The Inward Turn Of Narrative Like New Paperback:

The Inward Turn of Narrative Erich Kahler, 2017-03-21 Erich Kahler sees cultural history as a subtle process in which reality plays upon consciousness and consciousness itself is forever transforming reality He traces the ebb and flow of this relationship by studying changes in narrative form from its beginnings in the Gilgamesh Cycle to the end of the eighteenth century The general direction is toward a growing inwardness he finds what takes place is an expansion of consciousness as man constantly draws outer space the contents of a more and more complex world into what Rilke called Weltinnenraum inner space Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Poetics of Revelation Diana Culbertson, 1989-06 Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture

Key Concepts in Modernist Literature Julian Hanna, Martin Coyle, 2008-11-24 Introducing the dynamic study of a literary period stretching from 1900 to the Second World War the book reflects the exciting mix of European avant garde writers of the Harlem Renaissance and regional voices within Britain Three distinct sections explore the major concepts themes and issues that characterise the literature

Responses to Modernity Joseph Frank, 2012 This book consists of essays and reviews that address social political and cultural issues which arose in connection with literature broadly conceived in the wake of the First World War and extending throughout the twentieth century The first portion of the volume concerns France with both essays on individual writers such as Paul Val ry Jacques Maritain Albert Camus Andr Malraux Jean Paul Sartre and Yves Bonnefoy and a piece on French intellectuals between the wars The second part concerns Germany and Romania with essays on Ernst Juenger Gottfried Benn Erich Kahler E M Cioran and others The volume concludes with essays on problems of literary criticism in dialogue with such critics as Gary Saul Morson Ian Watt T S Eliot and R P Blackmur These essays also discuss the history of the novel and the question of realism

Afterlife and Narrative in Contemporary Fiction Alice Bennett, 2012-07-06 Afterlife and Narrative explores why life after death is such a potent cultural concept today and why it is such an attractive prospect for modern fiction The book mines a rich vein of imagined afterlives from the temporal experiments of Martin Amis's Time's Arrow to narration from heaven in Alice Sebold's The Lovely Bones Bollingen William McGuire, 2020-09-01 This lively intimate sometimes disrespectful but always knowledgeable history of the Bollingen Foundation confirms its pervasive influence on American intellectual life Conceived by Paul and Mary Mellon as a means of publishing in English the collected works of C G Jung the Foundation broadened to encompass scholarship and publication in a remarkable number of fields Here are wonderful portraits of the central figures including the Mellons Jung himself Heinrich Zimmer Joseph Campbell D T Suzuki Natacha Rambova Vladimir Nabokov Gershom Scholem Herbert Read and Kurt and Helen Wolff The Library Journal Book Review, 1977 The New Century Book of Facts Carroll Davidson Wright, 1910 The Strategic Smorgasbord of

Postmodernity Deborah Bowen, 2011-05-25 Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline instead the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entries on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory Daniel Coleman Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies Department of English and Cultural Studies McMaster University Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways I do not know of a similar volume in existence a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate Susan VanZanten Gallagher Professor of English Director Center for Scholarship and Faculty Development Seattle Pacific University The New Covenant Sam B. Girgus, 1984 Girgus defines the American idea as the set of values beliefs and traditions of democracy equality and republicanism and argues that writers of the New Covenant tradition challenged society to live up to its own imperatives for individual and cultural renewal Abraham Cahan Anzi Yezierska Henry Roth Johanna Kaplan Philip Roth Norman Mailer Saul Bellow and E L Doctorow formed a new poetics to articulate a modern version of the myth and ideology of America Originally published in 1984 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Structure and Theme--Don Quixote to James Joyce Margaret Church,1983 Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt,2023-03-21 In Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt argues that late medieval dream poetry was able to use the tools of allegorical fiction to explore a set of complex philosophical questions regarding the nature of human knowledge The focus is on three of the most widely read and influential poems of the later Middle Ages Jean de Meun's Roman de la Rose the Pelerinages trilogy of Guillaume de Deguileville and William Langland's vision of Piers Plowman in its various versions All three poets grapple with a collection of shared closely related epistemological problems that emerged in Western Europe during the thirteenth century in the wake of the reception of the complete body of Aristotle's works on logic and the natural sciences This study therefore not only examines the intertextual and literary historical relations linking the work of the three poets but takes their shared interest in cognition and epistemology as a starting point to assess their wider cultural and intellectual significance in the context of broader developments in late medieval philosophy of mind knowledge and language Vernacular literature more broadly played an extremely important role in lending an enlarged cultural resonance to philosophical ideas developed by scholastic thinkers but it is also shown that allegorical narrative could prompt philosophical speculation on its own terms deliberately interrogating the dominance and authority of scholastic discourses and institutions by using first person fictional narrative as a tool for intellectual speculation

A History of English Autobiography Adam Smyth,2016-04-04 This History explores the genealogy of autobiographical writing in England from the medieval period to the digital era

What Is the Mishnah? Shaye J. D. Cohen,2023-03-07 The Mishnah is the foundational document of rabbinic Judaism rabbinic law is based on the Talmud which in turn is based on the Mishnah Yet its sources genre and purpose are obscure What Is the Mishnah collects papers by leading scholars from the United States Europe and Israel and gives a clear sense of the direction of Mishnah studies

Through the Window, Out the Door Janis P. Stout,2020-11-10 This informative and provocative study focuses on the centrality of departure in the texts of five major American women novelists An important moment in many novels and poems by American women writers occurs when a central character looks out a window or walks out the door of a house These acts of departure serve to convey such values as the rejection of constraining social patterns the search for individual fulfillment and the entry into the political Janis Stout examines such moments and related patterns of venture and travel in the fiction of five major American novelists of the 20th century Mary Austin Willa Cather Anne Tyler Toni Morrison and Joan Didion Stout views these five writers within a spectrum of narrative engagements with issues of home and departure a spectrum anchored at one end by Sarah Orne Jewett and at the other by Marilynne Robinson whose Housekeeping posits a vision of female transience Through the Window Out the Door ranges over an expansive territory Moving between texts as well as between texts and contexts Stout shows how women writers have envisioned the walls of physical and social structures including genres as permeable boundaries drawing on both a rhetoric of liberation and a rhetoric of domesticity to construct narrative arguments for women s right to move freely between the two Stout concludes with a personal essay on the dilemmas of domesticity and the ambivalence of departure Intermediality, Life Writing, and American Studies Nassim Winnie Balestrini, Ina Bergmann, 2018-09-10 This collection of essays gathers innovative and compelling research on intermedial forms of life writing by an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars Among their subjects of scrutiny are biographies memoirs graphic novels performances paratheatricals musicals silent films movies documentary films and social media The volume covers a time frame ranging from the nineteenth century to the immediate present In addition to a shared focus on theories of intermediality and life writing the authors apply to their subjects both firmly established and cutting edge theoretical approaches from Cultural Narratology Cultural History Biographical Studies Social Media Studies Performance Studies and Visual Culture Studies The collection also features interviews with practitioners in biography who have produced monographs films and novels Intellectual Freedom and Censorship Frank W. Hoffmann, 1989 Listings are grouped into five parts covering the theoretical foundations of censorship and intellectual freedom key court cases professions concerned with intellectual freedom procensorship anti censorship individuals and groups cases of censorship in the mass media The latter section will be The Science of Character S. Pearl Brilmyer, 2022-01-11 The Science of Character makes a bold new claim for the power of the literary by showing how Victorian novelists used fiction to theorize how character forms In 1843 the Victorian philosopher John Stuart Mill called for the establishment of a new science the science of the formation of character Although Mill s proposal failed as scientific practice S Pearl Brilmyer maintains that it found its true home in realist fiction of the period which employed the literary figure of character to investigate the nature of embodied experience Bringing to life Mill s unrealized dream of a science of character novelists such as George Eliot Thomas Hardy and Olive Schreiner turned to narrative to explore how traits and behaviors in organisms emerge and develop and how aesthetic features shapes colors and gestures come to take on cultural meaning through certain categories such as race and sex Engaged with materialist science and philosophy these authors transformed character from the liberal notion of the inner truth of an individual into a materially determined figuration produced through shifts in the boundaries between the body s inside and outside In their hands Brilmyer argues literature became a science not in the sense that its claims were falsifiable or even systematically articulated but in its commitment to uncovering through a fictional staging of realistic events the laws governing physical and affective life The Science of Character redraws late Victorian literary history to show how women and feminist novelists pushed realism to its aesthetic and philosophical limits in the crucial span between 1870 and 1920

Digital Scholarly Editing Matthew James Driscoll, Elena Pierazzo, 2016-08-15 This volume presents the state of the art in digital scholarly editing Drawing together the work of established and emerging researchers it gives pause at a crucial moment in the history of technology in order to offer a sustained reflection on the practices involved in producing editing and reading digital scholarly editions and the theories that underpin them The unrelenting progress of computer technology has changed the nature of textual scholarship at the most fundamental level the way editors and scholars work the tools they use to do such work and the research questions they attempt to answer have all been affected Each of the essays in Digital Scholarly Editing approaches these changes with a different methodological consideration in mind Together they make a compelling case for re evaluating the foundation of the discipline one that tests its assertions against manuscripts and printed works from across literary history and the globe The sheer breadth of Digital Scholarly Editing along with its successful integration of theory and practice help redefine a rapidly changing field as its firm grounding and future looking ambit ensure the work will be an indispensable starting point for further scholarship This collection is essential reading for editors scholars students and readers who are invested in the future of textual scholarship and the digital humanities
