The Iowa Writers Workshop:

The Iowa Writers' Workshop Stephen Wilbers, 1980 Tracing the evolution of the writer's workshop Wilbers depicts it as having roots in the midwestern regionalist literary movement of the late nineteenth century and in the university's writer's clubs of the same period The quirky personalities of the individuals who contributed to its growth are revealed as also the pros and cons of students learning to write in an academic situation A Community of Writers Robert Dana, 1999-04-01 With these words written long before his Iowa Writers Workshop became world famous much imitated and academically rich Paul Engle captured the spirit behind his beloved workshop Now in this collection of essays by and about those writers who shared the energetic early years Robert Dana presents a dynamic informative tribute to Engle and his world The book's three sections mingle myth and history with style and grace and no small amount of humor The beginning essays are given over to memories of Paul Engle in his heyday The second group focuses particularly on those teachers Robert Lowell John Berryman Kurt Vonnegut for example who made the workshop hum on a day to day basis Finally the third section is devoted to storytelling tall tales vignettes surprises sober and not so sober moments Engle's own essay The Writer and the Place describes his simple and yet how reckless conviction that the creative imagination in all of the arts is as important as congenial and as necessary as the historical study of all the arts Today of course there are hundreds of writers workshops many of them founded and directed by graduates of the original Iowa workshop But when Paul Engle arrived in Iowa there were exactly two His indomitable nature and great persuasive powers combined with his distinguished reputation as a poet loomed large behind the enhancement of the Iowa Writers Workshop This volume of fine and witty essays reveals the enthusiasm and drive and sheer pleasure that went into Iowa's renowned workshop The Writer's Workshop Iowa Writers' Workshop, 1983 The Program in Creative Writing is known informally as the Iowa Writers Workshop and these two titles suggest the duality of our purpose and function We Wanted to Be Writers Eric Olsen, Glenn Schaeffer, 2011-08-16 We Wanted to be Writers is a rollicking and insightful blend of original interviews commentary advice gossip anecdotes analyses history and asides with nearly thirty graduates and teachers at the now legendary Iowa Writers Workshop between 1974 and 1978 Among the talents that emerged in those years writing criticizing drinking and debating in the classrooms and barrooms of Iowa City were the younger versions of writers who became John Irving Jane Smiley T C Boyle Michelle Huneven Allan Gurganus Sandra Cisneros Jayne Anne Phillips Jennie Fields Joy Harjo Joe Haldeman and many others It is chock full of insights and a treasure trove of inspiration for all writers readers history lovers and anyone who ever wanted to be a writer Jane Smiley on the Iowa writers workshop In that period the teachers tended to be men of a certain age with the idea that competition was somehow the key the Norman Mailer period The story was that if you disagreed with Norman or gave him a bad review he'd punch you in the nose You were supposed to get in fights in restaurants T C Boyle on his short story Drowning I got 25 for it which was wonderful You know getting 25 for the product of your own brain You could buy a
