Ten Days To Live The Charles Dabney Story:

The Argonaut, 1921      Marking Time Fred Brown, 2005 The roadside historical markers of East Tennessee highlight the fascinating personalities and significant events of a culturally and historically rich region For three years Knoxville News Sentinel columnist Fred Brown presented the stories behind the local markers placed by the Tennessee Historical Commission He searched the highways and back roads of East Tennessee tracking down markers with directions that were sometimes no more specific than Highway 11 Greene County Arranged by county the entries link East Tennessee's past and present and highlight the enormous diversity of the state's history from its prehistoric past through its involvement in World War II The markers detail bitter struggles with Native Americans in the eighteenth century but also explain the unique contribution of Cherokee culture and civilization such as Sequoyah's development of the Cherokee syllabary Brown commemorates the numerous Civil War sites throughout the region but he also includes the service of East Tennesseans in later wars One marker commemorates Kiffin Yates Rockwell a founding pilot of the Lafayette Escadrille a famed squadron of aviators in World War I Another marker details the achievements of Sgt Elbert L Kinser of Greene County who was posthumously decorated for his leadership of a First Marine Division Rifle Platoon on Okinawa The markers also showcase East Tennessee's unique political history They tell the story of the lost state of Franklin in the 1780s and record the region's efforts to secede from the state when Tennessee left the Union in 1861 Brown's narrative also explains the nature of opposing political factions throughout the decades through the biographies of their leaders such as Elihu Embree a Quaker abolitionist who founded an antislavery paper in East Tennessee From the vantage of the armchair or out on the road Marking Time is a surprising and engaging trip on the byways of East Tennessee's politics culture and history through the stories of the men and women who shaped the state      Confederate General R.S. Ewell Paul D. Casdorph, 2014-07-15 Richard Stoddert Ewell is best known as the Confederate General selected by Robert E Lee to replace Stonewall Jackson as chief of the Second Corps in the Army of Northern Virginia Ewell is also remembered as the general who failed to drive Federal troops from the high ground of Cemetery Hill and Culp's Hill during the Battle of Gettysburg Many historians believe that Ewell's inaction cost the Confederates a victory in this seminal battle and ultimately cost the Civil War During his long military career Ewell was never an aggressive warrior He graduated from West Point and served in the Indian wars in Oklahoma Kansas New Mexico and Arizona In 1861 he resigned his commission in the U S Army and rushed to the Confederate standard Ewell saw action at First Manassas and took up divisional command under Jackson in the Shenandoah Valley Campaign and in the Seven Days Battles around Richmond A crippling wound and a leg amputation soon compounded the persistent manic depressive disorder that had hindered his ability to make difficult decisions on the battlefield When Lee reorganized the Army of Northern Virginia in May of 1863 Ewell was promoted to lieutenant general At the same time he married a widowed first cousin who came to dominate his life often to the disgust of his subordinate officers and he became heavily influenced by the wave of religious fervor that was then sweeping through the Confederate Army In Confederate General R S Ewell Paul D Casdorff offers a fresh portrait of a major but deeply flawed figure in the Confederate war effort examining the pattern of hesitancy and indecisiveness that characterized Ewell s entire military career This definitive biography probes the crucial question of why Lee selected such an obviously inconsistent and unreliable commander to lead one third of his army on the eve of the Gettysburg Campaign Casdorff describes Ewell s intriguing life and career with penetrating insights into his loyalty to the Confederate cause and the Virginia ties that kept him in Lee s favor for much of the war Complete with riveting descriptions of key battles Ewell s biography is essential reading for Civil War historians

The Destructive War Charles Royster,2011-09-14 From the moment the Civil War began partisans on both sides were calling not just for victory but for extermination And both sides found leaders who would oblige In this vivid and fearfully persuasive book Charles Royster looks at William Tecumseh Sherman and Stonewall Jackson the men who came to embody the apocalyptic passions of North and South and re creates their characters their strategies and the feelings they inspired in their countrymen At once an incisive dual biography hypnotically engrossing military history and a cautionary examination of the American penchant for patriotic bloodshed The Destructive War is a work of enormous power The Tennessee
