Stepping Down From The Star A Soviet Defectors Story:

Federal Government's Handling of Soviet and Communist Bloc Defectors United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, 1988 A Spy's Journey Floyd Paseman, 2010-11-10 In 1967 Floyd Paseman joined the Central Intelligence Agency following successful service as an army officer in Germany He was first stationed in the Far East where he became fluent in Chinese language and culture and then in Germany at what was largely considered the agency's toughest Cold War field posting Over the years he rose from field spy to division chief and ultimately the top ranks in the Operations Directorate of the CIA Paseman details the behind the scenes intelligence gathering during the major events of eight presidential administrations from Lyndon B Johnson through George W Bush

Soviet Women - Everyday Lives Melanie Ilic, 2020-02-18 Based on an extensive reading of a broad range of women's accounts of their lives in the Soviet Union this book focuses on many hidden aspects of Soviet women's everyday lives thereby revealing a great deal about how the Soviet Union operated on a day to day basis and about the place of the individual within it Including testimony from both celebrated literary and cultural figures and from many ordinary people and from both enthusiastic supporters of the regime and dissidents the book considers women's daily routines attitudes and behaviours It highlights some of the hidden inequalities of an ostensibly egalitarian society and considers many wider questions including how extensive was the reach of the Soviet regime how modern was it how far were there continuities after 1917 between the new Bolshevik regime and Russia's imperial past and how homogenous and how mobile was Soviet society

Stepping Down from the Star Alexandra Costa, 1986 Alexandra Costa wife of the first secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington relates the account of her escape to freedom with all its excitement secret codes and signals aliases vicious threats and encounters with security officers Hers is the first book to describe what it is to step into an alien land with a new name no past and no friends or business experience Filled with humor suspense emotion and details about two lands and two ways of life the book offers a rare insight into the everyday world of an intelligent educated Russian woman what she confronted in her own society and what she confronted in American society when she dared to leave her own ISBN 0 399 13195 7 16 95

Cultural Exchange and the Cold War Yale Richmond, 2007-08-09 Some fifty thousand Soviets visited the United States under various exchange programs between 1958 and 1988 They came as scholars and students scientists and engineers writers and journalists government and party officials musicians dancers and athletes and among them were more than a few KGB officers They came they saw they were conquered and the Soviet Union would never again be the same Cultural Exchange and the Cold War describes how these exchange programs which brought an even larger number of Americans to the Soviet Union raised the Iron Curtain and fostered changes that prepared the way for Gorbachev's glasnost perestroika and the end of the Cold War This study is based upon interviews with Russian and American participants as well as the personal experiences of the author and others who were involved in or administered such exchanges Cultural Exchange and the Cold War demonstrates that the best policy to pursue with countries we disagree with is not isolation but engagement
