Maxims Saint Stephen (of Muret),2002      Money and the Church in Medieval Europe, 1000-1200 Giles E. M. Gasper,Svein H. Gullbekk,2016-03-09 Bringing together essays from experts in a variety of disciplines this collection explores two of the most important facets of life within the medieval Europe money and the church By focusing on the interactions between these subjects the volume addresses four key themes Firstly it offers new perspectives on the role of churchmen in providing conceptual frameworks from outright condemnation to sophisticated economic theory for the use and purpose of money within medieval society Secondly it discusses the dichotomy of money for the church and its officers on one hand voices emphasise the moral difficulties in engaging with money on the other the reality of the ubiquitous use of money in the church at all levels and in places within Christendom Thirdly it places in dialogue interdisciplinary perspectives and approaches and evidence from philosophy history literature and material culture to the issues of money and church Lastly the volume provides new perspectives on the role of the church in the process of monetization in the High Middle Ages Concentrating on northern Europe from the early eleventh century to the beginning of the thirteenth century the collection is able to explore the profound changes in the use of money and the rise of a money economy that this period and region witnessed By adopting a multi disciplinary approach the collection challenges current understanding of how money was perceived understood and used by medieval clergy in a range of different contexts It furthermore provides wide ranging contributions to the broader economic and ethical issues of the period demonstrating how the church became a major force in the process of monetization      Abbot Vitalis of Savigny, Abbot Godfrey of Savigny, Peter of Avranches, and Blessed Hamo Hugh Feiss,Maureen M. O'Brien,Ronald Pepin,Ronald E. Pepin,2014 This volume offers translations of the twelfth century Latin vitae of four monks of the Monastery of Savigny Abbot Vitalis Abbot Godfrey Peter of Avranches and Blessed Hamo Founded in 1113 by Vitalis of Mortain an influential hermit preacher Savigny expanded to a congregation of thirty monasteries under his successor Godfrey 1122 1138 In 1147 the entire congregation joined the Cistercian Order Around 1172 two monks of Savigny Peter of Avranches and Hamo friends but very different personalities died Their stories were told in two further vitae The vitae of these four men exemplify the variety of people and movements found in the monastic ferment of the twelfth century      Money and the Church in Medieval Europe, 1000-1200 Dr Giles E M Gasper,Professor Svein H. Gullbekk,2015-05-28 Bringing together essays from experts in a variety of disciplines this collection focuses on the interaction between money and the church in northern Europe in order to challenge current understanding of how money was perceived understood and used by medieval clergy in a range of contexts It provides wide ranging contributions to the broader economic and ethical issues of the period demonstrating how the church became a major force in the process of monetization      To Govern Is to Serve Jacques Dalarun,2023-02-15 To Govern Is to Serve explores the practices of collective governance in medieval religious orders that turned the precepts of the Gospels most notably that the first will be

last the last will be first into practices of communal deliberation and the election of superiors Jacques Dalarun argues that these democratic forms have profoundly influenced modern experiences of democracy in particular the idea of government not as domination but as service Dalarun undertakes meticulous textual analysis and historical research into twelfth and thirteenth century religious movements from Fontevraud and the Paraclete of Abelard and Heloise through St Dominic and St Francis that sought their superiors from among the less exalted members of their communities to chart how these experiments prefigured certain aspects of modern democracies those allowing individuals to find their way forward as part of a collective Wide ranging and deeply original To Govern Is to Serve highlights the history of the reciprocal bonds of service and humility that underpin increasingly fragile democracies in the twenty first century

Saint Dominic Guy Bedouelle,2011-04-18 Written by one of the foremost contemporary authorities on Saint Dominic this book represents the latest best most concise and readable spiritual biography of Saint Dominic The focus of the biography is the way in which Saint Dominic embodied the role of Christ as preacher and the results that came from this grace From his earliest youth Sacred Scripture was the very heart and foundation of Dominic s spiritual life He never ceased to plunge into the Word of God to study it to pray it Bedouelle thus documents how Saint Dominic s whole life and mission was one continuous proclamation of the power of the Gospel to transform individual lives and society Written in both a popular and scholarly style the combination of historical comprehensiveness and keen theological insight in this work brings Dominic alive as the contemplative and tireless preacher fed from a deeply interior stream of life Gabriel O Donnell O P from the Preface The New Monastery Ellen Rozanne Elder,1998 Selected medieval documents includes reflections by Cistercians and scholars on the motives and the ideals of the first founders of Citeaux Page 4 of cover Maps on p 2 3 of cover Includes bibliographical references p 238 Cassian and the Fathers Thomas Merton,2005 Cassian and the Fathers is the initial volume in the series of Novitiate Conferences of Thomas Merton the classes he presented to young men beginning their monastic life at the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky They contain Merton s insights on important Patristic and monastic figures preceding the time of St Benedict above all John Cassian the most significant bridge between the early desert fathers and the development of monastic life in the West and they reveal the continuing relevance of their teachings for contemporary monastics and other Christians Much of the value and interest of Cassian and the Fathers as of the novitiate conferences in general lies in the light it casts on Merton himself as teacher novice master and monk These notes provide a privileged standpoint for observing Merton functioning as an integral and important member of his monastic community. The public Merton has long been visible in his works written for publication and has more recently been complemented by the interpersonal Merton disclosed in his correspondence and the intimate Merton revealed in his complete journals. While the novitiate conferences may not equal in significance these other sources they do allow access to yet another stratum of Merton's wide ranging and immensely productive engagement with his world from the distinctive standpoint he had chosen within a tradition dating back more than sixteen centuries. While these lectures need to be used critically and carefully in evaluating Merton's own perspectives and commitments nevertheless they do need to be used. The dialectical relationship between Merton's private and more public statements including those made to his novice classes makes possible a more complex and thus a richer picture of his monastic identity and so of his personal identity. In learning about Cassian and the Fathers from Merton one learns as well about Merton as monk as heir to the great monastic teachers and as teacher of a new generation of monks an easily overlooked and undervalued yet integral even central component of his vocation for more than half his monastic life. Thus the publication of the novitiate conferences will fill a significant lacuna in Merton studies and contribute to a balanced holistic comprehension and appreciation of Thomas Merton's life and work. This edition includes an extensive introduction situating these conferences and Merton's years as novice master in the context of his broader life as monk and writer an extensively annotated edition of the text of the conferences based on Merton's own typescript and helpful appendices indicating changes Merton made to his text correlating the written text with taped versions of the actual classes and providing suggestions for further reading both in Merton's other works and in more recent studies of the figures he discusses here.

Abba Isaiah of Scetis Ascetic Discourses Isaiah (Abba), 2002. Written in the fifth century during one of the most formative periods of Christian monasticism in Egypt and Palestine. The Ascetic Discourses show a strong influence of the Scripture both Old and New and of Early monastic writers. They are marked by a faithfulness to tradition yet equally by a note of originality distinctive to the Gaza region. Abba Isaiah has set forth a practical guide for monks ever aware of the challenges that interpersonal relationships present within monastic communities. John Chrysavgis is a Professor of Theology at the Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Boston. He completed his undergraduate studies in Athens and earned his doctoral degree at Oxford. Recent publications include The Way of the Fathers: Exploring the Minds of the Church Fathers 1988, Beyond the Shattered Image: Insights into an Orthodox Ecological Worldview 1999 and Soul Mending: The Art of Spiritual Direction 2000. Pachomios Robert Penkett is an independent scholar currently researching Byzantine and Russian icons in British collections. Having completed his thesis on asceticism in the Spiritual Meadow of John of Moschos he is directing the National Icon Collection Project. He has lectured widely in America, Canada, Europe and Africa and has published work on the Desert fathers and Orthodox spirituality.

A Cloud of Witnesses David N. Bell, 1989. An introduction which lays the foundations for more detailed investigation. Not intended for the specialist or the scholar but simply for anyone interested in learning something about the way in which the doctrines of early Christianity developed      The Life of the Jura Fathers ,1999 Around the year 435 just before the time of Saint Benedict a middle aged man named Romanus felt drawn to the solitary life Leaving his family he entered the dense forests of the rugged Jura Mountains in eastern France There he was soon joined by his brother Lupicinus and many years later by a disciple Eugendus all three of whom are still revered in the local area This first English translation of the Life of these Jura Fathers supplies a chapter long missing in anglophone monastic history and conveys significant information on early Christian Gal its Church and the implantation of monasticism      On the Apocalypse Geoffrey (of Auxerre),2000      Praying the Word Enzo Bianchi,1998 Scripture brings the Word of God to us when we read and welcome it in faith as the Word which comes from God and leads to God Scripture is the means by which we live in God The ancient monastic and patristic way of reading Scripture involves reflection meditation and prayer It is listening to the Word allowing the Word to become active in our lives It is in the words of Saint Jerome opening our sails to the Holy Spirit without knowing on what shores we will land
