism the relation between his vision of a New Reich and fascist ideology and his importance as a cultural critic Jens Rieckmann is Professor of German at the University of California Irvine

Stefan George und die Nachwelt Ralph-Rainer Wuthenow, 1981 Between Literature and Science Wolf Lepenies, 1988 The theme of this book is the conflict which arose in the early nineteenth century between on the one hand the literary and on the other hand the scientific intellectuals of Europe as they competed for recognition as the chief analysts of the new industrial society in which they lived This conflicts was epitomised by the confrontation between Matthew Arnold and T H Huxley and later in that between F R Leavis and C P Snow Sociology was born as the third major discipline though in many ways it was a hybrid of the literary and the scientific traditions The social sciences continue even today to oscillate between these two traditions The author chronicles the rise of the new discipline by discussing the lives and work of the most prominent thinkers of the time in England France and Germany These include John Stuart Mill H G Wells Beatrice and Sidney Webb and T S Eliot Auguste Comte Charles Peguy Emile Durkheim Stefan George Thomas Mann Max Weber and Karl Mannheim At stake was the right to formulate a philosophy of life for contemporary society and to predict and pre empt the worst consequences of industrialization The book presents a penetrating study of idealists grappling with reality when industrial society was still in its infancy It will be of interest to those studying sociology and its history as a discipline but it is
