No Conquest, No Defeat Ariane M. Tabatabai, 2020-12-15 In early 2019 the Islamic Republic of Iran marked its fortieth anniversary despite decades of isolation political pressure sanctions and war Observers of its security policies continue to try and make sense of this unlikely endurance Some view the regime as a purely rational actor whose national security decisions and military affairs are shaped by the same considerations as in other states Others believe that it is ideology driving Tehran's strategy Either way virtually everyone agrees that the mullahs policies are fundamentally different from those pursued by their monarchical predecessors No Conquest No Defeat offers a historically grounded overview of Iranian national security Tabatabai argues that the Islamic Republic is neither completely rational nor purely ideological Rather its national security policy today is largely shaped by its strategic culture a product of the country's historical experiences of war and peace As a result Iranian strategic thinking is perhaps best characterized by its dynamic yet resilient nature one that is continually evolving As the Islamic Republic enters its fifth decade this book sheds new light on Iran's controversial nuclear and missile programs and its involvement in Afghanistan Iraq Lebanon Syria and Yemen

Contesting the Iranian Revolution Pouya Alimagham,2020-03-19 Examines the last forty years of Iranian and Middle Eastern history through the prism of the Green Uprisings of 2009 Religion and Nation Kathryn Spellman,2005-12-01 An estimated 75 000 Iranians emigrated to Britain after the 1979 revolution and the establishment of the Islamic Republic They are politically religiously socio economically and ethnically heterogeneous and have found themselves in the ongoing process of settlement The aim of this book is to explore facets of this process by examining the ways in which religious traditions and practices have been maintained negotiated and rejected by Iranians from Muslim backgrounds and how they have served as identity building vehicles during the course of migration in relation to the political economic and social situation in Iran and Britain While the ethnographic focus is on Iranians this book touches on more general questions associated with the process of migration transnational societies Diasporas and religious as well as ethnic minorities Iran under the Ayatollahs (Routledge Revivals) Dilip Hiro,2013-09-05 First published in 1985 this is a comprehensive study of the Middle East s most strategic country set against the background of the Islamic heritage of Iran and the rise and fall of the Pahlavi dynasty Dilip Hiro describes the various phases through which the Islamic revolution has passed gives an incisive account of the first Gulf War and provides an historical survey of Iran s relations with the West the Soviet bloc and other countries of the region

Power, Islam, and Political Elite in Iran Eva Rakel,2008-11-30 The Iranian Islamic revolution brought about a political system based on a combination of state institutions that derive their legitimacy from Islamic law and republican institutions legitimized by the people As there are no legal political parties in the Islamic Republic of Iran political factions represent the varying ideological and material interests of members of the political elite and their supporters This book analyzes the rivalries between the political factions and their related state institutions and the impact of the dynamics of factionalism on domestic economic and socio cultural and foreign policy formulation It shows that tensions inherent to the structure of state institutions and factional rivalries slow down the process of democratization and economic reforms in the Islamic Republic of Iran Islamism and Post-Islamism in Iran Yadullah Shahibzadeh,2016-06-01 This book is a study of overlooked themes in Iran s contemporary political and intellectual history It investigates the way Iranian Muslim intellectuals have discussed politics and democracy As a history of Iranian Islamism and its transformation to post Islamism this work demonstrates that Muslim intellectuals have enriched the Iranian society epistemologically aesthetically ethically and politically This book examines the internal conflicts of the Islamist ideology as the intellectual underpinnings of the 1979 Revolution its contribution to the formation of the post revolutionary state and the post Islamist response to the democratic deficits of the post revolutionary state Seeking to overcome the shortcomings of historiographical approaches this book demonstrates the intellectual and political agency of Muslim intellectuals from the 1960s to the present The Code of Federal

Terronomics Sean S. Costigan, David Gold, 2016-03-16 Today no single issue dominates the global political landscape as much as terrorism Aware of their unique position in the newly unipolar world terrorist leaders have articulated that economic warfare is a key component of the new terrorist agenda Governments have accentuated the role of economic tools in their counter terrorism policies while maintaining emphasis on the application of military force or hard power even though such tools often prove unnecessarily blunt or even sorely inadequate Given the complexity of the global threat posed by modern transnational terrorist groups combating terrorism with a mix of hard and soft power is more important than ever As an invaluable new book in terrorism studies Terronomics brings together contributions from renowned international scholars and practitioners to provide a multifaceted view of contemporary financial counterterrorism and terrorist funding efforts It employs key concepts terms case studies and policy recommendations to advance our understanding of the threats and possible courses of action thus enabling us to grasp the critical financial and economic issues while providing potential counterterrorist strategies

Falling Terrorism and Rising Conflicts Hooman Peimani, 2003-09-30 The Taliban's fall and the massive American military and political presence in South and West Asia have created grounds for a polarization into two camps India Iran and Russia to which China is affiliated and the United States and Pakistan In Peimani's analysis their incompatible interests will push them towards confrontations with regional and international implications Contrary to expectations the fall of the Taliban did not bring peace and stability to Afghanistan The Afghan interim government is simply too weak to act as a central government this results in the re emergence of warlords turf wars and the expansion of drug trafficking This unstable situation may well result in the emergence of Taliban like groups Added to this the threat of the spillover of instability from Afghanistan into neighboring regions on the one hand and the rapid expansion of American military and political power in Central Asia the Caucasus the Persian Gulf Afghanistan and Pakistan on the other have created fear among the regional powers The stated indefinite stay of American forces well after the end of the anti terrorist war in Afghanistan has worsened that fear as it reflected the American government's plan to pursue certain strategic interests unrelated to that war Consequently as Peimani shows the regional anti terrorist coalition has disintegrated in the absence of a common objective to help focus the region Fear of the long term American objectives and those of its Pakistani ally in South and West Asia incompatible with those of the regional powers have facilitated the creation of two camps consisting of Iran India and Russia to which China is affiliated and Pakistan and the United States Respectively these implicit and explicit camps are likely to collide over their regional interests especially in the strategically important energy producing Persian Gulf and Caspian Sea regions
