Yours are the Hands of Christ James C. Howell, 2017-06-01 Take spirituality into the real world Jesus didn't become flesh so we could feel different He came to this world so we will be different Often our spirituality seems invisible and mute to a hurting world Many of us simply internalize faith out of fear feelings of inadequacy or choice A faithful response to discipleship's call however is both inward and outward Through Howell's study you'll find ways to apply faith to your daily life and make evident your commitment to Christ By considering all that Jesus did with his hands as a teacher a healer and a compassionate servant Howell challenges readers to be the hands and feet and love of Christ in the world Christianity must become something real tangible something that pervades all that we are writes Howell It must become something we do In our culture for Christianity to have any meaningful future we must get serious about a genuine lifestyle that is holy without being elitist engaged with the world without being jaded or self-righteous active and busy yet prepared to cope with failure Howell's inspiration for this work comes from a poetic meditation written by Teresa of Avila a Spanish nun who lived in the 16th century The poem begins Christ has no body now on earth but yours no hands but yours no feet but yours Howell connects these words with the apostle Paul who wrote in 1 Corinthians 12 Now you are the body of Christ Express your faith through action Be the hands of Christ today to a hurting world

The second Christian life is to live the glorious economic life by which we subordinate and participate into the biblical truths in our daily economic life in terms of the identity of the economic man and woman, economic principles, production, consumption, distribution, and economic policies. The third Christian life is to live the glorious biblical life by which we live according to Jesus Christ's teachings concerning the kingdom of God that he mentioned in the four Gospels.
