Still Ain't Satisfied Canadian Feminism Today:

Still Ain't Satisfied! Maureen FitzGerald, Connie Guberman, Margie Wolfe, 1982 Still Ain't Satisfied Canadian women certainly aren't And this collection of twenty seven articles on the major women's issues of the decade shows why feminists have only begun to fight Women are still paid less than their male counterparts rape and wife battering remain brutal social problems and inadequate day care still threatens women's right to work These and many other injustices that undermine more than fifty percent of Canada's population are thoughtfully explored in this timely and provocative book Talented writers from across the country review the dynamic changes in the women's movement over the last ten years Controversial issues like abortion pornography sexuality and women and work are examined Non traditional jobs for women rape and day care are only a few of the many concerns brought into focus Still Ain't Satisfied provides a stimulating look at some of the most important issues of our time issues which have touched the lives of all individuals in this country Canada: The State of the Federation 1990 Ronald Lampman Watts, Douglas M. Douglas Brown, 1990 Making Knowledge Count Peter Harries-Jones, 1991-04-01 The essays in this collection use case studies to address four vital issues of modern social advocacy The first is the new social framework which has legitimized advocacy and recognized the immense importance of human rights legislation The second issue explored is the adoption of various strategies by advocates in empowering social groups to achieve better self management A third issue is the link between the process of advocacy and social movements In the past the sociological study of collective conflict focused on the confrontation between capital and labour but in recent years social movements have shifted the focus to quality of life or programmed society conflicts Fourth the essays examine the role of academic social science in the new process of advocacy Harries Jones and the other contributors propose that outdated notions of objectivity in the social sciences be replaced by reflexivity social commitment and interested knowledge The case studies of advocacy in this collection include those concerning human rights in Chile race relations refugees community and labour advocacy alternative work training and advocacy in the women's movement The contributors to this volume are Howard Adelman Jinny Arancibia Marcelo Charlin John Cleveland Stewart Crysdale Harry Diaz Don Diplo Jacques Doyer Peter Harries Jones Elspeth Heyworth Peter Landstreet Ronnie Leah Stan Marshall Gareth Morgan Tim Rees Metta Spencer and Carol Tator Integrative Feminisms Angela Miles, 2023-03-08 Integrative Feminisms presents a unique discussion of feminist radicalism in North America in the context of feminism's global development since the 1960s Across divergent agendas Angela Miles illuminates the transformative power common to apparently diverse radical eco Black socialist lesbian and third world feminists Drawing on interviews with activists historical and documentary research and her own participation the book delivers a unique and powerful analysis of concentric feminisms in a transnational context Case Critical Ben Carniol, 2005 A classic text in social work education Case Critical opens the door on Canada's social services from the perspective of social workers themselves and service users or cases people whose voices we rarely hear This completely revised and updated fifth edition includes new interviews and topics of discussion to reinforce Carniol's passionate case for social work as liberation practice

Praxis and Politics Janet M. Conway, 2013-10-14 Praxis and Politics explores the knowledge arising from activist praxis and its significance for reimagining radical and democratic politics. It is based on five years of direct involvement in the Toronto-based Metro Network for Social Justice and their work in coalition building, campaign organizing and economic and political literacy work in the aftermath of the signing of the Canada-US Free Trade Agreement. The book breaks new theoretical and methodological ground in social movement studies, drawing on a wide range of traditions including cultural studies, urban studies, political economy and feminism

The World in a City Paul Anisef, C. Michael Lanphier, 2003-01-01 Toronto is perhaps the most multicultural city in the world. The process of settlement and integration in modern-day Toronto is however more difficult for recent immigrants than it was for those newcomers arriving in previous decades. Many challenges face newly settled immigrants, top among them access to healthcare, education, employment, housing and other economic and community services. The concept of social exclusion opens up promising ways to analyze the various challenges facing newcomers, and The World in a City explores Toronto's ability to sustain a civic society. This collection of essays highlights why the need to pay more attention to certain at-risk groups and the importance of adapting policy to fit the changing settlement and clustering patterns of newcomers is of crucial importance. The authors' findings demonstrate that there are many obstacles to providing opportunity for immigrants with low resource bases in particular Toronto; they suggest it does not provide a level playing field for its newly arrived inhabitants and in failing to recognize the particular needs of new communities fails to ensure a growth that would be of immense benefit to the city as a whole

Moral Issues in Global Perspective - Volume 2: Human Diversity and Equality - Second Edition Christine Koggel, 2006-03-27 Now available in three thematic volumes, the second edition of Moral Issues in Global Perspective is a collection of the newest and best articles on current moral issues by moral and political theorists from around the globe. Each volume seeks to challenge the standard approaches to morality and moral issues shaped by Western liberal theory and to extend the inquiry beyond the context of North America. Covering a broad range of issues and arguments, this collection includes critiques of traditional liberal accounts of rights, justice and moral values while raising questions about the treatment of disadvantaged groups within and across societies affected by globalization. Providing new perspectives on issues such as war and terrorism, reproduction, euthanasia, censorship and the environment, each volume of Moral Issues in Global Perspective incorporates work by race, class, feminist and disability theorists. Human Diversity and Equality, the second of the three volumes, examines issues of equality and difference and the effects within and across borders of kinds of discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, gender, disability, class and sexual orientation. Nine essays are new, four of which were written especially for this volume. Moral Issues in Global Perspective is available in three separate volumes: Moral and Political Theory, Human Diversity and Equality and Moral Issues

Intervening With Assaulted Women

Barbara Pressman, Gary Cameron, Michael Rothery, 2013-02-01 Domestic violence against women is a problem that cries out for informed discussion and effective treatments Intervening With Assaulted Women is a definitive response to those cries The authors of each of the chapters included in this collection were selected for their ability to address a different issue related to the abuse of women As a result a wide range of concerns are confronted and discussed in this book among them the socio political underpinnings of violence against women the early childhood learning of assaultive men and the traumatic impact of abuse on women and children As for possible treatments a current and uniquely comprehensive range of responses is described and evaluated making this an excellent text for both front line and classroom settings Sisterhood Is Global

Robin Morgan, 2016-03-08 A powerful and essential anthology that sheds light on the status of women throughout the world Hailed by Alice Walker as one of the most important human documents of the century this collection of groundbreaking essays examines the global status of women's experiences from oppression to persecution Originally published in 1984 the compilation features pieces written by a diverse set of powerful women journalists politicians grassroots activists and scholars from seventy countries Author Robin Morgan a champion of women's rights herself expertly weaves these inspiring essays into one comprehensive feminist text These compelling herstories contain thoroughly researched statistics on the status of women throughout the world Each chapter focuses on a different country and includes data on education government marriage motherhood prostitution rape sexual harassment and sexual preference Sisterhood Is Global transcends political systems and geographical boundaries to unite women and their experiences in a way that remains unequalled even decades after its first publication No Place to Go Nancy Janovicek, 2011-11-01

The first history of the battered women's shelter movement in Canada No Place to Go traces the development of transition houses and services for abused women and the campaign that made wife battering a political issue Nancy Janovicek focuses on women's groups in small cities and rural communities examining anti violence activism in Thunder Bay Kenora Nelson and Moncton She also pays close attention to Aboriginal women in northwestern Ontario where the connections between family violence and the devaluation of indigenous culture in Canadian society complicated efforts to end domestic violence This book lays bare the aims and challenges of establishing women's shelters in non urban areas The local histories presented here show how transition houses became hubs in a larger movement to change attitudes about domestic violence and to lobby for legislation to protect women

More Than a Labour of Love Meg Luxton, 1980 Originally published in 1980 this new edition of More Than a Labour of Love is the first of our Women's Press Classics series which celebrates our most enduring titles Based on participant observation and in depth interviews this book describes the work women do in their homes caring for children and partners and maintaining the house It shows how their lives are shaped by domestic responsibilities and challenges the ways in which their work is neither recognized nor valued Arguing that the work they do is socially necessary and central to the economy it calls for a transformation of current social and economic relations Living With Contradictions Alison M

Jaggar,2018-03-08 This book explores some of the moral and public policy issues that divide Western especially North American feminists as the twentieth century ends and the twenty first century begins It represents an in house discussion among feminists and their social ethics Understanding Abuse Mary Lou Stirling,Baukje Miedema,2004-01-01 Based on research projects conducted over ten years Understanding Abuse profiles the work done by researchers of issues related to woman abuse and family violence Turbo Chicks Lara Karaian,Lisa Bryn Rundle,Allyson Mitchell,2001 Energetic reflective often passionate Turbo Chicks clearly and powerfully demonstrates that feminism has many valid interpretations and that young and older feminist alike are vital to keeping the movement dynamic Any Other Way Stephanie Chambers,Jane Farrow,Maureen Fitzgerald,Ed Jackson,John Lorinc,Tim McCaskell,Rebecca Sheffield,Tatum Taylor,Rahim Thawer,2017-05-22 Toronto is home to multiple and thriving queer communities that reflect the intense diversity of the city itself and Any Other Way is an eclectic history of how these groups have transformed Toronto since the 1960s From pioneering activists to show stopping parades Any Other Way looks at how queer communities have gone from existing in the shadows to shaping our streets Remaking Human Geography (RLE Social & Cultural Geography) Audrey Kobayashi,Suzanne Mackenzie,2014-01-23 This book highlights the increasingly important contribution of geographical theory to the understanding of social change values economic political organization and ethical imperatives As a cohesive collection of chapters from well known geographers in Britain and North America it reflects the aims of the contributors in striving to bridge the gap between the historical materialist and humanist interpretations of human geography The book deals with both the contemporary issues outlined above and the situation in which they emerge industrial restructuring planning women s issues social and cultural practices and the landscape as context for social action Cape Breton in the Long Twentieth Century Lachlan MacKinnon,Andrew Parnaby,2024-03-26 The emergence dominance and alarmingly rapid retreat of modernist industrial capitalism on Cape Breton Island during the long twentieth century offers a particularly captivating window on the lasting and varied effects of deindustrialization Now at the tail end of the industrial moment in North American history the story of Cape Breton Island presents an opportunity to reflect on how industrialization and deindustrialization have shaped human experiences Covering the period between 1860 and the early 2000s this volume looks at trade unionism state and cultural responses to deindustrialization including the more recent pivot towards the tourist industry and the lived experiences of Indigenous and Black people Rather than focusing on the separate or distinct nature of Cape Breton contributors place the island within broad transnational networks such as the financial world of the Anglo Atlantic the Celtic music revival the Black diaspora Canadian development programs and more In capturing the vital elements of a region on the rural resource frontier that was battered by deindustrialization the histories included here show how the interplay of the state cultures and transnational connections shaped how people navigated these heavy pressures both individually and collectively Margaret Atwood Fiona Tolan,2007 This book examines the novels of Margaret Atwood in conjunction with the development of second wave feminism and attempts to demonstrate the existence of a dynamic relationship between her fiction and feminist theory introduced Feminist Organizations Myra Marx Ferree, Patricia Yancey Martin, 1995-02 Twenty six original essays look at contemporary feminist organizations
