Step Across This Line Collected Non Fiction 1992 2002:

Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie, 2010-11-05 From one of the great novelists of our day a vital brilliant new book of essays speeches and articles essential for our times Step Across This Line showcases the other side of one of fiction's most astonishing conjurors On display is Salman Rushdie's incisive thoughtful and generous mind in prose that is as entertaining as it is topical The world is here captured in pieces on a dazzling array of subjects from New York's Amadou Diallo case to the Wizard of Oz from U2 to fifty years of Indian writing from a tribute to Angela Carter to the struggle to film Midnight's Children The title essay was originally delivered at Yale as the 2002 Tanner lecture on human values and examines the changing meaning of frontiers in the modern world moral and metaphorical frontiers as well as physical ones The collection chronicles Rushdie's intellectual journeys but it is also an intimate invitation into his life he explores his relationship to India through a moving diary of his first visit there in over a decade A Dream of Glorious Return Step Across This Line also includes Messages From the Plague Years a historic set of letters articles and reflections on life under the fatwa Gathered together for the first time this is Rushdie's humane intelligent and angry response to a grotesque threat aimed not just at him but at free expression itself Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie's first collection of non fiction in a decade has the same energy imagination and erudition as his astounding novels along with some very strong opinions Step Across this Line

Salman Rushdie, 2002 The subjects of Salman Rushdie's new collection of non fiction range from The Wizard of Oz U2 India and Indian writing the death of Princess Diana and football to twentieth century writers including Angela Carter Arthur Miller Edward Said J M Coetzee and Arundhati Roy In a central section Messages from the Plague Years Rushdie focuses on the fight against the Iranian fatwa presenting texts both personal and political which show for the first time how it was to live through those days Rushdie's columns for the New York Times confront current issues Kashmir Northern Ireland Kosovo Islam and the West as well as lighter topics such as reality TV sport and sleaze The book ends with the lectures that give it its tide Rushdie's exploration of the theme of frontiers crossing them breaking taboos and in the light of September 11 the world of permeable frontiers in which we all live Salman Rushdie in the Cultural Marketplace Ana Cristina

Mendes, 2016-03-23 Taking up the roles that Salman Rushdie himself has assumed as a cultural broker gatekeeper and mediator in various spheres of public production Ana Cristina Mendes situates his work in terms of the contemporary production circulation and consumption of postcolonial texts within the workings of the cultural industries Mendes pays particular attention to Rushdie as a public performer across various creative platforms not only as a novelist and short story writer but also as a public intellectual reviewer and film critic Mendes argues that how a postcolonial author becomes personally and professionally enmeshed in the dealings of the cultural industries is of particular relevance at a time when the market is strictly regulated by a few multinational corporations She contends that marginality should not be construed exclusively as a basis for understanding Rushdie's work since a critical grounding in marginality will predictably involve a reproduction of the traditional postcolonial binaries of oppressor oppressed and colonizer colonized that the writer subverts. Rather she seeks to expand existing interpretations of Rushdie's work, itineraries and frameworks in order to take into account the actual conditions of postcolonial cultural production and circulation within a marketplace that is global in both orientation and effects. From Solidarity to Schisms, 2009-01-01. From Solidarity to Schisms is the first collection to expand discussions of the effects the events of 11 September 2001 and their aftermath have had on fiction and film beyond an exclusively US based focus. The essays brought together here go beyond critiquing the US to examine the cultural shifts taking place in fiction and cinema from places such as Britain, France, Germany, Australia, Pakistan, Canada, Israel and Iran. From these many sites of production the works discussed in this collection illustrate more precisely how 9/11 was global without succumbing to neat categorizations such as us vs them, East vs West, Christianity vs Islam and so on. From Solidarity to Schisms is an important supplement to the US centered cultural and critical production addressing 9/11, providing researchers and teachers alike with resources and contexts that will allow them to broaden their own examinations of novels and films by Americans and about the US. It also provides a valuable resource for students and scholars of contemporary global history and international politics who are interested in approaching 9/11 terrorism and counter terrorism and related topics from a cultural standpoint.

Salman Rushdie in Context Florian Stadler, 2023-03-30. Salman Rushdie in Context discusses Rushdie's life and work in the context of the multiple geographies he has inhabited and the wider socio-cultural contexts in which his writing is emerging, published and read. This book reveals the evolving political trajectory around transnationalism, multiculturalism and its discontents so prominently engaged with by Salman Rushdie in relation to South Asia, its diasporas, Britain and the USA in the late twentieth and early twenty-first century. Focused on the aesthetic, biographical, cultural, creative, historical and literary contexts of his works, the book reveals his deep engagement with processes of decolonization, emergent nationalisms in South Asia, Europe and the USA and diasporic identity constructions and how they have been affected by globalisation. The book traces how through his fiction and non-fiction, Rushdie has profoundly shaped the discussion of important questions of global citizenship and migration that continue to resonate today.

Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century Literatures in English Brian McHale, 2006-06-28. An imaginatively constructed new literary history of the twentieth century. This companion with a difference sets a controversial new agenda for literary historical analysis. Far from the usual forced march through the decades, genres and national literatures, this reference work for the new century cuts across familiar categories, focusing instead on literary hot spots: Freud's Vienna and Conrad's Congo in 1899; Chicago and London in 1912; the Somme in July 1916; Dublin, London and Harlem in 1922; and so on down to Bradford and Berlin in 1989; the fatwa against Salman Rushdie; the new digital media; Stockholm in 1993; Toni Morrison's Nobel Prize and September 11, 2001.
