Still Standing A Memoir:

I'm Still Standing Debra Perry, 2018-08-16 I'm Still Standing is a poignant memoir of one woman's journey from prison drug addiction and bondage to freedom in Christ. This riveting testimony chronicles the various trials and tribulations of a life of sin to the overwhelming love and freedom in Christ. In this book Debra takes us on a road of redemption and she brilliantly gives the scriptures that she stood on to walk her through her journey. She decrees that despite all the warfare she has gone through she is STILL STANDING with the help of God.

Still Standing Anna Louisa de Launey Crichton, 2024-04 For decades whenever a heritage building in Christchurch has been under threat especially in the aftermath of the 2010/11 earthquakes one woman has consistently defended this city's architecture and history against shortsightedness and the threat of bulldozers. Dame Anna Crichton Fearless and articulate she has fought tirelessly and passionately not only for the heritage of her hometown but for the built past of Aotearoa New Zealand. But behind this well-known persona the city councillor and heritage advocate lies an extraordinary and unexpected life story now told publicly for the first time. In Still Standing Anna recounts with her usual unflinching honesty a childhood bereft of parental affection, a wild adolescence that included a stay at the Mount Magdala Convent to straighten her out, unsuitable relationships, clung to in a desperate search for love, an unplanned pregnancy that led to adoption and a violent marriage. Not many people would survive all this, let alone rise above it to bring up a beloved son to restore a magnificent Victorian home, to begin university study as an adult and end up with a PhD, to travel the world and in 2020 to be appointed a Dame Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to heritage preservation and governance. Still Standing will delight anyone interested in history, architecture and the arts but even more than that it is a riveting story of a life lived with courage and of triumph over adversity.

The Other Side of Terror Erica R. Edwards, 2021-08-10 WINNER 2022 John Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association HONORABLE MENTION 2022 Gloria E Anzaldúa Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association. Reveals the troubling intimacy between Black women and the making of US global power. The year 1968 marked both the height of the worldwide Black liberation struggle and a turning point for the global reach of American power which was built on the counterinsurgency honed on Black and other oppressed populations at home. The next five decades saw the consolidation of the culture of the American empire through what Erica R Edwards calls the imperial grammars of blackness. This is a story of state power at its most devious and most absurd and at the same time a literary history of Black feminist radicalism at its most trenchant. Edwards reveals how the long war on terror beginning with the late Cold War campaign against organizations like the Black Panther Party for Self Defense and the Black Liberation Army has relied on the labor and the fantasies of Black women to justify the imperial spread of capitalism. Black feminist writers not only understood that this would demand a shift in racial gendered power but crafted ways of surviving it. The Other Side of Terror offers an interdisciplinary Black feminist analysis of militarism, security, policing, diversity, representation, intersectionality and resistance while discussing a wide array of literary and cultural texts from the unpublished work of Black radical feminist June Jordan to the memoirs of Condoleezza Rice to the television series Scandal With clear moving prose Edwards chronicles Black feminist organizing and writing on the other side of terror which tracked changes in racial power transformed African American literature and Black studies and predicted the crises of our current era with unsettling accuracy Memoirs of Lucas County and the City of Toledo Harvey Scribner,1910 Cyclopaedia of Biography: Embracing a Series of Original Memoirs of the Most Distinguished Persons of All Times Elihu Rich,1854 The Giles Memorial.
