Daruvala South-East Asia Division (COUNCIL ON WORLD TENSIONS), J. C. DARUVALA, University of Bombay, 1961 Tension of Economic Development in Southeast Asia J C. Daruvala, 1962 Environmental Politics and Governance in Southeast Asia Syed Mohammed Ad'ha Aljunied, 2025-10-02 In this book Aljunied analyses how ASEAN and its key maritime member states of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia govern environmental issues through strategic engagements with social forces In the new millennium ASEAN states power is enhanced and solidified through regulatory statehood strategic renewal and moral ideology in order to subdue civil resistance while managing non traditional security threats Through a comparative analysis of Southeast Asia this book highlights how state capitalist society relations are shaped by politics of scale and social conflict in order to reinforce authoritarianism and intensify capitalism development agendas at the expense of environmental preservation With this the book explores how civil society challenge and are suppressed by state power at national and regional platforms A pioneering scholarly work this book represents a major contribution to the intersection between political science environmental governance and Southeast Asian Studies by offering rich theoretical and empirical insights into the dynamics of state capitalist society relations in an era of global environmental crisis Contemporary Conflicts in Southeast Asia Mikio Oishi, 2015-11-30 This book looks at major contemporary conflicts intra and interstate in Southeast Asia from a conflict management perspective Starting with the view that the conventional ASEAN conflict management methods have ceased to be effective it looks for new conflict management patterns and trends by investigating seven contemporary cases of conflict in the region Focusing on the incompatibilities involved in each case and examining how they have been managed whether by integration co existence elimination or maneuvering around the conflict the book sheds new light on the significance of managing conflict in achieving and maintaining the stability of the Southeast Asian region It makes a significant theoretical contribution to the field of peace and conflict studies by proposing the concept of mediation regime as the key to understanding current conflict management within ASEAN Problems and prospects of development, cooperation, voluntaryism, communication, social tensions and weaker sections in rural India S. N. Pawar, Rajendra B. Patil, 1994 The Scars of Southeast Asia: Understanding the Human Toll of Conflict Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-19 In the annals of history the Vietnam War stands as a somber reminder of the devastating consequences of war and the complexities of international conflicts This comprehensive book delves into the depths of this tumultuous period shedding light on the historical political and human dimensions of the war that deeply scarred Southeast Asia and reverberated across the globe

The book begins by examining the roots of the conflict tracing its origins to the aftermath of World War II and the subsequent division of Vietnam along the 17th parallel It explores the ideological clashes and regional tensions that fueled the war as well as the role of the United States and its domino theory in escalating the conflict With meticulous research and poignant storytelling the book delves into the human cost of the war It unveils the staggering civilian casualties the destruction of infrastructure and the lasting legacy of suffering caused by the indiscriminate use of chemical weapons The plight of refugees displaced from their homes and seeking asylum in foreign lands is also brought to light The book also examines the anti war movement that gained momentum during the conflict It highlights the protests demonstrations and acts of civil disobedience that challenged the government's narrative and called for an end to the war These movements reflected a growing disillusionment with the conduct of the war and its heavy human toll The fall of Saigon in 1975 marked a turning point in the war leading to the reunification of Vietnam under communist rule However the legacy of the war extended far beyond the battlefield The book explores the impact of the war on the United States leading to a period of soul searching and re evaluation of its role in international affairs and the limits of military intervention Through a multidisciplinary approach this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the Vietnam War It illuminates the complexities of the conflict its causes consequences and enduring impact contributing to a more nuanced understanding of this chapter in history This book is an essential resource for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the Vietnam War and its profound implications on Southeast Asia and the world If you like this book write a review

Post-Conflict Development in East Asia Brendan M. Howe, 2016-04-08 East Asia is a region deeply affected by conflict Colonial ideological and national wars have left their scars and legacies on regional international and national governance Yet East Asian post conflict development experiences have been viewed as remarkably successful The three largest economies of East Asia Japan China and South Korea have all experienced dramatic growth but immediately prior to their periods of expansion all experienced the devastating impacts of international conflicts and or civil upheaval These post conflict development success stories do not however tell the whole tale Other states in East Asia and in particular certain regions within some of these states while apparently emerging from similar conflictual backgrounds have experienced far less positive transitions This volume critically assesses measurements of success in East Asian post conflict development from a human centered perspective This involves a major re evaluation of accepted accounts of domestic governance and international relations in East Asia from both a comparative and interdisciplinary viewpoint Case study rich this volume provides policy prescriptions for East Asian donors and actors in an effort to provide Asian solutions for Asian problems

Diversity and Development in Southeast Asia Guy J. Pauker, Frank H. Golay, Cynthia H. Enloe, 1977 Monograph discussing future problems relating to trends in economic and social development regional cooperation and interethnic relations in South East Asia considers relationships between national level economic policies and economic integration objectives incl The role of ASEAN and political problems particularly social conflict among ethnic groups and increasing political power in Viet Nam and Indonesia etc and comments on the North South dialogue and the new international economic order References and statistical tables      Comparative Politics of Southeast Asia Aurel Croissant, 2022-09-01 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the political systems of all ASEAN countries and Timor Leste from a comparative perspective It investigates the political institutions actors and processes in eleven states covering democracies as well as autocratic regimes Each country study includes an analysis of the current system of governance the party and electoral system and an assessment of the state its legal system and administrative bodies Students of political science and area studies also learn about processes of democratic transition and autocratic resilience as well as how civil society and the media influence the political culture in each country This second edition features revised and updated versions of all country studies and a new chapter that discusses the trends of democratization and autocratization in Southeast Asia in the late 20th and early 21st centuries      Managing Conflicts in a Globalizing ASEAN Mikio Oishi, 2019-11-11 This book investigates the patterns of conflict management in contemporary Southeast Asia The region has long been characterized by the twin process of state formation and nation building which has been responsible for most of the region's intrastate and interstate conflicts While this process is still ongoing regional conflicts and their management are increasingly affected by globalisation which not only serves as a new source of or exacerbating factor to conflict but also makes new instruments available for conflict management Employing the concepts of incompatibility management and mediation regime the book analyses the management of seven conflicts in the region the Rohingya crisis and the Kachin conflict in Myanmar the Khmer Krom conflict in Vietnam the West Papua conflict in Indonesia the political conflict in Thailand the Mekong River conflicts involving five Southeast Asian countries and China and the transboundary haze problem emanating from Indonesia The efforts to manage each of them are imagined as constituting a mediation regime and its effectiveness is assessed in terms of good governance Among the findings of the book is that the measures of manoeuvring around incompatibilities are employed predominantly in managing regional conflicts In intrastate conflicts which mostly involve ethnic minorities the authorities first aim to eliminate or impose its own position on ethnic parties When this strategy proves unsuccessful they have no choice but manoeuvre around incompatibilities which may eventually open up a space for mutual learning In interstate conflicts the manoeuvring around strategy works in a more straightforward manner contributing to regional stability However the stability is achieved at the cost of local communities and the natural environment which absorb the incompatibilities in conflict      Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2014-03-26 In this third edition of Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya offers a comprehensive and critical account of the evolution of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN norms and the viability of the ASEAN way of conflict management Building on the framework from the first edition which inspired the establishment of the ASEAN Political Security community this new edition has been extensively updated and revised based on new primary sources that are not publicly available Updates for this edition include Expanded and updated coverage of the South China Sea Conflict and how it affects regional order and tests ASEAN unity Analysis of new developments in the US role in the region including ASEAN's place and role in the US pivot rebalancing strategy and the evolution of the East Asian Community the newest summit level multilateral group Extensive analysis of the ASEAN Political Security community An examination of US China relations and China ASEAN relations Coverage of ASEAN's institutional development and the controversy over reform of the ASEAN Secretariat An updated outlook on ASEAN's future as a security community and the issue of ASEAN Centrality in the regional security architecture The new edition will continue to appeal to students and scholars of Asian security international relations theory and Southeast Asian studies as well as policymakers and the media

Economic Growth and Development in the Tropics Sook Rei Tan, Haejin Jang, Jacob Wood, 2024-02-06 The living standards and scale of development around the world are vastly unequal One notable observation is that much of the poverty stricken area is located between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn By contrast affluent nations are situated in more temperate zones Such a phenomenon gives weight to the geography hypothesis that seeks to explain the occurrence of global economic inequality by placing an emphasis on the importance of natural elements such as location and climate in determining the economic conditions of a nation This book concentrates exclusively and in depth on the key economic phenomena and factors which shape tropical economies today It examines contemporary economic problems confronting the tropical countries and provides policy recommendations that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals set in the 2030 Agenda It contains research works and case studies of tropical economies that are related to the area of development and environment economics The book's themes range from economic growth poverty reduction income inequality economic globalization international trade capital flow financial development and institutional development to environmental sustainability within the Tropics Recognizing the dynamism and diversity of the tropics the book encompasses empirical and policy analyses that address the key economic issues and challenges in the region so as to provide an important platform from which new policymaking initiatives can flourish This book will draw readership primarily from the fields of economics and public policy particularly under the subject areas of development and environment economics as well as discussions in the sustainability policy space

The International Relations of Japan and South East Asia Sueo Sudo, 2013-01-11 The International Relations of Japan and South East Asia asks three main questions how and when has a new South East Asian regionalism been set in motion what is the nature of Japanese leadership and networking in maintaining and promoting that new regionalism and given the current economic and political crisis what will happen to regionalism in the future This work is an invaluable resource for students and scholars as it gives a complete overview of Japanese foreign policy and Japan South East Asian relations
