

7 THE SACRAMENTS

Baptism

"Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word."

Anointing of the Sick

"By the sacred anointing of the sick and the prayer of the priests the whole Church commends those who are ill to the suffering and glorified Lord, that he may raise them up and save them, and indeed she exhorts them to contribute to the good of the People of God by freely uniting themselves to the Passion and death of Christ."

Confirmation

Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For "by the sacrament of Confirmation, [the baptized] are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed."

Holy Orders

Holy Orders is the sacrament through which the mission entrusted by Christ to his apostles continues to be exercised in the Church until the end of time: thus it is the sacrament of apostolic ministry. It includes three degrees: episcopate, presbyterate, and diaconate.

Eucharist

The holy Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Those who have been raised to the dignity of the royal priesthood by Baptism and configured more deeply to Christ by Confirmation participate with the whole community in the Lord's own sacrifice by means of the Eucharist.

Marriage

"The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament."

Confession

"Those who approach the sacrament of Confession obtain pardon from God's mercy for the offense committed against him, and are, at the same time, reconciled with the Church which they have wounded by their sins and which by charity, by example, and by prayer labors for their conversion."

A Stewardship of the Mysteries Frank C. Senn, 1999 A Stewardship of the Mysteries is an ecumenical work that explores current issues in the administration of the sacraments and the role of the word of God in the order of the eucharist in Roman Catholic Protestant and Orthodox churches BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting, 1998 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Legal Flexibility and the Mission of the Church Will Adam, 2016-04-22 Legal scholars and authorities generally agree that the law should be obeyed and should apply equally to all those subject to it without favour or discrimination Yet it is possible to see that in any legal system there will be situations when strict application of the law will produce undesirable results such as injustice or other consequences not intended by the law as framed In such circumstances the law may be changed but there may be broad policy reasons not to do so The allied concepts of dispensation and economy grew up in the western and eastern traditions of the Christian church as mechanisms whereby an individual or a class of people could by authority be excused from obligations under a particular law in particular circumstances without that law being changed This book uncovers and explores this neglected area of church life and law Will Adam argues that dispensing power and authority exist in various guises in the systems of different churches Codified and understood in Roman Catholic and Orthodox canon law this arouses suspicion in the Church of England and in English law in general The book demonstrates that legal flexibility can be found in English law and is integral to the law of the Church to enable the Church today better to fulfil its mission in the world Practical Expositions of the Epistles Appointed for the Sundays and Saints' Days Throughout the Year. Vallet,2011-07-22 The word stewardship comes across as stale and mildly distasteful to many in the church today as a term limited in its scope to euphemistic conversations about financial giving Yet as Ronald Vallet points out when the apostle Paul refers to stewards of the mysteries of God 1 Cor 4 1 he is talking about something much deeper and richer than fund raising In Stewards of the Gospel Vallet recovers a more adequate understanding of Christian stewardship in light of both the New Testament and the realities facing today's church as it deals with challenges to justice to the environment and even to faith itself He then applies his reinvigorated concept of stewardship in practical ways to congregations to their pastors and leaders and to the seminaries and denominational structures that mold and support those leaders Enhancing Vallet's broad gospel oriented vision of stewardship are thoughtful responses from six seasoned theological educators Daniel Aleshire David L Bartlett Bruce C Birch Terry Parsons Eugene F Roop and L E Ted Sivers Stewards Know the Mysteries of God & His Kingdom Apostle Anton L.
