Zingher identifies some of the powerful and evocative themes of childhood and explores why these touch children so deeply. He encourages professionals who work with children in school, camp, club, and library settings to consider using these themes to develop thoughtful and creative programs and units of study. Included are recommended books and videos that illustrate each theme, questions for discussion, possible starting points, readalouds, stories to be told, sensory experiences, interesting objects, etc. Follow up activities and examples of fully described and developed thematic journeys. In this time of standards and accountability, this book reminds us of the joy of teaching and learning and the power of the imagination. How to Get

Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01. Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips. Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print, 1987.
