Stepping Out Making Of Chinese Entrepreneurs:

Stepping Out Kwok B. Chan, Claire See Ngoh Chiang, 1995-08 This book integrates sociology social psychology history and business management studies and looks at the entrepreneur not from the vantage points of market planning and business calculus but from his own developmental complex of factors within and outside himself Mobile Chinese Entrepreneurs Chan Kwok-bun, Chan Wai-wan, 2011-07-26 Mobile Chinese Entrepreneurs draws extensively on the narratives of sixteen small to medium business owners born on the mainland who have immigrated to Hong Kong and returned to their ancestral hometowns in China to establish their enterprises For these executives business and social life alike are marked by constant interplay of identities such as individual identity group membership and ancestral immigrant identity Yet as often as this juggling of multiple selves can be beneficial in the economic sphere it can also lead to feelings of rootlessness and alienation Writing with rare sensitivity the two authors synthesize insights from economic sociology psychology ethnic relations emotions and social networks creating an exploration of social capital and social identity comparable to similar groups of businessmen and women in other parts of the world The Making of Women Entrepreneurs in Hong Kong

Priscilla Pue Ho Chu, 2003-12-01 This book provides a detailed account of Chinese industrial entrepreneurs and describes and explains the phenomena of women entrepreneurship in Hong Kong It addresses two main issues first the characteristics of Chinese entrepreneurship and women entrepreneurs second the factors that constitute the making of Chinese women entrepreneurs in Hong Kong From in depth personal interviews Priscilla Chu examines the entrepreneur as a person and as a member of family organization and society Having thus established the characteristic features of Chinese entrepreneurship in general and female entrepreneurship in particular the author builds a model to summarize the making of female entrepreneurs in Hong Kong a model which is significantly different from that for male and Western counterparts The study analyses the distinct Chinese entrepreneurship in relation to familism Chinese work ethics family and organizational conditions and societal and cultural contexts Indian and Chinese Immigrant Communities Jayati

Bhattacharya, Coonoor Kripalani, 2015-03 This interdisciplinary collection of essays offers a window onto the overseas Indian and Chinese communities in Asia Contributors discuss the interactive role of the cultural and religious other the diasporic absorption of local beliefs and customs and the practical business networks and operational mechanisms unique to these communities Growing out of an international workshop organized by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies in Singapore and the Centre of Asian Studies at the University of Hong Kong this volume explores material cultural and imaginative features of the immigrant communities and brings together these two important communities within a comparative framework Chinese Business in Malaysia Terence Gomez, 2012-12-06 Chinese companies have managed to perform well in Malaysia especially after the recession in the mid 1980s due to a clear change in the Malay dominated government's attitude to Chinese capital Despite the problems that prevail among UMNO politicians the government has provided a stable economic environment and offers opportunities for domestic private investment even for the Chinese. Given these circumstances it does appear that Chinese capital in Malaysia has reasonable prospects for further growth in the immediate future. This study examines the dominant role of Chinese capital in the economy providing in depth empirical research on its mode of development and styles of operation. Covering the period from colonial times to the present day this study identifies key issues pertaining to Chinese business operations in Malaysia: ownership and control patterns, style of growth, relations with the state, politicians and other Chinese businessmen, and the manner of development of business abroad, whilst debunking the theory that large scale Chinese capital is not very entrepreneurial in nature. Chinese Ethnic Business Eric Fong, Chiu Luk, 2006-11-22. Providing a crucial understanding of how globalization impacts on the development of Chinese businesses, this book analyzes the unprecedented changes in Chinese ethnic business due to the process of globalization, specifically economic globalization in the key receiving countries of the US, Australia and Canada. Focusing on the main themes of economic globalization and Chinese community development, transnational linkages, local urban structures, homogenization and place attachment, the team of internationally known contributors place the subject of Chinese ethnic business in the bigger picture of ethnic businesses and globalization. Including excellent methodology such as ethnographic studies, historical analysis, geographic studies and statistical analysis, this volume makes an important contribution to the field of ethnic businesses. The State, Development and Identity in Multi-Ethnic Societies Nicholas Tarling, Terence Gomez, 2008-03-03. The controversial work of Amy Chua argues that as rapid modernization, industrialization, technological change and globalization bring about fundamental changes in national, ethnic and class identities, especially in developing countries, there is a danger that the laissez faire capitalist system will cause serious racial conflagration, especially in societies where there is ethnic minority market dominance combined with ethno-nationalist type politicians who mobilize support from ethnic majority communities by drawing attention to inequalities in wealth distribution. This controversial work goes on to argue for an authoritarian political system with curbs against the corporate expansion of enterprises owned by ethnic minorities until parity in equity ownership among all communities is achieved. This book tests the assumptions behind these arguments, discussing ethnic communities, identity, economy, society and state, and the links between them in a range of countries in East Asia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific, and diaspora communities of Asian peoples in the West. It demonstrates that identity transformation occurs as generations of minority communities succeed each other, that old discourses of fixed origins which are assumed to bind ethnic communities into cohesive wholes do not apply, that there are very extensive interlinkages in the daily activities of people of different ethnic and religious backgrounds, that affirmative action type policies along racial lines can undermine overall societal cohesion, and that there is no case for limiting democracy until economic equity is achieved. This is a rich, important book with huge implications for economic development and for states throughout the world as multi-ethnic societies world wide become more extensive and more complicated. The Globalisation of

Chinese Business Firms H. Yeung, K. Olds, 1999-11-23 Chinese business firms and their networks of personal and business relationships are becoming increasingly important players in the global economy This book examines the global and regional operations of Chinese business firms and considers their implications for the management and organisation of these firms aided by specific case studies Written by leading researchers in this field The Globalisation of Chinese Business Firms is a valuable and timely contribution to the study of Asian business systems

Reluctant Exiles? Ronald Skeldon, 2016-09-16 This work presents an assessment of the migration from Hong Kong that has occurred since the second half of the 1980s This pronounced outflow of highly educated people a brain drain is having a profound impact on destination areas as well as on Hong Kong itself

Rethinking Chinese Transnational Enterprises Leo Douw, Cen Huang, David Ip, 2013-10-11 Affinity to the Chinese culture personalized social networks and a firm control of ownership and management have often been considered the key ingredients for the success of many diaspora Chinese transnational enterprises in South China and Southeast Asia In view of the recent Asian crisis and the rapid changes imposed by globalization scholars are increasingly concerned whether these family owned Chinese transnational enterprises would survive the challenges in the new millennium

Returning Home with Glory Michael Williams, 2018-01-16 Employing the classic Chinese saying returning home with glory man zai rong gui as the title Michael Williams highlights the importance of return and home in the history of the connections established and maintained between villagers in the Pearl River Delta and various Pacific ports from the time of the Californian and Australian gold rushes to the founding of the People s Republic of China Conventional scholarship on Chinese migration tends to privilege nation state factors or concepts which are dependent on national boundaries Such approaches are more concerned with the migrants settlement in the destination country downplaying the awkward fact that the majority of the overseas Chinese huaqiao originally intended to and eventually did return to their home villages qiaoxiang Williams goes back to the basics by considering the strong influence exerted by the family and the home village on those who first set out in order to give a better appreciation of how and why many modest communities in southern China became more modern and affluent He also gives a voice to those who never left their villages women in particular Designed as a single case study this work presents detailed research based on the more than eighty villages of the Long Du district near Zhongshan City in Guangdong Province as well as the three major destinations Sydney San Francisco and Honolulu of the huaqiao who came from this region Out of this analysis of what truly mattered to the villagers the choices they had and made and what constituted success and failure in their lives a sympathetic portrayal of the huaqiao emerges Returning Home with Glory inaugurates the Hong Kong University Press book series Crossing Seas From the very local qiaoxiang or home village of migrants to the transnational destinations in America and Australia this book is a model of how to write diaspora into modern Chinese history The Cantonese Pacific comes alive in this highly readable book that is sure to capture our imagination Evelyn Hu DeHart Brown University A perceptively conceptualized and well researched case study of an emigrant community in the Pearl River Delta that extended its reach to Sydney the Hawaiian Islands and San Francisco Williams offers a refreshing qiaoxiang perspective through which to understand the experiences of Chinese immigrants in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Yong Chen University of California Irvine This welcome study of Chinese mobility among settler societies of the Pacific places the family and the village at its heart just as its subjects did over the century under review to 1949 A path breaking study based on first hand research John Fitzgerald Swinburne University of Technology Chinese Overseas Chee-Beng Tan, Colin Storey, Julia Zimmerman, 2007 The issue of Chinese diaspora is a fascinating phenomenon in the midst of globalism and there is a growing interest in studies of overseas Chinese not only overseas but in China itself This volume the result of an international conference on Chinese overseas studies deals with issues of research and documentation of Chinese migration and migrants It brings together the efforts of scholars and librarians in examining the research and documentation of Chinese overseas Documentation must go hand in hand with research and this book reiterates the need for greater cooperation between librarians and scholars In addition to discussion on research and library and archival documentation the book also takes a look at Chinese overseas in different parts of the world especially Southeast Asia and North America as well as South Africa and Cuba Chinese Business History Robert Gardella, Andrea McElderry, Jane K. Leonard, 2017-07-28 This study focuses on how Chinese business organization practice and success have been interpreted in the historical literature By introducing various interpretations of China's economic development including the impact of the West modernization and Marxist Weberian and revisionist approaches as well as Western business history theory the book establishes a basis for constructing an appropriate framework for future research

Chinese Business and the Asian Crisis David Fu-Keung Ip, Constance Lever-Tracy, Noel Tracy, 2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2000 The Asian financial crisis and its aftermath provide a crucible in which Chinese diaspora capitalism has been tested and a prism through which its strengths and weaknesses may be seen in a different light The papers collected in this volume are in many ways still tentative Some represent work in progress reports on as yet uncompleted research In other cases outcomes explored are still unclear or have not even yet fully unfolded The aim is to focus on the consequences for diaspora Chinese capitalists and to start trying to identify losers and winners in the new landscape re evaluating their business culture strategies and modes of operation and their likely future direction and potential The book begins by setting the scene for the Asian crisis and the achievements of the Asian miracle It then goes on to examine the causes of the financial crash the firms that were able to ride the crisis the Taiwanese economy as a whole the fortunes of diaspora ventures in China the small and medium enterprises at the heart of Chinese diaspora capitalism the impact of the crisis on large Chinese business groups and finally the book debunks the theory that the rise of East Asia was initiated by Japan

Chinese Identities, Ethnicity and Cosmopolitanism Kwok Bun Chan, 2005-12-05 Drawing upon wide ranging case study material the book explores the ever changing personal and cultural identity of Chinese migrants and the diverse cosmopolitan communities they create The various models of newly forged communities are examined with the added dimension of personal identity and the individual's place in society With particular emphasis on the changing face of Chinese ethnicity in a range of established places of convergence Chan draws on extensive experience and knowledge in the field to bring the reader a fresh fascinating and ultimately very human analysis of migration culture identity and the self

Diasporic Chinese Ventures GREGOR BENTON, Hong Liu, 2004-07-31 This collection of essays by and about Wang Gungwu brings together some of Wang's most recent and representative writing about the ethnic Chinese outside China giving the reader a deeper understanding of his views on migration identity nationalism and culture all key issues in modern Asia's transformation The book collects interviews speeches and essays that illustrate the development and direction of Wang's scholarship on ethnic and diasporic Chinese

The Chinese Diaspora and Mainland China C. Lever-Tracy, D. Ip, N. Tracy, 1996-09-06 The book describes the alliance since the mid 1980s of the entrepreneurs of the Chinese diaspora with the new locally based industrialisation that reform in China has allowed to flourish in its townships and villages The synergy between these two derives from the ability of small non bureaucratic actors on both sides to establish networks based on personal trust and reciprocity producing a new kind of transformative development from below in which established Western and Japanese multinationals have little role

Gold diggers, Farmers, and Traders in the "Chinese Districts" of West Kalimantan, Indonesia Mary Somers Heidhues, 2018-05-31 This study examines the changing role of the Chinese community of West Kalimantan particularly its economic and social relationships Heidhues explores the history of the community from the early nineteenth century establishment of the kongsis to the Dayak Raids which uprooted the rural Chinese population in the 1960s Migration, Ethnic Relations and Chinese Business Kwok-bun Chan, 2005-11-21 Incorporating research carried out over the last twenty years this book documents the personal and collective responses of Chinese migrants and refugees to the prejudice and discrimination they have experienced Using case studies of Chinese communities in Canada Chan explores the different defence mechanisms Chinese migrants have created in order to escape the systemic and institutionalized discrimination they face In particular the book analyzes Chinese entrepreneurship arguing that it is a collective response to blocked opportunities in host societies Drawing upon empirical and theoretical literature on the sociology of race and ethnic relations the book stresses the variety in Chinese culture and its ability to exploit an emergent ethnicity as individuals groups and communities
