volume of collected short stories and vignettes In Our Time was Ernest Hemingway's first commercial publication. Its appearance in 1925 launched the full-fledged literary career of this century's most famous American fiction writer. And while other later works of Hemingway have eclipsed In Our Time's fame, none of Hemingway's subsequent works would again carry the degree of experimentation found in this distinctly modernist masterwork.

Modernism and Tradition in Ernest Hemingway's In Our Time A Guide for Students and Readers is a well-paced, lucidly written handbook intended to guide university students and teaching faculty towards a better understanding of this complex work. It provides a reading of each story and vignette while simultaneously stressing the status of In Our Time as a discrete volume. Included are discussions of the book's biographical and historical background and considerations of Hemingway's prose style, theories of writing, formal achievements, his literary mentors and influences, and the relation between In Our Time and his later works.

Matthew C. Stewart is Associate Professor of Humanities and Rhetoric at Boston University.

Taken Alive; And Other Stories, With An Autobiography Edward Payson Roe, 2023-02-08 Reproduction of the original.

Short Stories of Our Time Douglas R. Barnes, 1985-04 Short Stories of Our Time is a selection of 13 short stories by contemporary authors, all with 20th-century urban settings. The stories have been chosen to appeal to students who are impatient with the classics but respond to stories which illuminate the reality they know.

In Our Times Don Campbell, 2015-02-25 In Our Times is an eclectic collection of short stories which shimmer like butterflies at once original yet showing traces of colour from such writers as Chekhov, Hemingway, and Borges. The panorama of drug addiction, homelessness, despair, first love, destroyed ambition, and remarkable achievement are witnessed like bright colours in a darkening sky.

Some Eminent Women of Our Times: Short Biographical Sketches Millicent Garrett Fawcett, 2019-12-09 In Some Eminent Women of Our Times: Short Biographical Sketches, Millicent Garrett Fawcett presents a rich tapestry of narratives celebrating the lives and accomplishments of notable women who shaped the socio-political landscape of her era. Ranging from activists to artists, Fawcett employs a biographical style that is both engaging and illuminating, weaving personal anecdotes with contextual analysis to highlight the struggles and triumphs of women in a patriarchal society. The book serves as both an historical document and a compelling argument for women's rights, contextualized within the suffrage movement that deeply influenced Fawcett's own advocacy work, thereby situating these figures as not just individuals but as pivotal agents of change in a transformative epoch.

Millicent Garrett Fawcett was a prominent English suffragist and a public intellectual celebrated for her unwavering commitment to women's rights throughout her life. Her extensive involvement with the suffrage movement, particularly as the president of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies informed her understanding of the challenges women faced. These experiences alongside her background in education and activism provided her with a unique insight into the importance of recognizing women's achievements and contributions to society. This meticulously crafted collection is a valuable resource for anyone interested in women's history, social justice, or the evolution of feminist thought. Fawcett's appreciation for her subjects not only inspires admiration but challenges readers to consider the broader implications of women's roles in society. Engaging, informative, and thought provoking, Fawcett's work is an essential addition to both scholarly libraries and the personal collections of those passionate about social reform.

The Spiritual Signature of our Time Ueli Hurter, Justus Wittich, 2021-10-14. What can we read in the fast moving events of recent times? Is there a theme, a spiritual signature that should be recognized and understood? Following on from the book of essays Perspectives and Initiatives in the Times of Coronavirus, key figures from the School of Spiritual Science at the Goetheanum assess critical societal issues in a series of striking lectures. In the context of the continuing Covid 19 pandemic, the speakers address questions such as: Are we making a religion out of science? How is our behaviour mirrored in the ecosystem? and What effects do inner work and meditation have on the healing powers of the human being? Offering scientific, artistic, historic and sociological viewpoints, their research is based on expert knowledge and practice in various disciplines such as medicine, agriculture and education. Uppermost in their analysis, however, is the spiritual dimension of the human being. The book also deals with misrepresentations and misinterpretations of anthroposophy. The School of Spiritual Science, with its centre in Dornach, Switzerland, has eleven sections that are active internationally in research, development, teaching and practical implementation of findings. The work of each of the School's sections seeks to develop anthroposophy as founded by Rudolf Steiner (1861-1925) in a contemporary context through the core disciplines of general anthroposophy, medicine, agriculture, pedagogy, natural science, mathematics and astronomy, literary and visual arts and humanities, performing arts and youth work.

Creatures of Our Time, in a Land Fit for Heroes Dave Diss, 2006. This is the second volume of autobiography after Dizzy. Far from bobbing up and down on the seven seas in the Royal Navy as had previously been his wont, Dave Diss is trying his luck as a newly married civilian in the Big Smoke among the toppers and bowlers still worn in the city in those days of 1955, working in the still Blitz-scarred capital of The United Kingdom of Great Britain, pushing a pen as a poorly paid underwriter for The Yorkshire Insurance Company in Cornhill, just around the corner from The Royal Exchange and The Bank of England where the big nobs hang out, and The Stock Exchange in Throgmorton Street.

Our Time After a While Billingsley, Lloyd. Billingsley, Lloyd. Billingsley, 2010-02. All baby boomers are children of their time. In Our Time After a While, writer Lloyd Billingsley backpacks into that time, the tail end of the tail fin era in its very birthplace. In the motor cities of Detroit and Windsor, the streets, schools and parks jostled with a vast cast of characters. The author charts their adventures and the sound track, no border could stop and which would spread around the world. This was long ago, but like Bob Seger, the author is still humming a song.
