

The background of the cover is a vibrant, abstract painting in a Native American style. It features bold, dark shapes, possibly representing mountains or stylized figures, set against a backdrop of warm, earthy tones like reds, oranges, and yellows. There are also cooler tones of blues and greens, suggesting a landscape or sky. The overall composition is dynamic and layered, with various geometric and organic forms.

As We Are Now W. S. Penn, 1998 As we are now mix blood essays on race and identity

Ethnoarts Index, 1997

Here First Arnold Krupat, Brian Swann, 2000-06-13 Here First is an important new collection of essays by Native American writers compiled by Arnold Krupat and Brian Swann the editors of I Tell You Now Autobiographical Essays by Native American Writers In Here First authors such as Sherman Alexie Greg Sarris and Elizabeth Woody tell the stories of their lives and their art Each essay demonstrates the breadth of experience of twenty-seven individuals united in the creative expression of a Native American heritage Each has a different relation to that heritage and in describing it through personal and family history with verse and in anecdotes the writers give a strong image of the different cultures that have shaped them This is living history and the kind of collective memoir that makes for fascinating and rewarding reading one of the most vivid and diverse portraits of Native American culture available today

Killing Time with Strangers W. S. Penn, 2021-11-09 Young Pal needs help with his dreaming Palimony Blue Larue a mixblood growing up in a small California town suffers from a painful shyness and wants more than anything to be liked That's why Mary Blue his Nez Perce mother has dreamed the weyekin the spirit guide to help her bring into the world the one lasting love her son needs to overcome the diffidence that runs so deep in his blood The magical and not totally competent weyekin pops in and out of Pal's life at the most unexpected times and in the most unlikely guises but seems to have difficulty setting him on the right path Is there any hope for Palimony Blue Don't ask his father La Vent Larue La Vent is past hope past help a city zoning planner and a pawn in the mayor's development plans who ends up crazy and in jail after he shoots the mayor in the well never mind Better to ask Pal's mother who summons the weyekin when she isn't working on a cradle board for Pal and his inevitable bride And while you're at it ask the women in Pal's life Sally the preacher's daughter Brandy the waitressing flautist Tara the spoiled socialite And be sure to ask Amanda if you can catch her If you can dream her Using comic vision to address serious concerns of living Penn has written a freewheeling novel that will surpass most readers' expectations of ethnic fiction Instead of the usual polemics it's marked by a sense of humor and a playfulness of language that springs directly from Native American oral tradition What more can be said about a book that has to be read to the end in order to get to the beginning That Killing Time with Strangers is unlike any novel you have read before Or perhaps that it is agonizingly familiar giving us glimpses of a young man finding his precarious way in life But when the power of dreaming is unleashed time becomes negotiable and life's joys and sorrows go up for grabs And as sure as yellow butterflies will morph into Post It notes you will know you have experienced a new and utterly captivating way of looking at the world Literati

Storytelling in Late Medieval China Manling Luo, 2015-02-02 Scholar officials of late medieval China were not only enthusiastic in amateur storytelling but also showed unprecedented interest in recording stories on different aspects of literati life These stories appeared in diverse forms including narrative poems tales of the marvelous records of the strange historical miscellanies and transformation texts Through storytelling literati explored their own changing place in a society that was making its final transition from hereditary aristocracy to a meritocracy ostensibly open to all Literati Storytelling shows how these writings offer crucial insights into the reconfiguration of the Chinese elite which monopolized literacy social prestige and political participation in imperial China The Companion to Southern Literature Joseph M. Righting Canada's Wrongs: Residential Schools Melanie Florence, 2015-12-15 Canada s residential school system for aboriginal young people is now recognized as a grievous historic wrong committed against First Nations Metis and Inuit peoples This book documents this subject in a format that will give all young people access to this painful part of Canadian history In 1857 the Gradual Civilization Act was passed by the Legislature of the Province of Canada with the aim of assimilating First Nations people In 1879 Prime Minister Sir John A Macdonald commissioned the Report on Industrial Schools for Indians and Half Breeds This report led to native residential schools across Canada First Nations and Inuit children aged seven to fifteen years old were taken from their families sometimes by force and sent to residential schools where they were made to abandon their culture They were dressed in uniforms their hair was cut they were forbidden to speak their native language and they were often subjected to physical and psychological abuse The schools were run by the churches and funded by the federal government About 150 000 aboriginal children went to 130 residential schools across Canada The last federally funded residential school closed in 1996 in Saskatchewan The horrors that many children endured at residential schools did not go away It took decades for people to speak out but with the support of the Assembly of First Nations and Inuit organizations former residential school students took the federal government and the churches to court Their cases led to the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement the largest class action settlement in Canadian history In 2008 Prime Minister Harper formally apologized to former native residential school students for the atrocities they suffered and the role the government played in setting up the school system The agreement included the Truth and Reconciliation Commission which has since worked to document this experience and toward reconciliation Through historical photographs documents and first person narratives from First Nations Inuit and Metis people who survived residential schools this book offers an account of the injustice of this period in Canadian history It documents how this official racism was confronted and finally acknowledged
