MotorBoating ,2011-07 Hero on a Honda Anthony Richard Farmer,2012-12-19 As an adult I knew I would have to visit India the place of my birth My father was a British Indian Army Officer and my mother the daughter of a soldier was brought to India when she was 20 months old She left India in 1947 married and with her two children making a hurried exit before the partition of India I have always felt I had India in my blood My first breath sound taste touch and sight were of India In March 2012 in my 67th year I set off on a return journey not as a tourist but as an observer of India as a prodigal son I wanted to immerse myself in the culture What I found was a country and a people with which I felt completely at home I basked in the inclusivity and generosity I received I saw a country on the brink of great change as it collides with the 21st century

Hero on a Honda is a collection of observations and an informal account of my adventures in Rajasthan and Gujarat
