In the Crossfire of History Lava Asaad, Fayeza Hasanat, 2022-09-16 In the global south women have and continue to resist multiple forms of structural violence. The atrocities committed against Yazidi women by ISIS have been recognized internationally and the Nobel Peace Prize awarded to Nadia Murad in 2018 was a tribute to honor women whose bodies have been battered in the name of race nationality war and religion. In the Crossfire of History: Women's War Resistance Discourse in the Global South is an edited collection that incorporates literary works testimonies autobiographies women's resistance movements and films that add to the conversation on the resilience of women in the global south. The collection focuses on Palestine Kashmir Syria Kurdistan Congo Argentina Central America Sri Lanka and Bangladesh. The essays question historical accuracy and politics of representation that usually undermine women's role during conflict and they reevaluate how women participated challenged sacrificed and vehemently opposed war discourses that erase women's role in shaping resistance movements. The transformative mode of these examples expands the definition of heroism and defiance. To prevent these types of heroism from slipping into the abyss of history this collection brings forth and celebrates women's fortitude in conflict zones. In the Crossfire of History shines a light on women across the globe who are resisting the sociopolitical and economic injustices in their nation states.

Underwater Acoustic Signal Processing Douglas A. Abraham, 2019-02-14 This book provides comprehensive coverage of the detection and processing of signals in underwater acoustics. Background material on active and passive sonar systems underwater acoustics and statistical signal processing makes the book a self contained and valuable resource for graduate students researchers and active practitioners alike. Signal detection topics span a range of common signal types including signals of known form such as active sonar or communications signals signals of unknown form including passive sonar and narrowband signals and transient signals such as marine mammal vocalizations. This text along with its companion volume on beamforming provides a thorough treatment of underwater acoustic signal processing that speaks to its author's broad experience in the field.

Espectros Alberto Ribas-Casasayas, Amanda L. Petersen, 2015-12-24 Espectros is a compilation of original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora. In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen s detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph s ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present LITERATURE, GENDER, SPACE Beatriz Domínguez García, Sonia Villegas López, 2021-09-11

Perhaps the most serious challenge that the present volume offers to the latest literature on the topic is the reflection on gender space and literature from the perspective of masculinity a position which has been no doubt neglected by many years of feminist debate concentrating on women s positions and circumstances This is specifically one of the novelties that the International Conference on Gendered Spaces celebrated in May 2001 at the University of Huelva from which this work springs introduced The articles collected here constitute a selection of the most relevant contributions made at this Conference The First Mystery Novel MEGAPACK

@: 4 Great Mystery Novels Howard Mason, Marco Page, Harry Stephen Keeler, Elisabeth Sanxay Holding, 2015-09-03 The First Mystery Novel MEGAPACK™ presents four classic mysteries by top crime writers Here are The Red Bishop by Howard Mason A wild chase through Europe a castle on the Rhine some very fancy corpses a racing columnist who suddenly finds himself a Peer of the Realm These are the unlikely ingredients that make this book at once hair raising and light hearted Reclining Figure by Marco Page Lucas Edgerton arbitrary and capricious eccentric brings in Ellis Blaise a young New York art dealer to sell some of his art collection for tax purposes Thefts from the collection the sensational forgery of a priceless Renoir and the puzzling murder of Lucas s son force Blaise into a perilous investigation The Case of the 16 Beans by Harry Stephen Keeler Why did old Balhatchet Barkstone on dying leave his nephew 16 beans And why did Boyce Barkstone his heir hold on to the beans Why did Hu Fong a Chinese detective come to the conclusion that a poverty stricken hermit was murdered for an article of great value and what might that article be These are only a few of the seemingly insoluble riddles which Keeler answers in his own inimitable manner The Girl Who Had to Die by By Elisabeth Sanxay Holding 19 year old Jocelyn is convinced she s going to be murdered and accuses John Killian a young man she met on a cruise ship of throwing her overboard But there are a lot of people who seem to hate Jocelyn and Killian starts to wonder if he ll be the next victim instead If you enjoy this ebook don t forget to search your favorite ebook store for Wildside Press Megapack to see more of the 250 volumes in this series covering adventure historical fiction mysteries westerns ghost stories science fiction and much much more

Women and Power in Argentine Literature Gwendolyn Díaz,2010-01-01 The astonishing talent of Argentine women writers belies the struggles they have faced not merely as overlooked authors but as women of conviction facing oppression The patriarchal pressures of the Per n years the terror of the Dirty War and more recently the economic collapse that gripped the nation in 2001 created such repressive conditions that some writers such as Luisa Valenzuela left the country for long periods Not surprisingly power has become an inescapable theme in Argentine women s fiction and this collection shows how the dynamics of power capture not only the political world but also the personal one Whether their characters are politicians and peasants torturers and victims parents and children or lovers male and female each writer explores the effects of power as it is exercised by or against women The fifteen writers chosen for Women and Power in Argentine Literature include famous names such as Valenzuela as well as authors anthologized for the first time most notably Mar a Kodama widow of Jorge Luis Borges Each chapter begins with a verbal portrait editor Gwendolyn D az s personal impression of the author at ease formed through hours of conversation and interviews A biographical essay and critical commentary follow with emphasis on the work included in this anthology D az s interviews translated from Spanish and finally the stories themselves only three of which have been previously published in English complete the chapters The extraordinary depth of these chapters reflects the nuanced often controversial portrayals of power observed by Argentine women writers Inspiring as well as insightful Women and Power in Argentine Literature is ultimately about women who in D az s words choose to speak their truth regardless of the consequences

Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela,2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina s Dirty War 1976 1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina s last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through Historical Dictionary of the "dirty Wars" David R. Kohut,Olga Vilella,Beatrice Julian,2003 During the 1970s and 1980s national security regimes in Argentina Chile and

Uruguay declared war on suspected subversives carrying out campaigns of mass human rights violations The Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars describes the period including the background and aftermath Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars David Kohut, Olga Vilella, 2010-02-18 Unlike a conventional war waged against a standing army a dirty war is waged against individuals groups or ideas considered subversive Originally associated with Argentina's military regime from 1976-1983 the term has since been applied to neighboring dictatorships during the period Indeed it has become a byword for state sponsored repression anywhere in the world The first edition of this reference illustrated the concept by describing the regimes of Argentina Chile 1973-1990 and Uruguay 1973-1985 which tortured murdered and disappeared thousands of people in the name of anticommunism while thousands more were driven into exile The second edition expands the scope to include Bolivia 1971-1982 Brazil 1964-1985 and Paraguay 1954-1989 Includes a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on the countries guerrilla and political movements prominent guerrilla human rights military and political figures local regional and international human rights organizations and artistic figures filmmakers novelists and playwrights whose works attempt to represent or resist the period of repression Publisher

New World Order Underwater Stephanie C. Fox,2017-01-04 The world of Nae N e has undergone a tremendous change 6 8 billion human beings were Culled within the space of a year Human beings each one unique many talented have been erased The world has rebuilt itself adjusting to the new reality of the damage wrought by human overpopulation and resource depletion Most of the world is underwater and a new order has been imposed with the old The old world order includes universal use of Nae N e the nanite birth control device continues Anyone wishing to reproduce must still get a license to do so No license will be granted before a death has been recorded However thanks to Hamish s Regenics serum some people are living extended lifespans so fewer births are to be authorized Avril continues to be concerned by what she knows about the past year The Cull was not a natural plague it was genocide The Farmers of the world elites with access to the bulk of financial and other wealth orchestrated the Cull They are banksters hedge fundsters and corporatists It is Avril who has dubbed them Farmers due to their treatment of humans as a crop to be managed She must find a way to make this crime transparent to all while remaining out of reach The Farmers are a pernicious threat one that must be addressed Until then the new world order will be one of fear and manipulation by the powerful few The conclusion to the Nae N e series takes the reader to a Florida that is mostly underwater and to the International Criminal Court in The Hague the Netherlands A changed world that includes farms and orchards in every town electric vehicles and a currency that is created by the planet s governments instead of its banksters is shown

The Underwater Eye Margaret Cohen,2022-04-12 A rich history of underwater filmmaking and how it has profoundly influenced the aesthetics of movies and public perception of the oceans In The Underwater Eye Margaret Cohen tells the fascinating story of how the development of modern diving equipment and movie camera technology has allowed documentary and narrative filmmakers to take human vision into the depths creating new imagery of the seas and the underwater realm and expanding the scope of popular imagination Innovating on the most challenging film set on earth filmmakers have tapped the emotional power of the underwater environment to forge new visions of horror tragedy adventure beauty and surrealism entertaining the public and shaping its perception of ocean reality Examining works by filmmakers ranging from J E Williamson inventor of the first undersea film technology in 1914 to Wes Anderson who filmed the underwater scenes of his 2004 The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou entirely in a pool The Underwater Eye traces how the radically alien qualities of underwater optics have shaped liquid fantasies for more than a century Richly illustrated the book explores documentaries by Jacques Cousteau Louis Malle and Hans Hass art films by Man Ray and Jean Vigo and popular movies and television shows such as 20 000 Leagues Under the Sea Creature from the Black Lagoon Sea Hunt the Bond films Jaws The Abyss and Titanic In exploring the cultural impact of underwater filmmaking the book also asks compelling questions about the role film plays in engaging the public with the remote ocean a frontline of climate change
