The Habit Of Happiness Exploring The Beatitudes:

Life in the Image of God Ronald C. Calhoun, 2013-09-06 The King has come The God of love planned reconciliation and transformation for the people he created He planned liberation from bondage for all creation through the life death and resurrected life of his Son Jesus Christ Jesus the King has come He has inaugurated the kingdom The Sermon on the Mount Matt 57 is the constitution of that kingdom The constitution is intended to make Christlike disciples The central dynamic of the constitution is godlike love and is based on his grace The Sermon begins with the essence of character which is the foundation of all relationships and conduct Who we are determines the influence we have and controls our conduct Our conduct is based on right relationships with God others self and the material world The Sermon is practical dealing with every aspect of life Our relationship with God is to be one of reverence and self discipline Our relationship to possessions calls for rejection of slavery to those possessions and to worry In relationship to self we must avoid destructive criticism and exercise discernment Many areas are discussed in our relationship to others such as murder sex retaliation and more Join me in the study of the kingdom constitution as it reveals how to live life in the image of God All who will may become a part of the kingdom by offering full allegiance to the King and by living life by the rule of godlike love Catalog of Copyright
