Steichens Legacy:

Steichen's Legacy Joanna T. Steichen, 2000 The companion volume to a major retrospective exhibition of Steichen's work at the Whitney Museum of Art presents more than three hundred photographs spanning seven decades of work including stunning landscapes still lifes cityscapes fashion photographs and portraits of friends family and celebrities 17 500 first Ecstatic Worlds Janine Marchessault, 2017-08-25 When media translate the world to the world twentieth century utopian projects including Edward Steichen's Family of Man Jacques Cousteau's underwater films and Buckminster Fuller's Faces of War Mark D. Faram, 2009 Looks at the history of the Naval Aviation Photographic Unit and their work during World War II Cultures of Commerce E. Brown, C. Gudis, M. Moskowitz, 2016-10-19 While historians have explored the impact on workers of changes in American business the broader impact on other cultural forms and vice versa has not been widely studied This anthology contributes to the debate at the intersection of business history and the study of cultural forms ranging from material to visual culture to literature How Photography Became Contemporary Art Andy Grundberg, 2021-02-23 A leading critic s inside story of the photo boom during the crucial decades of the 1970s and 80s When Andy Grundberg landed in New York in the early 1970s as a budding writer photography was at the margins of the contemporary art world By 1991 when he left his post as critic for the New York Times photography was at the vital center of artistic debate Grundberg writes eloquently and authoritatively about photography s boom years chronicling the medium s increasing role within the most important art movements of the time from Earth Art and Conceptual Art to performance and video He also traces photography s embrace by museums and galleries as well as its politicization in the culture wars of the 80s and 90s Grundberg reflects on the landmark exhibitions that defined the moment and his encounters with the work of leading photographers many of whom he knew personally including Gordon Matta Clark Cindy Sherman and Robert Mapplethorpe He navigates crucial themes such as photography s relationship to theory as well as feminism and artists of color Part memoir and part history this perspective by one of the period's leading critics ultimately tells a larger story about the crucial decades of the 70s and 80s through the medium of photography The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm, Anke Reitz, Shamoon Zamir, 2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes's influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen's work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man Edward Steichen Todd Brandow, William A. Ewing, 2007 By far the most lavish thoughtfully selected and beautifully produced book of Steichen's work Moments of Valuation Ariane Berthoin Antal, Michael Hutter, David Stark, 2015-01-29 The outcome of innovation processes are determined by complex historically grown valuation practices In this book a wide range of innovations are taken into consideration from small inventions like entertainment novelties to large societal changes through new technologies The chapters observe the particular local or distributed sites in which their episodes of innovation take place and they identify the initial dissonance among those judging a newly proposed alternative The emphasis of the inquiry however is on the practices of valuation that are at work when something succeeds in being new The authors represent a wide variety of sub disciplines and national backgrounds in the social sciences. They share an interest in social valuation and a pragmatist approach The differences between their empirical evidence reflect the wide variety of appearances that valuation takes in contemporary society They are anthropologists economic or cultural sociologists organization researchers historians or political scientists A number of chapters deals with aesthetic valuation as in the tasting of a new vintage or in the socio technical process that shaped successful synthesizer sounds Other chapters discuss the judgment processes in organizations like architect offices or consultancy firms and processes of evaluation and valorization in larger fields of practice like accounting or mathematics. The studies are both of interest in their various professional fields and contribute to a more general understanding of the social and cultural conditions under which innovations fail and succeed American Photo .2001-01 Spectacular Homes of Georgia Jolie Carpenter, Brian Carabet, John Shand, 2005 More than 250 photographs of the work of more than 40 leading interior desginers in the Greater Atlanta Savannah and Macon area Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill, Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism s heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today s digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Michael Peres, 2014-06-20 Defining photography is impossible Revealing it is another matter and that s what The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography does with each turn of the page History The technical origins and evolution of photography are half of the story The other half consists of the ways that cultural forces have transformed photography into a constellation of practices more diverse than any other mode of representation Photographers can tell a more in depth story through a photo like Dorothea Lange's Migrant Mother than a journalist ever could with the written word alone Major themes and practitioners Over 25 entries many with supporting illustrations examine the figures trends and ideas that have contributed most heavily to the history and current state of photography Contemporary issues.
