The Wilmington Ten Kenneth Robert Janken,2015-10-22 In February 1971 racial tension surrounding school desegregation in Wilmington North Carolina culminated in four days of violence and skirmishes between white vigilantes and black residents The turmoil resulted in two deaths six injuries more than 500 000 in damage and the firebombing of a white owned store before the National Guard restored uneasy peace Despite glaring irregularities in the subsequent trial ten young persons were convicted of arson and conspiracy and then sentenced to a total of 282 years in prison They became known internationally as the Wilmington Ten A powerful movement arose within North Carolina and beyond to demand their freedom and after several witnesses admitted to perjury a federal appeals court also citing prosecutorial misconduct overturned the convictions in 1980 Kenneth Janken narrates the dramatic story of the Ten connecting their story to a larger arc of Black Power and the transformation of post Civil Rights era political organizing Grounded in extensive interviews newly declassified government documents and archival research this book thoroughly examines the 1971 events and the subsequent movement for justice that strongly influenced the wider African American freedom struggle

Tall Oaks Chris Whitaker,2019-03-20 Winner of the U K s Crime Writers Association s New Blood Dagger Award A small California

community is shattered by the abduction of a three year old resident in this quirky novel praised by The Guardian as a pleasingly unusual mixture of a psychological thriller and screwball comedy      Plants Thematic Unit Mary Ellen Sterling,1995-05 Literature based across the curriculum Cover      Farming the Woods Ken Mudge,Steve Gabriel,2014 Learn how to fill forests with food by viewing agriculture from a remarkably different perspective that a healthy forest can be maintained while growing a wide range of food medicinal and other nontimber products The practices of forestry and farming are often seen as mutually exclusive because in the modern world agriculture involves open fields straight rows and machinery to grow crops while forests are reserved primarily for timber and firewood harvesting In Farming the Woods authors Ken Mudge and Steve Gabriel demonstrate that it doesn't have to be an either/or scenario but a complementary one forest farms can be most productive in places where the plow is not on steep slopes and in shallow soils Forest farming is an invaluable practice to integrate into any farm or homestead especially as the need for unique value added products and supplemental income becomes increasingly important for farmers Many of the daily indulgences we take for granted such as coffee chocolate and many tropical fruits all originate in forest ecosystems But few know that such abundance is also available in the cool temperate forests of North America Farming the Woods covers in detail how to cultivate harvest and market high value nontimber forest crops such as American ginseng shiitake mushrooms ramps wild leeks maple syrup fruit and nut trees ornamentals and more Along with profiles of forest farmers from around the country readers are also provided comprehensive information on historical perspectives of forest farming mimicking the forest in a changing climate cultivation of medicinal crops cultivation of food crops creating a forest nursery harvesting and utilizing wood products the role of animals in the forest farm and how to design your forest farm and manage it once it's established Farming the Woods is an essential book for farmers and gardeners who have access to an established woodland are looking for productive ways to manage it and are interested in incorporating aspects of agroforestry permaculture forest gardening and sustainable woodlot management into the concept of a whole farm organism      Counting Your Way Through 1-2-3 Cathie Hilterbran Cooper,1997 A comprehensive annotated guide to 663 counting books divided into ten subject areas Each section includes a description of the subject area an annotated bibliography of related books and a number of activities that can be used in connection with counting and math books Reproducible activity pages are included in each section      A Sense of Place Daniel A. Kriesberg,1999-03-15 Celebrating nearby nature and the marvels of our own backyards this book helps you introduce children to the world around them With quality children's literature and simple activities you can cultivate a child's sense of wonder and joy and teach him or her the importance of living in harmony with nature These projects span the curriculum and are presented in reproducible format so they're easy to use Highlighting the five senses sight sound smell taste touch they build connections between students and the land and create in young learners a sense of place a true necessity for living in the world today Grades K-6      Shades Of Green Anne Harvey,2011-12-31 A wide ranging collection of nature poems for children chosen by Anne Harvey This is the perfect collection for introducing children to the magic of poetry Includes poems from Thomas Hardy Spike Milligan Laurie Lee Ian Serrailier John Betjemen William Blake Geoffrey Chaucer Emily Dickinson Philip Larkin Helen Dunmore and many more Jumpstart! Assemblies John Foster,2018-12-07 This book contains a wealth of ideas for teachers to deliver engaging and informative assemblies in primary schools The book gives a structure for any assembly that can be easily followed with minimum preparation and provides plenty of opportunities for children to learn interactively and reflect on the theme introduced With all the essential information on over 40 topics and complementary resources including the author s own poetry Jumpstart Assemblies covers a variety of subjects such as personal relationships and values including friendship bullying tolerance and greed health and wellbeing including exercise food safety at home and online and mental health global issues including conservation the environment world hunger and peace festivals and celebrations including Diwali Hanukkah Ramadan Chinese New Year and Christmas This book will be an invaluable aid for any teacher who wants to jumpstart the school day with a dynamic and effective assembly Visionary Women Writers of Chicago's Black Arts Movement Carmen L. Phelps,2012-11-26 A disproportionate number of male writers including such figures as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Maulana Karenga and Haki Madhubuti continue to be credited for constructing the iconic and ideological foundations for what would be perpetuated as the Black Art Movement Though there has arisen an increasing amount of scholarship that recognizes leading women artists activists and leaders of this period these new perspectives have yet to recognize adequately the ways women aspired to far more than a mere dismantling of male oriented ideals In Visionary Women Writers of Chicago s Black Arts Movement Carmen L Phelps examines the work of several women artists working in Chicago a key focal point for the energy and production of the movement Angela Jackson Johari Amini and Carolyn Rodgers reflect in their writing specific cultural local and regional insights and demonstrate the capaciousness of Black Art rather than its constraints Expanding from these three writers Phelps analyzes the breadth of women s writing in the BAM In doing so Phelps argues that these and other women attained advantageous and unique positions to represent the potential of the BAM aesthetic even if their experiences and artistic perspectives were informed by both social conventions and constraints In this book Phelps s examination brings forward a powerful and crucial contribution to the aesthetics and history of a movement that still inspires Children's Catalog Anne Price,Juliette Yaakov,1996

Dancing from the Inside Out Westina Matthews,2019-10-17 Relatable essays focused primarily on being at a certain stage of life from a renowned speaker and author This collection of essays about ordinary events invites the reader to reflect on how God can be found throughout life Matthews offers a personal and authentic voice that resonates with a wide audience particularly women in an easily accessible and understandable manner These timely reflections are in keeping with the Most Rev Michael B Curry s call to live into being the Jesus Movement by committing to evangelism and the work of reconciliation beginning with racial reconciliation across the borders and boundaries that divide the human family of God Through thoughtful poignant humorous and authentic reflections shared from her journal and weekly email blogs Matthews invites the reader to redefine themselves This book is a wonderful resource for personal reflection and a great gift for colleagues friends and family members
