Terra Lucida:

Terra Lucida Joseph Donahue, 1999-08-01 A Miracle for Our Time Lona Truding, 1994 Inspired by the teachings of Rudolf Steiner Lona Truding presents a mature study of esoteric Christian philosophy She begins with the primordial Garden of Eden and then examines the missions of Christian Rosenkreutz Mani Joan of Arc St Paul St Francis and Raphael She then contemplates the mysterious acts of healing performed by Christ as described in the Gospels The author ends with an examination of the Christian core of Steiner's Philosophy of Spiritual Activity Intuitive Thinking as a Spiritual Path Terra Lucida Joseph Donahue, 2009 Poetry TERRA LUCIDA Joseph Donahue's ongoing magnum opus is an astonishing work in which psychopompic dispatch and apocalyptic portent by turns audacious and distraught mix worldly exactitude with vatic unrest Striking in its range and compression its culling of contemporary grist and archaic light its reportorial tone's melodic reach it allies an unforced unforced spirituality with sifting intelligence of the severest kind Long awaited volume one is a beautiful bracing desert island book Nathaniel Mackey Like a Dark Rabbi Norman Finkelstein, 2019-09-15 Wallace Stevens dark rabbi from his poem Le Monocle de Mon Oncle provides a title for this collection of essays on the lordly study of modern Jewish poetry in English Including chapters on such poets as Charles Reznikoff Allen Grossman Chana Bloch and Michael Heller this volume explores the tensions between religious and secular worldviews in recent Jewish poetry the often conflicted linguistic and cultural matrix from which this poetry arises and the complicated ways in which Jewish tradition shapes the sensibilities of not only Jewish but also non Jewish poets Finkelstein described as one of American poetry's indispensable makers Lawrence Joseph whose previous critical work has been called the exemplary study of the religious aspect of the works of contemporary American poets Peter O Leary considers large literary and cultural trends while never losing sight of the particular formal powers of individual poems In Like a Dark Rabbi he offers a passionate argument for the importance of Jewish American poetry to modern Jewish culture and to American poetry as it engages with the contradictions of contemporary life Alchymy Hermann Beckh, 2019-10-23 As a practising Christian priest Hermann Beckh was profoundly aware that the mystery of substance its transmutation in the cosmos and the human being was a mystical fact to be approached with the greatest reverence requiring at once ever deepening scholarship and meditation He viewed chemistry as a worthy but materialistic science devoid of spirit while the fullness of spiritual physical nature could be approached by what he preferred to call chymistry or alchymy thereby taking in millennia of spiritual tradition In consequence Beckh's Alchymy The Mystery of the Material World is not limited to the conventional workings of Western alchemy nor to what can be found in the Bible from Genesis to Revelation although he does unveil hidden riches there Neither should Beckh be considered only as a learned Professor with impeccable academic qualifications and European wide recognition Beckh writes about such topics as Isis the Golden Fleece traditional fairy stories and Wagner's Parsifal in a way that enables the reader to catch glimpses of the Mystery of Substance to share the writer's authentic experience of the divine

substantia the living reality of Christ in the world Beckh's Alchymy set an entirely new standard and went on to become his most popular publication This is the first time that it has been translated into English along with updated footnotes making his ideas and insights accessible to a wide readership In addition this edition features translations of Beckh's The New Jerusalem where theology could best be expressed in verse his exemplary essay on Snow white observations on Allerleirauh and a substantial excerpt from Gundhild Kaer Bock's biography of Beckh

Thick and Dazzling Darkness Peter O'Leary, 2017-11-21 How do poets use language to render the transcendent often dizzyingly inexpressible nature of the divine In an age of secularism does spirituality have a place in modern American poetry In Thick and Dazzling Darkness Peter O'Leary reads a diverse set of writers to argue for the existence and importance of religious poetry in twentieth and twenty first century American literature He traces a poetic genealogy that begins with Whitman and Dickinson and continues in the work of contemporary writers to illuminate an often obscured but still central spiritual impulse that has shaped the production and imagination of American poetry O'Leary presents close and comprehensive readings of the modernist late modernist and postmodern poets Robinson Jeffers Frank Samperi and Robert Duncan as well as the contemporary poets Joseph Donahue Geoffrey Hill Fanny Howe Nathaniel Mackey Pam Rehm and Lissa Wolsak Examining how these poets drew on a variety of traditions including Catholicism Gnosticism the Kabbalah and mysticism the book considers how modern and contemporary poets have articulated the spiritual in their work O'Leary also argues that an anxiety of misunderstanding exists in the study and writing of poetry between secular and religious impulses and that the religious nature of poets works is too often marginalized or misunderstood Examining the works of a specific poet in each chapter O'Leary reveals their complexity and offers a defense of the value and meaning of religious poetry against the grain of a secular society

Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies, Senior Research Fellow in the Centre for Commercial Law Paul Davies, 1998-02-15 Spiritual quest is at the very heart of poetry but in the materialistic climate of the late twentieth century this has been almost forgotten even by those claiming to be experts in interpreting literature How does the worldview common to the main esoteric traditions of East and West correspond to the aims of such Romantic poets as Shelley Keats Blake Coleridge and Wordsworth In Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies maintains that only in the light of the spiritual teachings of these traditions can the poetry and thinking of the Romantics be understood as they intended This is one of the first books to connect the creative nature of poetry to the core teachings of the esoteric tradition and thereby to bring out the true meaning of several Romantic writers whose works have been trivialized by a culture that has marginalized the spiritual and tied itself to material historical and social issues The author also shows that the Romantics were the first Western poets to imagine the relationship of the self to the environment as personal encounter In this sense the Romantics were recalling a long held secret of the esoteric human sciences not inventing a new one This book brings the deepest interests of the Romantics directly into contact with issues closest to present day students of the spiritual traditions and holistic perspectives

The Mysterious Story of X7 Anonymous, 2011-06-28 Between 1953 and 1957 a group of political prisoners codenamed X7 were incarcerated in a Siberian salt mine They linked up telepathically with the Network of Light groups of psychics stationed worldwide and transmitted their story Trapped for years deep in the earth they began to refine the vibratory rate of the body and of surrounding matter until they could experience themselves as beings of Light and experience Earth itself as Light Their transmissions were transcribed by gifted American psychic Anne Edwards future cofounder of the Scottish spiritual community Findhorn In the 1970s Edwards reports fell into the hands of British New Age leader Sir George Trevelyan whose publication of them stirred up controversy in both mainstream and alternative communities In this new edition Robert Sardello not only explains the spiritual significance of these esoteric writings but also guides readers through a process much like that described in the book Sardello's commentary enables readers to use the book as a guide to a path for transforming humankind and the earth and argues persuasively that enacting this process at this moment in human history is crucial to survival and transcendence History Of Islamic Philosophy Henry Corbin, 2014-06-23 First published in 1993 Published here for the first time in English this highly important work by Henry Corbin the Islamic scholar philosopher and historian of religion is a definitive interpretation of traditional Islamic philosophy from the beginning to the present day In this authoritative volume Corbin makes clear the great themes of the doctrinal and mystical vision of Islamic philosophy through a wealth of comparative parallels and in relation to the most profound currents of Western philosophy In Part One From the Beginning Down to the Death of Averroes Corbin considers the Sources of Philosophical Meditation in Islam Shiism and Prophetic Philosophy the Sunni Kalam Philosophy and the Natural Sciences the Hellenizing Philosophers Sufism Al Suhrawardi and the Philosophy of Light and the Andalusian Tradition In Part Two From the Death of Averroes to the Present Day he examines Sunni Thought the Metaphysics of Sufism and Shiite Thought Corbin's History of Islamic Philosophy is both an inspirational book and an essential work of reference enabling readers to discover themselves the richness of this body of thought Spiritual Body and Celestial Earth Henry Corbin, 1989-08-21 This is a translation of 11 traditional texts of Iranian Islam from the 12th century to the present with 100 pages of introduction by Professor Corbin Reading this book is an adventure in a beautiful alien land again and again experiencing sudden pangs of recognition of the deeply familiar among the totally exotic The Journal of Analytical Psychology Lightning Print On Demand Title Nathaniel Mackey, Destination Out Jeanne Heuving, 2021-06-01 In this first book of essays devoted entirely to Nathaniel Mackey's work prominent critics respond to a major oeuvre that is at once affirmative and utopic negational and dystopic Drawing on multiple genealogies and traditions primarily from African and African diaspora histories and cultures Mackey's work envisions cultural creation as cross cultural based in the damaging relationships of Africans brought against their will to the Americas and the resulting innovations of New World African literatures and music This collection is organized through broad topics in order to provide entrances into his challenging work myth literature and seriality music performance and collaboration syncretism synopsis and what saying It engages Mackey's spiritual and esoteric disposition along with his attention to what Amiri Baraka called the enraged sociologies of Black music In his manifesto Destination Out Mackey describes his work as wanting to bid all givens goodbye and as centrifugal It is also centripetal manifesting a reflexive interiority that creates itself through recurring forms Contributors Maria Damon Joseph Donahue Rachel Blau DuPlessis Norman Finkelstein Luke Harley Paul Jaussen Adalaide Morris Fred Moten Peter O Leary Anthony Reed Acts of the Heart Robert Sardello, 2011-10 Reading through this volume is to be taken on a journey It is to walk with Robert Sardello on his journey as he pushes forward toward new realities In a sense each step is not so easy The thinking often appears dense the ideas often new and therefore disconcerting But each individual piece as the whole is bathed in an aura in a way we may say it is bathed in soul in love in generosity and friendship Attending to these we find the ideas and the new possibilities begin to make sense We are moved to change our lives Christopher Bamford from his introduction In these introductions Robert Sardello introduces us to many people we may not otherwise have met and introduces us to many ways of being and thinking which we didn't know before The range of those we meet in these pages is staggering At the same time there is a sweet harmony and ever unfolding deepening of a single theme Miraculously it pervades and shapes the entire sequence of those whom he presents even though he often wrote in response to a request and not initially on his own initiative Robert writes of matters with which he has made a deep friendship and out of that friendship he has received and participated in a communion of ideas He is able to do this because he has entered the aspiration of those he is introducing at the deepest level making their insights his own and deepening them in his own way An introduction conveys a particular soul capacity For Robert Sardello soul capacities are of the essence of what he calls Spiritual Psychology Together with the worlds and beings to which they correspond it is such capacities that make us human and enable us to fulfill our human tasks Reading these introductions is an astonishing experience Within their short individual compasses they allow us to participate in Robert's own journey to catch as it were the bird in flight and fly with it That is they map his journey at least that portion of it that began to unfold as his destiny began to crystallize Robert Sardello's insights navigate many hazardous abstractions from the so called New Age through the perennial philosophies With Sophia as his muse the current from the future calls him carrying its many imaginations as energy the always immediate now and the truly new Across these authors writings his visionary perspective deepens in dialogue with the different works as authored beings For writings possess their own spirit or how otherwise do they engender a unique spirit when reborn within our own imagination Scott R Scribner from his introduction Temple & Contemplation Henry Corbin, 2013-10-28 First published in 1986 This volume brings together five lectures which were originally delivered at different sessions of the famous Eranos Conferences in Ascona Switzerland Henry Corbin himself had outlined the plan for this book whose title suggests that these diverse studies converge on a common spiritual centre
