The Irish Derby, 1866-1979 Guy St. John Williams, Francis P. M. Hyland, 1980      Aborigines and the Sport of Kings John Maynard, 2013-10-24 Aborigines and the Sport of Kings celebrates the significant and exciting Aboriginal involvement in Australian racing history A remarkable history considering that Australian Aboriginal people's first contact with the European animals caused them bewilderment and terror because violent massacres and unprovoked vicious attacks were conducted from horseback However within a short period they adapted and shed their fears Over time they caught horses and taught themselves to ride using sheets of bark as makeshift saddles Settler accounts record Aboriginal people's uncanny affinity with horses their excellence in caring for them and in riding So moving from the skilled workers who were the backbone of the Australian pastoral industries to racing horses was an obvious step Amongst the many Aboriginal jockeys highlighted in the book are Merv Maynard Norm Rose Frank Reys Richard Lawrence Darby McCarthy and Leigh Anne Goodwin Australia's first female Aboriginal jockey to ride a winner at a metropolitan track      The Story of Your Life James Lambie, 2010 The intriguing story and turbulent history of a paper Charles Dickens praised for its range of information and profundity of knowledge and which Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother simply endorsed with the remark Of course I read The Sporting Life It was the Queen Mother's love of horseracing that made her such an avid reader of the Life and coverage of that sport forms the core of this book but there is so much more to fascinate the reader including eyewitness accounts of the first fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and Captain Webb's heroic Channel swim of 1875 Highlights in the history of cricket football and rugby are also featured while chapters on coursing and greyhound racing rank alongside surreal reports on ratting contests and songbird singing competitions And for 30 years Tommy Wisdom made his motoring reports unique by competing against the best at Brooklands Le Mans and in many Monte Carlo rallies while Henry Longhurst's golfing column was simply the best The paper's strident campaigns for racing reforms are also chronicled along with its coverage of major news stories from Fred Archer's shocking suicide to its own untimely demise Its travails in the law courts are documented from its first year when it was forced to change its title to its last when it had to pay libel damages to the training team of Lynda and Jack Ramsden and their jockey Kieren Fallon A higher price was paid by its French correspondent who was killed in a duel over an article he had written while the terrible toll the First World War took on the nation's sporting heroes is catalogued by the Life's embedded army correspondent against a background of political bungling that is being repeated today      National Union Catalog, 1981, 1982      Irish Books in Print & Leabhair Gaeilge i GCló, 1984

Sport and Society in Victorian Ireland Tom Hunt, 2007 This book examines the development of sports in Victorian Ireland using the example of Westmeath as a case study It explores the development of hunting racing commercial sports golf cycling and tennis cricket hurling and football soccer and rugby It also examines the importance of spectator sports and a variety of ancillary attractions It examines the importance of the club as a vehicle for facilitating sporting involvement the financing of sports and recreation the commercialization of sports and the importance of codification It also constructs a social profile of individuals active in the various sports The role of sports in providing recreational opportunities for women is examined as is the importance of the military to sports promotion and the importance of sports to the military The book illustrates the importance of sport in creating a social life for participants at all levels of society The crucial importance of post 1900 developments in cultural nationalism and their impact on recreational activities and in particular the re emergence of the GAA are also investigated The information is placed in a comparative context and links Westmeath to the Irish sporting world and places the developments in Westmeath within the sporting revolution of the wider Victorian world The book demolishes various established ideas of the Victorian sporting world in rural Ireland and enhances our understanding of what games people were playing and why they played them The range of sports examined contributes to the production of an inclusive and comprehensive study that enhances our understanding of the social history of several groups in society

Desmond,2020-12-23 Over the past four centuries botanists and gardeners in the British Isles have gathered maintained and propagated many varying species of plants Their work has been documented in innumerable books and articles which are often difficult to trace The Dictionary of British and Irish Botanists and Horticulturalists represents a time saving reference source for those who wish to discover more about the lives and achievements of the horticulturalists listed The dictionary s utility comes not only from indicating the major publications of the named authors but also the location of their herbaria and manuscripts The previous 1977 edition of the Dictionary has for many years been a much used source of information for botanists botanic artists and archivists In this revised edition the scope has been expanded to include among its 13 000 entries flower painters in addition to botanical artists over 1400 entries and for the first time garden designers Finally the Dictionary should have international appeal since so many botanists and gardeners worked on collective plants overseas in particular in North America and the British Commonwealth Each entry gives wherever possible details of dates and places of birth and death educational qualifications professional posts honours and awards publications location of plant collections manuscripts drawings and portraits Its main function however is to provide further biographical references to books and periodicals Comprehensive classified indices facilitate access by professions and activities countries and plant interests
