The Intimate Critique Autobiographical Literary Criticism:

The Intimate Critique Diane P. Freedman, Olivia Frey, Frances Murphy Zauhar, 1993 For a long time now readers and scholars have strained against the limits of traditional literary criticism whose precepts above all objectivity seem to have so little to do with the highly personal and deeply felt experience of literature The Intimate Critique marks a movement away from this tradition With their rich spectrum of personal and passionate voices these essays challenge and ultimately breach the boundaries between criticism and narrative experience and expression literature and life Grounded in feminism and connected to the race class and gender paradigms in cultural studies the twenty six contributors to this volume including Jane Tompkins Henry Louis Gates Jr Shirley Nelson Garner and Shirley Geok Lin Lim respond in new refreshing ways to literary subjects ranging from Homer to Freud Middlemarch to The Woman Warrior Shiva Naipaul to Frederick Douglass Revealing the beliefs and formative life experiences that inform their essays these writers characteristically recount the process by which their opinions took shape a process as conducive to self discovery as it is to critical insight The result which has been referred to as personal writing experimental critical writing or intellectual autobiography maps a dramatic change in the direction of literary criticism Contributors Julia Balen Dana Beckelman Ellen Brown Sandra M Brown Rosanne Kanhai Brunton Suzanne Bunkers Peter Carlton Brenda Daly Victoria Ekanger Diane P Freedman Olivia Frey Shirley Nelson Garner Henry Louis Gates Jr Melody Graulich Gail Griffin Dolan Hubbard Kendall Susan Koppelman Shirley Geok Lin Lim Linda Robertson Carol Taylor Jane Tompkins Cheryl Torsney Trace Yamamoto Frances Murphy Zauhar

Handbook for Biblical Interpretation W. Randolph Tate, 2012-11-01 This handbook provides a comprehensive guide to methods terms and concepts used by biblical interpreters It offers students and non specialists an accessible resource for understanding the complex vocabulary that accompanies serious biblical studies Articles arranged alphabetically explain terminology associated with reading the Bible as literature clarify the various methods Bible scholars use to study biblical texts and illuminate how different interpretive approaches can contribute to our understanding Article references and topical bibliographies point readers to resources for further study This handbook now updated and revised to be even more useful for students was previously published as Interpreting the Bible A Handbook of Terms and Methods It is a suitable complement to any standard hermeneutics textbook

Biblical Interpretation W. Randolph Tate, 2008-05-01 This comprehensive exploration of the interpretive process now available in paperback has served as a successful textbook It focuses on the three worlds of biblical interpretation the world of the author the world of the text and the world of the reader to help students develop an integrated hermeneutical strategy The book offers clear explanations of interpretive approaches which are supported by helpful biblical examples and succinct synopses of various interpretive methods Pedagogical aids include end of chapter review and study sections with key terms study questions and suggestions for further reading

American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s Vincent B. Leitch, 2009-09-10 American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s fully updates Vincent B Leitch's classic book American Literary Criticism from the 30s to the 80s following the development of the American academy right up to the present day Updated throughout and with a brand new chapter this second edition provides a critical history of American literary theory and practice discussing the impact of major schools and movements examines the social and cultural background to literary research considering the role of key theories and practices provides profiles of major figures and influential texts outlining the connections among theorists presents a new chapter on developments since the 1980s including discussions of feminist queer postcolonial and ethnic criticism Comprehensive and engaging this book offers a crucial overview of the development of literary studies in American universities and a springboard to further research for all those interested in the development and study of Literature

Selves in Dialogue Begoña Simal, 2011 Selves in Dialogue A Transethnic Approach to American Life Writing constitutes an explicit answer to the urgent call for a comparative study of American autobiography This collection of essays ostensibly intends to cut across cultural racial and or ethnic boundaries introducing the concept of transethnicity and arguing for its increasing validity in the ever changing field of American Studies Accordingly the comparative analysis in Selves in Dialogue is implemented not by juxtaposing essays that pay separate but equal attention to specific monoethnic or monocultural traditions as has been the usual strategy in book length publications of this sort but by critically engaging with two or more different traditions in every single essay Mixing rather than segregating The transethnic approach proposed in this collection does not imply erasing the very difference and diversity that makes American autobiographies all the more thrilling to read and study Group specific research of an intra ethnic nature should and will continue to thrive And yet the field of American Studies is now ready to indulge more freely and more knowledgeably in transethnic explorations of life writing in an attempt to delineate both the divergences and the similarities between the different autobiographies written in the US Because of its unusual perspective Selves in Dialogue can be of interest not only for specialists in life writing but also for those working in the larger fields of American Literature Ethnic Studies or American Studies

The Public Intellectualism of Ralph Waldo Emerson and W.E.B. Du Bois R. Schneider, 2010-03-01 In the first in depth study of the emotional dimensions of Du Bois's and Emerson's writings on public intellectualism reform and race Schneider offers a valuable and eloquent contribution to the critical tradition

Rhetoric, Scripture and Theology Stanley E. Porter, Thomas H. Olbricht, 1996-09-01 Rhetoric Scripture and Theology aptly describe the contents of this collection of essays from the 1994 Pretoria Rhetoric Conference The conference marked a significant dialogue among scholars gathered from many nations to consider how rhetoric engages with the study of scripture and theology South Africa provided a suitable context for such discussion Although the contributors are not only from South Africa the addressing of issues pertinent to a South African context shows through in many of the essays Those that do not address particularly South African issues raise equally important issues regarding the topic of rhetoric and its relation to contemporary theological discourse

Men and Masculinities in Christianity and Judaism Bjorn Krondorfer, 2013-02-12

Bjorn Krondorfer one of the leading scholars in this field has collected 35 key texts that have shaped this field within the wider area of the study of gender religion and culture The texts in this critical reader engage actively and critically with the position of men in society and church men s privileged relation to the sacred and to religious authority the ideals of masculinity as engendered by religious discourse and alternative trajectories of being in the world whether spiritually relationally or sexually Each of the texts is introduced by the editor and accompanied by bibliographies that make this the ideal tool for study

Women/Writing/Teaching Jan Zlotnik Schmidt,1998-01-01 Presents autobiographical visions of women writing teachers their intertwined lives as professionals feminists writers instructors and colleagues

Postmodernism and the Ethical Subject Barbara Gabriel,Suzan Ilcan,2004 This interdisciplinary study situates the recent interest in ethics within radical post modern shifts about knowledge and value

Rhetorical Refusals John Schilb,2007-11-20 The first book to explore rhetorical refusals instances in which speakers and writers deliberately flout the conventions of rhetoric and defy their audiences expectations Rhetorical Refusals Defying Audiences Expectations challenges the reader to view these acts of academic rebellion as worthy of deeper analysis than they are commonly accorded as rhetorical refusals can simultaneously reveal unspoken assumptions behind the very conventions they challenge while also presenting new rhetorical strategies Through a series of case studies John Schilb demonstrates the deeper meanings contained within rhetorical refusals when dance critic Arlene Croce refused to see a production that she wrote about when historian Deborah Lipstadt declined to debate Holocaust deniers when President Bill Clinton denied a grand jury answers to their questions and when Frederick Douglass refused to praise Abraham Lincoln unequivocally Each of these unexpected strategies revealed issues of much greater importance than the subjects at hand By carefully laying out an underlying framework with which to evaluate these acts Schilb shows that they can variously point to the undue privilege of authority the ownership of truth the illusory divide between public and private lives and the subjectivity of honor According to Schilb rhetorical refusals have the potential to help political discourse become more inventive To demonstrate this potential Schilb looks at some notable cases in which invitations have led to unexpected results comedian Stephen Colbert s brazen performance at the White House Press Association dinner poet Sharon Olds s refusal to attend the White House Book Fair and activist Cindy Sheehan s display of an anti war message at the 2006 State of the Union Address Rhetorical Refusals explores rhetorical theories in accessible language without sacrificing complexity and nuance revealing the unspoken implications of unexpected deviations from rhetorical norms for classic political concepts like free debate and national memory With case studies taken from art politics literature and history this book will appeal to scholars and students of English communication studies and history

Sentimental Readers Faye Halpern,2013-12-01 How could novels like Uncle Tom s Cabin change the hearts and minds of thousands of mid nineteenth century readers yet make so many modern readers cringe at their over the top tear filled scenes Sentimental Readers explains why sentimental rhetoric was so compelling to readers of that earlier era why its popularity waned in the latter part of the nineteenth century and why today it is generally characterized as overly emotional and artificial But author Faye Halpern also does more she demonstrates that this now despised rhetoric remains relevant to contemporary writing teachers and literary scholars Halpern examines these novels with a fresh eye by positioning sentimentality as a rhetorical strategy on the part of these novels mostly female authors who used it to answer a question that plagued the male dominated world of nineteenth century American rhetoric and oratory how could listeners be sure an eloquent speaker wasn't unscrupulously persuading them of an untruth The authors of sentimental novels managed to solve this problem even as the professional male rhetoricians and orators could not because sentimental rhetoric filled with tears and other physical cues of earnestness ensured that an audience could trust the heroes and heroines of these novels However as a wider range of authors began wielding sentimental rhetoric later in the nineteenth century readers found themselves less and less convinced by this strategy In her final discussion Halpern steps beyond a purely historical analysis to interrogate contemporary rhetoric and reading practices among literature professors and their students particularly first year students new to the close reading method advocated and taught in most college English classrooms Doing so allows her to investigate how sentimental novels are understood today by both groups and how these contemporary reading strategies compare to those of Americans more than a century ago Clearly sentimental novels still have something to teach us about how and why we read

(Per)mutations of Qohelet Jennifer L. Koosed, 2006-07-01 Per mutations of Qohelet explores the question Who is Qohelet Rather than peering behind or through the text to answer this question in terms of authorship Koosed analyzes the identity that is created through the words on the page The text is not a transparent medium connecting reader with author instead it is an opaque body it has weight substance skin Koosed begins with an analysis of the ways in which words construct identities and the reasons why words can affect us so profoundly relying primarily on the work of Judith Butler and Elaine Scarry She then explores autobiography and how the genre of autobiography as reconfigured by Roland Barthes and Jacques Derrida relates to Qohelet These two chapters then set the framework for what follows an analysis of the various bodily organs and sensations contained within the book of Qohelet The body is embedded in the text through the naming of body parts eye hand heart And this same body is encoded in form structure and syntax so that the text becomes a body with organs systems and even a life of its own The book is a body and the book speaks of bodies It speaks of the body's organs and senses it concerns itself with the pleasures and pains of the body the gendered body the dying body Finally the ritual body is highlighted in the final passage of this enigmatic book

Analyzing Literature-to-Film

Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom

Making Worlds Susan Hardy Aiken, Ann Brigham, Sallie A. Marston, Penny M. Waterstone, 2022-02-08 Making Worlds brings together thirty one distinguished feminist activists artists and scholars to address a series of questions that resonate with increasing urgency in our current global environment How is space imagined represented arranged and distributed What are the lived consequences of these configurations And how are these questions affected by gender and other socially constructed categories of difference race ethnicity sexuality class nationality How are the symbolic formations of place and space marked by cultural ideologies that carry across into the places and spaces we inhabit the boundaries and institutions we maintain In recent years these questions have occasioned intensifying debates but they have seldom extended beyond the boundaries of individual academic disciplines or crossed the divide that has traditionally separated the academy from the outside world Making Worlds both questions and traverses those divisions by combining personal essays activist political rhetoric oral history poetry iconography and performance art with interdisciplinary academic discourses Representing a wide range of perspectives Making Worlds develops a provocative conversation about gender and spatiality in the interwoven symbolic and material environments we create The contributors engage such issues as the body as site of symbolic action fabrication and desire the place and play of sexualities the cultural implications of everyday life home travel work childbirth food disease and death technology and mass media surveillance confinement and the law the dynamics of race and ethnicity imperialism oppression and resistance the politics of urban spaces landscape and cultural memory the experience of time and the nature of Nature For students and scholars in cultural studies geography literary criticism anthropology history and women s studies it offers new ways of thinking about space place and the spatial contexts of social thought and action

Textual Intimacy Wesley A. Kort, 2012-05-23 Given its affinity with questions of identity autobiography offers a way into the interior space between author and reader especially when writers define themselves in terms of religion In his exploration of this textual intimacy Wesley Kort begins with a theorization of what it means to say who one is and how one s self account as a religious person stands in relation to other forms of self identification He then provides a critical analysis of autobiographical texts by nine contemporary American writers including Maya Angelou Philip Roth and Anne Lamott who give religion a positive place in their accounts of who they are Finally in disclosing his own religious identity Kort concludes with a meditation on several meanings of the word assumption

Women Writing Fancy Maura Smyth, 2017-07-11 This book brings to the foreground the largely forgotten Fancy of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and follows its traces as they extend into the nineteenth and twentieth Trivialized for its flightiness and femininity Fancy nonetheless provided seventeenth and eighteenth century women writers such as Margaret Cavendish Aphra Behn Delarivier Manley Eliza Haywood and Anna Barbauld a mode of vision that could detect flaws in the Enlightenment's patriarchal systems and glimpse new female authored worlds and genres In carving out unreal fanciful spaces within the larger frame of patriarchal culture these women writers planted Fancy and with it female authorial invention at the cornerstone of Enlightenment empirical endeavor By finally taking Fancy seriously this book offers an alternate genealogy of female authorship and a new framework for understanding modernity's triumph

Roads Not Taken Earl J. Wilcox, Jonathan N. Barron, 2000 In Roads Not Taken Earl J Wilcox and Jonathan N Barron bring a new freshness and depth to the study of one of America's greatest poets While some critics discounted Frost as a poet without technical skill rhetorical complexity or intellectual depth over the past decade scholars have begun to view Robert Frost's work from many new perspectives Critical hermeneutics cultural studies feminism postmodernism and textual editing all have had their impact on readings of the poet's life and work This collection of essays is the first to account for the variety of these new perceptions

Reading Communities from Salons to Cyberspace DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2011-08-25 Reading is both a social process and a social formation as this book illustrates across centuries and cultural contexts Highlighting links evident in reading communities from literary salons to online environments each essay reflects the rich repertoire of research methods available to reading scholars
