Huk, 2004-12-10 In this first book length study of Stevie Smith Romana Huk reassesses the work of this major twentieth century woman writer as emerging not only from the practices of female literary modernism but also from within the tumultuous cultural context of mid century Europe Huk considers both the poems and the novels in the light of their cultural and literary context Amongst the work treated here is Smith s rarely discussed trilogy of novels Novel on Yellow Paper Over the Frontier and The Holiday

The Collected Poems of Stevie Smith Stevie Smith,1975 Stevie Smith and the Aphorism Noreen Masud,2023-01-23 Explores the literature of Stevie Smith with particular emphasis on the importance of the aphorism a short witty saying which expresses a general truth It argues that the aphorism offers Smith a means of managing emotional statements in her work enabling her to make and make light of sincere or dramatic communications

Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik,Del Ivan Janik,2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer s background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography

'Stevie Smith: The poems of Not Waving but Drowning are punctuated everywhere with a strong will to freedom.' Discuss. Sylvia Hadjetian,2005-08-17 Seminar paper from the year 2001 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of London English Department course Women Writing and Feminism language English abstract Introduction Stevie Smith s fifth volume of verse Not Waving but Drowning was published in 1957 Pain sadness despair and death are common subjects in these poems and they are all punctuated everywhere by a strong will to freedom Freedom is the right to live or act without being restricted by anyone or anything freedom is the state of not being a prisoner or a slave In her poems Stevie Smith deals with different kinds of freedom The will to freedom is not always fulfilled easily or at all This essay will discuss the reasons for the will of freedom that are presented in certain poems of Not Waving but Drowning it will deal with the possible fulfilment of freedom and the conditions for it

Selected Poems Hélène Aji,Jennifer Kilgore-Caradec,2013-01-16 Complete poems are bulky and too heavy to carry around Collected poems pretend to be complete but usually are not Selected poems are altogether unpretentious and reader friendly But they can be problematic Who decides what poems are important for inclusion in a volume of selected poems When the selection occurs during the author s lifetime may one assume that the author was involved What motivates the choice of one poem over another How do readers preferences influence this choice How do new readers and familiar readers of a poet negotiate the poems that are left out of the selection The essays in this volume address these questions in a variety of ways and also provide an overview of poetic writing from modernist poets to the present day using selections from the 1940s until now They offer new insight into the uses both pedagogical and critical of selection Because Selected Poems usually address a large general public these essays have also been written for all those who wish to know more about how these slimmer more attractive volumes are produced Selected Poems Kenneth Patchen,1957 Poems of humor protest love and wonder by one of America s most original voices A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description
