From Traders to Innovators Goh Chor Boon,2018-02-14 Today more than ever the state of a country s science and technology is a critical factor for economic competitiveness and long term growth This book traces the development of science and technology policies and initiatives in Singapore since 1965 Developed as a trading entrepot by the British science and technology were never strongly emphasized right up to the 1970s However the need to stay ahead of economic competitiveness motivated the Singapore Government to initiate its national science and technology policy from the 1980s moving Singapore from a low skilled low technology economy to a high skilled high technology one Today the drive for Singapore to become a hotbed for technological start ups and R D activities supported by strong government funding and cutting edge facilities seems promising Are the aspirations of nurturing a Silicon Valley type culture in Singapore achievable Are pragmatic risk averse Singaporeans ready for the mindset change Can a nation of traders and service brokers become a nation of technological innovators and entrepreneurs This book attempts to provide the answers      Political Economy of the Environment Simon Dietz,Jonathan Michie,Christine Oughton,2011-02-01 This book is the culmination of several years work by a group of academics policy makers and other professionals looking to understand how alternative economic thinking and indeed thinking from quite different social scientific disciplines could enhance the mainstream economic approach to environmental and natural resource problems Of the editors Dietz comes from the mainstream economics tradition while Michie and Oughton draw explicitly on institutional and evolutionary economics. The various authors represent a range of disciplinary backgrounds and approaches. This book draws on the strengths of each and all of these approaches to analyse environmental issues and what can be done to tackle these through corporate and public policy. The book argues that the need for an inter disciplinary approach. Two themes which emerge repeatedly throughout the book are the need for an interdisciplinary theory of technological change and the need for a similarly interdisciplinary approach to the study of human behaviour and how it influences both production and consumption choices. The two themes are of course related. Resolving environmental questions requires an understanding of their nature of their causes and to the extent that they are anthropogenic of how to change human behaviour. These fundamental issues are the focus of the four chapters that form Part 1 of this volume. The remainder of the volume develops them in more detail.

Tourism and Entrepreneurship Jovo Ateljevic, Stephen J. Page, 2017-12-04. Tourism and Entrepreneurship: International Perspectives provides an innovative interdisciplinary approach. This book takes as its central theme the role of entrepreneurship in the context of regional, local and national tourism development. By engaging with top academics in both tourism and entrepreneurship, this book delivers a cohesive interdisciplinary examination of the most recent developments in both tourism and entrepreneurship. Several key themes are explored and articulated through the following concepts and issues: tourism innovation and entrepreneurship; the role and nature of individual and collective entrepreneurship in different contexts; the role of tourism in responding to development opportunities created by global forces; and finally, issues associated with tourism strategies and policies. Divided into four parts, the book reflects on the most relevant areas of tourism entrepreneurship: Understanding the conceptual basis of tourism entrepreneurship; Creative use of entrepreneurship and processes of social innovation; Tourism entrepreneurship mediating the global-local divide; Sectoral strategies and policy issues of tourism entrepreneurship. Tourism and Entrepreneurship: International Perspective Explains the impact of tourism entrepreneurship on places and overall regional and destination development; Examines the role of the public sector in facilitating the need for sustainable tourism development; Examines the effects and implications of funding schemes and support programmes; Takes the owner-manager and entrepreneur as the starting point of analysis to explore specific issues; Allows practitioners and policy makers to explore practical applications and best practice of theory through a diverse range of international case studies. Contributed to by an international team of leading scholars in tourism and entrepreneurship, this book is a unique combination of theory, case studies and discussion highlighting the importance of entrepreneurial tourism activity for economic success. It is essential reading for students and researchers in both tourism and entrepreneurship.

Dynamics of Knowledge Intensive Entrepreneurship Franco Malerba, Yannis Caloghirou, Maureen McKelvey, Slavo Radošević, 2015-07-24. Knowledge intensive entrepreneurship lies at the core of the structural shift necessary for the growth and development of a knowledge based economy, yet research reveals that the EU has fewer young leading innovators and Europe's new firms do not adequately contribute to industrial growth This is especially true in the high R D intensive high tech sectors This structural malaise undermining Europe s growth potential is well diagnosed but poorly understood This volume fills this important gap by exploring new firms that have significant knowledge intensity in their activity and develop and exploit innovative opportunities in diverse sectors Through an evolutionary and systemic approach to entrepreneurship focusing on knowledge intensive entrepreneurship as both a micro and a macro phenomena and analyzing firms in the context of various socio economic models the authors explore firms creation and origins around the world their organization strategies and business models as well as the role of innovation systems and institutions in their formation and growth This comprehensive research text is vital reading for academics researchers and students of high tech and knowledge intensive entrepreneurship as well as those with an interest in industrial dynamics innovation management and public policy
