The Iron Road Home:

On The Road Home , The Iron Road James Mawdsley, 2015-07-07 A startling account of an evil regime and one young man's efforts to defy it Twenty eight year old James Mawdsley spent much of the past four years in grim Burmese prisons The Iron Road is his story and the story of the regime that jailed him the way it jails tortures and kills hundreds of Burmese each day Mawdsley was working in New Zealand when he learned about the struggle of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi the Burmese Nobel laureate who is under house arrest Outraged he went to Burma staged a one man protest and was jailed There his own amazing story begins He is tortured interrogated released jailed again He turns his incarceration into a contest of wits going on a hunger strike toasting the year 2000 with a cigar and prison champagne and requesting 1 packet of freedom 1 bunch human rights and 2 bottles of democracy At the same time he asks himself What leads those of us in peaceful democracies to ignore others suffering just because it is happening over there to them James Mawdsley is a hero in a generation said to lack heroism The Iron Road named for a torture in which skin is scraped from bone with a piece of iron is an urgent call for an end to human rights abuses in Burma and is a keen analysis of the totalitarian mind set And it is the story at once moving and terrifying of how one person can further the cause of justice through sheer will and determination The Iron Road

Christian Wolmar, 2014-05-01 The Iron Road is full of wondrous curiosities Did you know that early trains in Australia were pulled by convicts or that elephants were until recently used to shunt freight wagons in India The world's most magnificent railway station the Chhatrapati Shivaji terminal in Mumbai took 10 years to build The longest possible continuous railway journey in the world is the 10 600 miles between Algeciras in Spain and Ho Chi Minh City in Vietnam And the idea that Mussolini made the trains run on time is a myth No invention not even the Internet has ever transformed the way the world traveled worked thought fought ate drank made love you name it the way the train did From the historic moment in September 1830 when the first train chuffed between Liverpool and Manchester UK there was a race to lay down tracks across the planet Adventurers visionaries and rogues were attracted to grandiose projects linking distant corners of the globe in a quest for wealth power and national unity The achievements were heroic India's railway network was the biggest public works project since the building of the pyramids But the human costs were huge In the 1850s six thousand workers died during the construction of the Panama railway the world's first transcontinental line 120 for each mile of railroad The cadavers were pickled and sold to medical schools around the world to defray costs But for the shareholders there were fortunes to be made and at their peak the railroads represented luxury almost beyond belief The Iron Road tells of great invention grand vision mind boggling engineering military strategy colonial ambition groundbreaking trade changes and social impact all the ways that railroads utterly changed the world in which we live Long Road Home Virginia van Druten, 2010-07-29 It is 1865 People are moving westward along the Oregon Trail searching for freedom land and wealth Sarah sets out with her new husband Johnny only to find he has been damaged in the Civil War He abandons her and chases rumors of gold in the Black Hills A young Indian finds her and takes her to his village She is accepted on the condition she teach them language skills necessary to cope with the onslaught of white settlers Sarah has no choice but to stay She learns to appreciate their culture and their dilemma is torn between that and white civilization as she knows it The Indian chief Makhpiya Luta goes to Washington D C to make peace with President Grant taking Sarah in his party He returns to his lands leaving Sarah to make her way in a world to which she no longer belongs Boarding schools for Indian children open up possibilities for her The experience of teaching in these is disillusioning She goes back to live among and teach her adopted people

The Old Iron Road David Haward Bain,2022-09 In the summer of 2000 David Haward Bain and his family left their home in Vermont and headed west in search of America s past Spiritually their journey began on a Kansas trail where the author s grandmother was born in a covered wagon in 1889 Between the Missouri River and the Golden Gate they retraced the entire route of the first transcontinental railroad and large stretches of the Oregon and California trails and the equally colorful old Lincoln Highway Following vanished iron rails and wagon wheel ruts bumping down backroads and main streets they discovered the deep restless uniquely American spirit of adventure that connects our past to our present A superb writer and an exacting researcher Bain conjures up a marvelous sense of coming unstuck in time as he lingers in the ghost towns and battlegrounds prairies and river ports trainyards museums deserts and diners that line his cruise west to California Bain encounters a fascinating cast of characters both historic and contemporary as well as memories of his grandparents and the journeys that shaped his own heritage Writing in the tradition of William Least Heat Moon and Ian Frazier and with an engaging warmth and a deep grasp of history all his own Bain has fashioned a quintessentially American journey

A Superior Man Paul Yee,2015-10-19 For more than thirty years Paul Yee has written about his Chinese Canadian heritage in award winning books for young readers as well as adult non fiction Here in his first work of fiction for adults he takes us on a harrowing journey into a milestone event of Canadian history the use of Chinese coolies to help build the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia in hazardous conditions After the CPR is built in 1885 Yang Hok a former coolie treks along the railway to return his half Chinese half Native son to the boy's mother where he confronts the conflicts arising from road building among the Chinese and Native peoples Hok's guide on the often perilous trip Sam Bing Lew also of mixed Chinese Native blood urges Hok to take his son to China while Hok has dreams of finding fortune in America The two men agree on little as many issues fester between Chinese and Natives at a time when both races were disdained as inferior by whites redbeards This far reaching novel crackles with the brutal visceral energy of the time a period marked by contraband illegal gambling disfigurement and death It also depicts the bawdy world of Chinese bachelors whose families remained in China while they worked in Canada and who enjoyed more freedom to live their lives without restraint Yang Hok is not an easy man to like but through the blood and sweat of his experience he aspires to become the superior man he knows he should be Boldly frank and steeped in history A Superior Man paints a vivid portrait of the experience of the Chinese in North America in the 19th century Paul Yee's twenty seven books for young people include the Governor General's Award winning Ghost Train This is his first novel for adults
