

Still Not Satisfied

by Ronovan Hester

A man once said he had a dream.

For this nation falters in stride,
every man resistant by pride.

A man held in so high esteem,
his end caused the earth to scream.

His beliefs inspire those denied,
judged by the color of their hide.

The waters still have not rolled free,
while the stream is far from mighty.

And still he is not satisfied.
