The Iron Road A Stand For Truth And Democracy In Burma:

The Iron Road James Mawdsley, 2002 Twenty eight year old Mawdsley spent much of the past four years in grim Burmese prisons The Iron Road is his story and the story of the regime that jailed him the way it jails tortures and kills hundreds of Burmese each day The Iron Road is the story of how one person can further the cause of justice through sheer will and determination The Iron Road James Mawdsley, 2015-07-07 A startling account of an evil regime and one young man's efforts to defy it

Twenty eight year old James Mawdsley spent much of the past four years in grim Burmese prisons The Iron Road is his story and the story of the regime that jailed him the way it jails tortures and kills hundreds of Burmese each day Mawdsley was working in New Zealand when he learned about the struggle of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi the Burmese Nobel laureate who is under house arrest Outraged he went to Burma staged a one man protest and was jailed There his own amazing story begins He is tortured interrogated released jailed again He turns his incarceration into a contest of wits going on a hunger strike toasting the year 2000 with a cigar and prison champagne and requesting 1 packet of freedom 1 bunch human rights and 2 bottles of democracy At the same time he asks himself What leads those of us in peaceful democracies to ignore others suffering just because it is happening over there to them James Mawdsley is a hero in a generation said to lack heroism The Iron Road named for a torture in which skin is scraped from bone with a piece of iron is an urgent call for an end to human rights abuses in Burma and is a keen analysis of the totalitarian mind set And it is the story at once moving and terrifying of how one person can further the cause of justice through sheer will and determination Myanmar in Pictures
