Steinhaus Stone House Domenig Gunther:

Gunther Domenig Günther Domenig, 1986 Günther Domenig is known as a non conformist in the Austrian architectural scene Steinhaus Stonehouse tells the story of the conception and construction of his home and studio within a remote mountain landscape Steinhaus Stonehouse tells the story of the conception and construction of a home cum studio cum intellectual haven for the architect in a landscape which has been part of his personal memory bank of images since childhood Though the interest in this Folio lies undoubtedly in its description of a particular and highly personal creative process the problems of response to site landscape image and memory which the architect confronts have a wider resonance This Folio contains twenty two plates of sketches drawings and computer drawings by the architect plus an illustrated booklet which documents through an interview photographs poems and sketches the particular context within which Domenig's work has grown and the story of the development of the Steinhaus project 100 Gennaro Postiglione, 2004 This volume features 100 homes of different architects Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today For each architect there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings Feature: Günther Domenig, Stone House, 1991

Drawing Sir Peter Cook, 2014-05-28 Drawing The Motive Force of Architecture Focusing on the creative and inventive significance of drawing for architecture this book by one of its greatest proponents Peter Cook is an established classic It exudes Cook's delight and his wide ranging catholic tastes for the architectural Readers are provided with perceptive insights at every turn The book features some of the greatest and most intriguing drawings by architects ranging from Frank Lloyd Wright William Heath Robinson Le Corbusier and Otto Wagner to Frank Gehry Zaha Hadid Coop Himmelblau Arata Isozaki Eric Owen Moss Bernard Tschumi and Lebbeus Woods as well as key works by Cook and other members of the original Archigram group For this new edition Cook provides a substantial new chapter that charts the speed at which the trajectory of drawing is moving It reflects the increasing sophistication of available software and also the ways in which hand drawing and the digital are being eclipsed by new hybrids injecting drawing with a fresh momentum These crossovers provide a whole new territory as attempts are made to release drawing from the boundaries of a solitary moment a single viewing position or a single referential language Featuring the likes of Toyo Ito Perry Kulper Izaskun Chinchilla Kenny Kinugasa Tsui Ali Rahim John Berglund and Lorène Faure it leads to fascinating insights into the effect that medium has upon intention and definition of an idea or a place Is a pencil drawing more attuned to a certain architecture than an ink drawing or is a particular colour evocative of a certain atmosphere In a world where a Maya drawing is creatively contributing something different from a Rhinoceros drawing there is much to demand of future techniques Digital Poetics Dr Marjan Colletti, 2013-12-31 Digital Poetics celebrates the architectural design exuberance made possible by new digital modelling techniques and fabrication technologies By presenting an unconventional and original humanistic theory of CAD computer aided design the author suggests that beyond the generation of innovative engineering forms digital design has the potential to affect the wider complex cultural landscape of today in profound ways The book is linked to a website which contains a larger selection of images of some featured projects Architects' Homes The Images Publishing Group,2017-01-31 This stunning book takes a rare glimpse into the intriguing and unique homes of some of the world s best known architects How do these architects design their own private domains How do the changing needs of their families influence the structural integrity of the spaces How do these individuals express their interior design flair in their own haven The book starts by introducing the relationship between the architect and their professional work by showing how that marries with their own private tastes and how they interpret current trends and enable their own philosophies to transfer to their personal private environments Combining rich photography and spectacular imagery with insight into the private architectural world of these industry professionals this book provides a rich source for those keen to delve into the design aesthetics concepts and innovations of leaders in their very own field Architecture Workbook Sir Peter Cook,2016-02-26 Organised into 9 parts that highlight a wide range of architectural motives such as Architecture as Theatre Stretching the Vocabulary and The City of Large and Small the workbook provides inspiring key themes for readers to take their cue from when initiating a design Motives cover a wide range of work that epitomise the theme These include historical and Modernist examples things observed in the street work by current innovative architects and from Cook s own rich archive weaving together a rich and vibrant visual scrapbook of the everyday and the architectural and past and present Projects Review ,1987 Domus ,1995 From Life to Architecture, to Life Tim Ireland,2024-01-18 The book establishes a correlation between architectural theory and the biosemiotic project and suggest how this coupling establishes a framework leading to an architectural biosemiotic paradigm that puts biosemiotic theory at the heart of cognising the built environment and offers an approach to understanding and shaping the built environment that supports and benefits human and organismic spatial intelligence Visionary Clients for New Architecture Joseph Rykwert,2000 Clients of architects are featured in this volume which sheds light on the tricky balance of power between the architect and the client It focuses on three visionaries who commissioned buildings which became 20th century architectural icons Andreas Papadakis Presents Theory + Experimentation Andreas C. Papadakis,1993 This is not only a source book of an international array of architects and ideas an extravaganza of architectural theory and its realisation but also contains extensive biographies of 35 architects The fracturing of the barriers between theory and reality is revealed as architecture moves from the studio and the realm of theory into street the realm of practice displaying an architecture of experimentation invention and freedom This book forms a rigorous up to the minute view of architectural thinking today and includes inter alia the work of Bernard Tschumi Peter Eisenman Morphosis Coop Himmelblau Daniel Libeskind and Itsuko Hasegawa Free Spirit in Architecture Omnibus
