Ten Talks Parents Must Have With Their Children About Violence:

Ten Talks Parents Must Have With Their Children About Violence Dominic Cappello,2000-04-05 The first book to give parents the tools they need to talk with their children about violence featuring ten scripted family talks tested by moms dads and kids In the wake of the devastating string of school shootings parents everywhere are asking themselves the same question What kind of violence does my child face and how can I help Dominic Cappello a renowned parent educator and policy advocate on school violence and harassment prevention offers parents useful advice on speaking with their children about this vital issue This resourceful book outlines a series of ten easy to manage and engaging talks including real life scenarios to which every child can relate The creative proven approach of this book comes from more than five years of working with parents kids educators and professionals focusing on violence in schools on television the internet and in families Without spouting theory Ten Talks offers practical steps and real words that will help parents prepare for an honest direct and possibly life saving conversation with their children Disarming the Church Eric A. Seibert,2018-04-11 If Christians follow the Prince of Peace why do they often behave so violently What can be done to transform the church so that it looks more like Jesus Eric Seibert explores these questions in this important and timely study He builds a biblical and practical case for living nonviolently in all areas of life and urges Christians to reexamine their most fundamental attitudes toward violence warfare and killing Through true stories and careful analysis Seibert demonstrates that it is possible to resolve conflict correct injustice and stop oppression without resorting to violence Many nonviolent alternatives are discussed throughout the book alternatives that can be used in a wide range of situations from dealing with an unwanted intruder at home to removing a dictator from power In a world filled with so much violence hate and fear alternatives like these are desperately needed This book offers hope that a better way is possible one that has the potential to transform the church and change the world So read on and join in Disarming the Playground Rena Kornblum,2002 And Words Can Hurt Forever James Garbarino,Ellen deLara,2003-09-02 Citing the pervasiveness of emotional violence in schools a guide for parents and educators identifies how schools unwittingly support hostile environments and explains why listening to teens is a key to addressing all forms of violence Love to Hate Jody Roy,2002-08-27 Why is the simple impulsive question we ask when confronted by horrible acts of hatred and violence Why do students shoot fellow students or employees their coworkers Why do mothers drown their children or husbands stalk and kill their wives Love to Hate challenges us to turn this question upon ourselves at a deeper level Why as a culture are we so fascinated by these acts Why do we bestow celebrity on the perpetrators while allowing the victims to fade into a second death of obscurity Are we as Pope John Paul II famously accused a culture of death And if so how can we break free of this unacknowledged aspect of the cycle of violence Unlike those who point solely to media imagery splintered families or lax gun control laws in search of the roots of America s endemic violence Jody M Roy suggests that we all must be held responsible She argues that we reveal our love affair with hatred and violence in the ways we think and speak in our daily lives and in our popular culture The very words we use function as building blocks of callousness and contempt betraying our immersion in subtexts of violence and hatred These subtexts are further revealed in our complex attitudes toward street gangs school shooters serial killers and hate groups and the paroxysms of violence they unleash As spectators driven by our impulse to watch we become an integral part of the equation of violence In the book's final section Freeing Ourselves of Our Obsession with Hatred and Violence Roy offers practical steps we can take as parents consumers and voters to free ourselves from linguistic and cultural complicity and to help create in America a culture of life
