Tenants Complaints The Reform Of Ho:

The Tithe War in England and Wales, 1881-1936 John Bulaitis, 2024 Brings to life a fascinating page of history in a scholarly but highly readable account of the tithe war Co WINNER 2025 Thirsk Prize British Agricultural History Society During the 1930s farming communities waged a campaign of passive resistance against Tithe Rentcharge the modern version of medieval tithe Led by the National Tithepayers Association farmers refused to pay the charge disrupted auctions of seized stock and joined demonstrations to prevent action by bailiffs The National Government condemned their unconstitutional action ruled out changes in the law and mobilised police to support the titheowners Meanwhile the Church of England and lay titheowners including Oxford and Cambridge colleges public schools and major landowners sought to vindicate their right to tithe in a particularly shameful episode the Church established a secret company to buy taken produce and remove it from farms This tithe war was fought outside farms in the courts in the press and in the wider arena of public opinion It posed problems for the Church legal system and every political party split the National Farmers Union and provided opportunities for the British Union of Fascists and other sections of the extreme right to cause disturbance Drawing on extensive archival research accounts in local newspapers and private papers John Bulaitis traces the evolution of what has been described as this curious rural revolt from the late nineteenth century to its climax in 1936 when the Tithe Act brought an end to this form of tax The speeches in both houses of parliament, on the question of reform in the representation of the people

Parliament proc, Will. iv, 1832 The Nineteenth Century, 1879 The Reform Advocate, 1926 A Power in the World Lorenz Gonschor, 2019-06-30 Few people today know that in the nineteenth century Hawai i was not only an internationally recognized independent nation but played a crucial role in the entire Pacific region and left an important legacy throughout Oceania As the first non Western state to gain full recognition as a coequal of the Western powers yet at the same time grounded in indigenous tradition and identity the Hawaiian Kingdom occupied a unique position in the late nineteenth century world order From this position Hawai i s leaders were able to promote the building of independent states based on their country s model throughout the Pacific envisioning the region to become politically unified Such a pan Oceanian polity would be able to withstand foreign colonialism and become in the words of one of the idea s pioneers a Power in the World After being developed over three decades among both native and non native intellectuals close to the Hawaiian court King Kal kaua s government started implementing this vision in 1887 by concluding a treaty of confederation with S moa a first step toward a larger Hawaiian led pan Oceanian federation Political unrest and Western imperialist interference in both Hawai i and S moa prevented the project from advancing further at the time and a long interlude of colonialism and occupation has obscured its legacy for over a century Nonetheless it remains an inspiring historical precedent for movements toward greater political and economic integration in the Pacific Islands region today Lorenz Gonschor examines two intertwined historical processes The development of a Hawai i based pan Oceanian policy and underlying ideology which in turn provided the rationale for the second process the spread of the Hawaiian Kingdom's constitutional model to other Pacific archipelagos. He argues that the legacy of this visionary policy is today re-emerging in the form of two interconnected movements: namely a growing movement in Hawaii to reclaim its legacy as Oceania's historically leading nation-state on one hand and an increasingly assertive Oceanian regionalism emanating mainly from Fiji and other postcolonial states in the Southwestern Pacific on the other. As a historical reference for both nineteenth-century Hawaiian policy serves as an inspiration and guideline for envisioning de-colonial futures for the Pacific region.
